Steel Talks Remain Stalled

Joblessness Due To Strike Snowballing

325,000 Workers Laid Off As Steel Supplies Dwindle

By JOHN MOODY

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A growing shortage of steel due to the 107-day strike is causing widespread production cutbacks throughout the nation, adding thousands of workers to the jobless lists each week.

The latest Associated Press check, completed Thursday, shows nearly 325,000 workers laid off in industries allied with steel. The nation's biggest auto producer, General Motors, is reported ready to shut down. Added to the 325,000 are the half-million striking members of the United Steelworkers Union, idle since July 15.

Across the nation small- and medium-size manufacturers either have closed or drastically reduced work schedules because of mounting steel shortages. For others it's only a matter of time.

Yule Plan Dampened

With 56 days remaining before Christmas, the economic picture can not help but dampen Yule plans for the families of nearly a million workers—including those now working part time.

Even an early settlement of the steel dispute—longest in the industry's history—could not restore the economy to normal conditions by Christmas. Many workers would remain idle until 1960 even if the strike ended immediately.

Much of the idleness occurred in the mining and transportation industries in the early stages of the strike. For many of these workers even unemployment benefits soon may be running out.

Additional thousands have been dropped as steel reserves, built up during a record six-month production period prior to the strike, dropped sharply.

Wage Losses Skyrocket

Wage losses for the striking steelworkers have skyrocketed to more than a billion dollars. It would be impossible to even estimate the wage losses of workers in the furloughed ranks.

Once the costly dispute is ended miners and railroaders can expect back to work calls quickly. But many of those laid off in the manufacturing industries will have to wait for steel supplies to build up.

Even optimistic guesses are that it will take a month to six weeks for mills to get any important supplies of steel moving. It is a long, slow process getting steel mills back into operation.

Mexican Storm Death Toll May Exceed 1,000

Scores Missing, Hundreds Hurt, Many Homeless

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Hurricane winds and floods may have taken more than 1,000 lives in the Pacific Coast states of Colima and Jalisco, the Mexican government said Thursday.

Reports to President Adolfo Lopez Mateos' office said that as many as 800 are believed dead in Minatitlan, a farm community of about 10,000 population 24 miles northwest of Colima, the Colima State capital.

Many other places were still to be heard from.

The tragedy in Minatitlan boosted the death toll of the weekend disaster. Scores are still missing, hundreds injured, and thousands homeless.

A radio message to the president from Dr. Rafael Chavez Carillo, brother of Colima's governor, pleaded for the rapid dispatch of food and medicine. Food shortages were described as acute in all Jalisco towns which managed to get reports to Mexico City.

The government assigned planes and helicopters to drop food, blankets and medicines to isolated persons in outlying villages. Some refugees were on rooftops, and in trees.

Relief efforts were handicapped by the fact road and rail lines were out and airfields remained flooded.

Rains have ceased and the rivers are lowering, but it probably will be days before communications are fully re-established.

Full losses at sea were still to be determined. Five vessels were reported sunk off Manzanillo.

STIFF SENTENCE—Bernard A. Frack, 25, a long record of traffic violations behind him, stands solemnly as Seattle Municipal Judge W. H. Simmons fines him $1,250 and sentences him to seven months in jail. Frack was convicted on two counts of driving while his license was suspended. Since 1953, Simmons said, Frack has been convicted of more than two dozen traffic violations ranging from driving under influence of liquor to minor violations. (AP Photofax)

West Summit Consultations Slated Dec. 19

De Gaulle Reported To Have Suggested Paris Meeting Date

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower may fly to Paris a week before Christmas for a Western summit conference to weld a solid front for negotiations next spring with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

President Charles de Gaulle of France was reported Thursday to have written Eisenhower, British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer suggesting that Western consultations begin Dec. 19. The talks would last three or four days.

NATO Meeting Dec. 15

Eisenhower told a news conference Wednesday the Western leaders had agreed they should meet, but that the timing was still to be worked out.

Foreign ministers of the 15-nation North Atlantic Treaty Council will confer in Paris for three days beginning Dec. 15 and Eisenhower and other government heads want to meet separately from NATO.

Eisenhower apparently would prefer an opening date for the Western summit less close to the Christmas season.

Complicated Problems

Eisenhower reportedly would prefer not to be under heavy time pressure when he meets with his allies. They face tremendously complicated problems because not only do they have policy differences but they are not even in agreement on what they should discuss with Khrushchev.

Macmillan believes it is possible to make a deal with the Soviet Union for a provisional arrangement on the future of West Berlin. Eisenhower is very skeptical about this and Adenauer has taken the position it would be much better to seek agreement in some other field, particularly disarmament.

Cave Ordeal Ends For Duo

After 20 hours of wandering in the underground maze of Cool Spring Cave near Cadiz, Ky., two Bethel College students finally found the right passage and came out unassisted at a different entrance than the one they entered. Rescue parties had been searching for them since they failed to return on schedule from an expedition seeking rock samples Wednesday night. (AP Photofax)

Negotiations Resume With No Progress

Federal Mediators Prepared To Act In Event Of Collapse

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Top negotiators renewed peace talks Thursday in the 107-day steel strike. They made no headway.

The session lasted just less than 2½ hours. Both sides reported no progress. Another meeting will be held Friday.

Government mediators are prepared to step in immediately if the negotiations collapse.

Four - man teams representing the country's top 11 basic steel producers started the negotiations shortly at a mid-town hotel.

David J. McDonald, president of the United Steelworkers Union, led the union team. The industry group was quarterbacked as usual by R. Conrad Cooper, a vice president of U.S. Steel Corp.

Scene May Shift To D.C.

Joseph F. Finnegan, chief of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, said bargaining will switch to Washington next Monday if nothing is accomplished in Pittsburgh. A call to Washington could come earlier should the contract talks break down, Finnegan emphasized.

The USW announced indefinite extension of contracts with Aluminum Co. of America, Kaiser Aluminum & Chemical Corp., and Reynolds Metals Co.

The contracts were due to expire July 31, but an agreement was reached extending the pacts to Nov. 1, or 30 days after the end of the steel strike.

After Nov. 1 the latest extensions may be canceled on 10-day notice by either side, a union spokesman said. He added that when new contracts finally are signed, they will be retroactive to Aug. 1.

Union Appeal Slated

The union represents 20,000 Alcoa workers, 9,000 at Kaiser, and 9,000 at Reynolds.

There was a note of urgency as the steel talks got rolling again. It was the first time the McDonald-Cooper teams had met since last Sunday.

On the legal front, the union plans to file a formal appeal Friday in the U.S. Supreme Court asking overthrow of a Taft-Hartley law injunction against the strike.

The injunction ordered workers back on the job for 80 days. But enforcement of the ban has been delayed at least until Monday by the U.S. 3rd Circuit Court of Appeals.

Ships Collide In N.Y. Harbor; No One Injured

NEW YORK (UPI) —The liner Israel collided with a freighter near the Statue of Liberty Thursday night shortly after leaving its pier in Brooklyn, bound for the Mediterranean.

The Coast Guard said there apparently were no injuries.

Capt. De Forrest Ballou, First Army duty officer on Governor's Island, said the liner appeared to have received a 30-foot gash in its hull. It anchored just off the Statue of Liberty to survey the damage.

The freighter, U.S. Lines' American Press, was towed to a pier in the Hudson River.

The 8,277-ton freighter was coming into port when the accident occurred.

GM's Profit Running Far Ahead Of 1958

NEW YORK (AP) — General Motors Corp., the world's biggest car manufacturer, Thursday reported earnings of 725 million dollars for the first nine months of 1959.

This was almost double the profit of 399 million reported for the first three quarters of recession 1958.

Net income for the third quarter amounted to 130 million dollars, up from 65 million for the 1958 September quarter.

The steel strike did not affect third-quarter car assemblies but now is forcing a virtual halt to GM operations.

Double Funds Sought For Saturn Project

WASHINGTON (AP) — Spending requests will be doubled next year in the Saturn program for big space vehicles, the Pentagon and the National-Aeronautics and Space Administration said Thursday.

The mammoth power plant to loft satellites or manned vehicles to the moon or farther will eventually cost at least 800 million dollars.

Dr. Wernher von Braun, who has headed the Army's missile work, brought out the agreement on these big spending figures in an informal public conversation with Roy Johnson, outgoing director of the Pentagon's advanced Research Projects Agency.

Securities Deal Offered By Treasury

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Treasury announced plans Thursday to offer up to $10,900,000,000 in notes paying 4⅞ per cent interest, down a bit from the 5 per cent notes issued last month.

The new offering maturing in 1963 is not to raise new money for the government, but to effect an exchange with certain outstanding securities.

Officials said they fixed the rate at 4⅞ per cent because they felt that was as much as had to be offered to make the new notes attractive.

The 5 per cent notes won a smashing public reception but interest rates on government securities have dropped slightly since they were issued.

The Treasury said holders of $8,900,000,000 maturing securities will be able to exchange them for either the 4⅞ per cent notes or for new one-year certificates paying 4¾ per cent.

These holders also may demand payment in cash when their securities mature Nov. 15.

In addition, the Treasury will offer the 4⅞ per cent notes to holders of two billion dollars of 4 per cent Treasury notes maturing Aug. 15, 1962.

These holders also have the option of cashing in the 4 per cent notes next Feb. 15.

Japanese Seek Yeti

TOKYO (AP)—A six-man Japanese team of scholars, alpinists and cameramen leaves by plane Nov. 9 for Nepal to search for the ever-elusive Abominable Snowman (Yeti) of the Himalayas.

Husky Student Beats Teacher

NEW YORK (UPI) —A hulking 14 - year - old boy beat a woman science teacher senseless Thursday when she tried to take him to the principal's office for creating a disturbance in school.

Mrs. Carmelita Gillespie, 39, mother of three, was hospitalized with a brain concussion. She suffered contusions of the face and body, a blackened eye, and a cut on the forehead that required several stitches to close.

Her 160-pound assailant, who stands two inches taller than the teacher, was identified as Julio Martinez, an eighth grade student.

Other teachers subdued the boy and held him for police.

Smith's Condition Remains Critical

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Walter Bedell Smith, retired four - star general and diplomat, remained in critical condition Thursday at Walter Reed Army Medical Center.

Smith, top staff aide to President Eisenhower during World War II and former ambassador to Russia, was first reported critically ill Wednesday. A spokesman said his condition Thursday remains unchanged.

Smith, 64, was admitted to the hospital Oct. 13. He was reported suffering from "pneumonia and a lung abscess."

FBI Joins Hunt For Prominent Missing Jurist

CHICAGO (UPI)—FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover Thursday ordered his agents to enter the widening search for a distinguished Federal Appeals Court judge who disappeared in Chicago three days ago.

The search for Judge W. Lynn Parkinson turned increasingly to Indiana, where the jurist was born and spent most of his life.

An acquaintance said she was positive she saw the 57-year-old judge peering into the window of a Fort Wayne, Ind., store Tuesday night, 24 hours after his disappearance. Friends and relatives thought Parkinson might also wander back to the Hoosier cities of Valparaiso and South Bend, where he had practiced law.

As the FBI entered the case, another possible clue turned the search to the Lake Michigan shore on Chicago's South Side.

A striking steelworker, Robert J. Montgomery, 62, found a blue homburg lying on the beach at 63rd Street, miles from the judge's offices.

Parkinson's daughter, Mrs. John D. Southworth, identified the hat as one belonging to her father.

Parkinson was wearing just such a blue homburg when he walked out of a courthouse on Chicago's near North Side at 4 p.m. Monday.

Chicago police traced the judge to a nearby street corner, where another judge saw him at 5 p.m., and to an underpass beneath Lake Shore Drive, where witnesses said Parkinson fell down the steps and broke his umbrella. The handle of the umbrella was found in the underpass.

The trail ended in an arcade of expensive stores on the ground floor of the Drake Hotel.

Duke To Visit Ranch

CALGARY, Alta. (AP) — The Duke of Windsor expects to visit his Alberta ranch next year for the first time since 1951. Col. Douglas Kennedy, manager of the duke's ranch, said the duke plans to come here next spring, health permitting.

Steel Strike At A Glance

By The Associated Press

NEGOTIATIONS — Industry-wide peace talks resume in Pittsburgh; no headway made.

COURT ACTION—United Steelworkers plans to file formal appeal with U.S. Supreme Court Friday against Taft-Hartley injunction banning strike for 80 days.

IDLE—Half a million striking Steelworkers plus 325,000 in allied industries. Auto industry hard hit.

LOSSES—Steelworkers, 70 million dollars a week in wages; steel industry, 300 million weekly in production; other industries unestimated millions.

ISSUES — Industry seeks local plant work rule changes which union opposes. Union wants wage-fringe benefits industry calls too costly, says would force steel price rises and inflate economy.

LENGTH — 108 days Friday, longest shutdown in steel history.

38 Million Lost By Bethlehem

NEW YORK (UPI) — Bethlehem Steel Corp., the nation's second largest steel producer, Thursday reported a loss of $33,926,913 in the strike - ridden third quarter of 1959.

But directors voted to maintain the quarterly dividend of 60 cents a share paid since the first quarter of 1957.

Despite the stunning third quarter loss Bethlehem earned $84,231,916 or $1.75 a share in the first nine months of this year, against net income of $80,062,586 or $1.68 a share in the first nine months of the 1958 recession year.

The third quarter deficit compared with record profits of $73,591,528 or $1.59 a share in the second quarter of this year, and $26,240,677 or 55 cents a share in the third quarter of 1958.

All of Bethlehem's steel-making facilities have been shut down since July 15 when Steelworkers representing 85 per cent of the nation's steel-making capacity walked off their jobs.

Ike In Hospital For His Annual Health Checkup

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower entered Walter Reed Army Medical Center for his annual head-to-toe physical checkup Thursday—but not until after he got in an autumn afternoon round of golf.

The President motored directly from the Burning Tree Club in nearby Maryland to the hospital entering at 5:20 p.m., e.s.t. He was in a jaunty mood when greeted by Lt. Gen. Leonard D. Heaton and about 100 physicians, nurses and patients.

Heaton, who performed the President's 1956 ileitis operation, recently was named Army surgeon general after having served as commandant of Walter Reed. Also on hand was Maj. Gen. Howard McC Snyder, the President's personal physician.

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said Eisenhower might decide to "take it easy" and stay at Walter Reed longer than he has during past physical examinations.

"He might take it easy and stay there through the weekend or he might leave Saturday," Hagerty said at the White House.

The press secretary, following past practice, expected to issue a short statement on the President's condition after Eisenhower leaves the hospital.

"Alarmist" Reports?

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department said Thursday it has no confirmation of published reports that Jordan and United Arab Republic troops are massing on the Iraq border. At a news conference, a department spokesman said "we regard these reports as rather alarmist."

Negro Rapist Given Death Sentence

BURLINGTON, N.C. (UPI) — A Negro was convicted and sentenced to death Thursday night for raping a white grandmother.

The death sentence was mandatory for Jesse Graves when the all-white male jury failed to recommend mercy.

Judge Leo Carr sentenced Graves to die Friday, Dec. 11 in the gas chamber. The defense attorney filed immediate notice of appeal.

Graves was accused of raping Mrs. E. N. Starnes, the state's chief witness on May 18. Graves was arrested by a posse a few hours after the attack and had been kept in Central Prison in Raleigh because of strong feeling here after the attack.

Ike Approves New York As 1964 World Fair Site

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower Thursday approved the selection of New York as the site of a proposed 1964 world's fair.

The Chief Executive went along with the recommendations of a special committee he appointed to study the feasibility of the fair and to recommend an appropriate site.

The report was sent to the President at Walter Reed Army Medical Center where he approved it. The commission also considered bids from Washington, Los Angeles and Seattle in addition to New York.

The next step will be for the State Department to seek approval for the 1964 fair from the Bureau of International Expositions in Paris.

The site committee report selected New York for several reasons:

—It is "a symbol of freedom to millions...the permanent home of the United Nations...one of the world's outstanding centers of culture, finance, trade and industry..."

It also noted that 1964 will be the 300th anniversary of New York and the 15th anniversary of its becoming the home of the United Nations.

The last world's fair held in this country also was held in New York.

Quick End To Strike May Prolong Business Boom

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Government economists were prepared Thursday to tell industry leaders that the steel strike — if ended quickly — will prolong the nation's business advance at least through 1960.

But the shutdown already has stalled the boom in its tracks, officials told reporters privately, and will delay until early 1960 the attainment of a 500-billion-dollar-a-year production rate.

Side effects of the strike now are spreading so quickly, one high official said, that the administration may be faced with a decision whether to call Congress into special session. Such a session might be asked to deal with the problem if the Supreme Court rebuffs the government's attempt to get an 80-day Taft-Hartley injunction, and if a bargained settlement is long delayed.

Officials interviewed are here for Friday's opening of the fall meeting of the Commerce Department's Business Advisory Council at Del Monte Lodge.

About 100 of BAC's 165 members, including the heads of scores of the country's biggest corporations, were due to confer at this Monterey peninsula resort with Secretary of Commerce Frederick H. Mueller, Secretary of Defense Neil McElroy, and other Washington leaders.

The BAC meetings are always off-the-record, the organization being a private advisory body to the secretary of commerce. But the steel strike hung over the meeting like a cloud and many members were ready to discuss its impact without quotation.

In the main, they shared the government's view of the grave threat to the economy if the strike goes long unsettled, and also their optimism that, if settlement comes soon, there will be a strong, gradually-accelerating upsurge of business activity this winter and next spring.

Story He Deserted Russian Wife 'Fabrication,' Reuther Says

By The Associated Press

The Soviet Union's government-controlled trade unions leveled a bitter blast at Walter P. Reuther Thursday, accusing him of deserting a Russian wife in the 1930s.

Reuther, AFL-CIO president, responded that this was a propaganda attack "based upon complete fabrication and falsehood."

The attack in Trud, the trade union newspaper in Moscow, is an outgrowth of the September debate Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev held with Reuther and other U.S labor leaders when Khrushchev was in San Francisco.

The meeting was closed to reporters, but Reuther gave out an account of the discussions. Tass, the Soviet news agency, several days later accused Reuther of spreading a fantastic report. The trade union newspaper got the recriminations down to a personal level Thursday.

In the early 30s Reuther, according to his Who's Who biography, spent three years in Europe and the Orient "observing auto plants and machine shops." He was for a time in a group of American workers at the Soviets' Gorky auto plant.

Trud's denunciation included letters from persons who said they worked with Reuther at Gorky. A document alleged to be Reuther's employment card showed he left the Gorky job March 27, 1935, and was not a Communist party member.

A woman, signing only N—the Russian signature for anonymity—wrote that she first met Reuther when she passed the place where he lived and heard a voice call "Hello miss, one moment."

She turned around and saw a red-haired man who asked to walk her home.

"That is how we got acquainted," she wrote, and registered their marriage a week later.

"I was 19 years old. I grew up without a mother and no one to warn me—we went to dances, but talked of other things—he vowed his love at first sight. He said he had dedicated his life to the workers and needed a true girl friend," she wrote.

"After we had lived together eight months, he told me 'I am leaving for America.' He promised to write but I knew it was a lie."

A letter from John Roshton, who said he came from the United States in the 1930s and worked in the Soviet Union with Reuther, said Reuther at first spoke with hatred of capitalism and "Ford's sweatshop system," but gradually began displaying "unpleasant traits."

"He is a traitor to the working class," Roshton wrote.

Reuther said in Detroit: "I have been one of the main targets of Communist propaganda for many years.

"Since the San Francisco meeting between Khrushchev and a group of American labor leaders, the Soviet press, radio, television and other media of communications have stepped up the tempo of their propaganda campaign of lies and distortions.

"This latest attack is another such propaganda effort. It is based upon complete fabrication and falsehood."

GM Will Virtually Halt Car Production Tonight--No Steel

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors, world's largest builder of automobiles, will halt all but scattered passenger car production by Friday night because of a lack of steel.

The only assembly lines expected to run next week will be those building the new compact Chevrolet Corvairs at Kansas City, Oakland, Calif., and Willow Run, Mich., and one line in the main Buick plant at Flint, Mich.

Some 200,000 hourly GM workers are expected to be idle by the end of the week. The corporation has about 330,000 hourly workers but many of them are not directly engaged in car production.

GM is by far the hardest hit of the auto manufacturers. Chrysler, too, is hurting but so far has managed to avoid large-scale layoffs. How much longer Chrysler can operate remains problematical.

Chrysler's Dodge truck plant in Detroit will be closed after the first shift Friday, idling some 2,200 workers. The company said assembly operations at the plant cannot be resumed "until some weeks after the return of the steel workers to the steel plants."

Ford says it will run full force for at least three more weeks. It makes half of its own steel. American Motors will last about as long, due to extra heavy prestrike stockpiles. Studebaker - Packard will build into December and hopes to avoid any interruption if steelworkers return to work within the next 10 days.

Among General Motors' car-making divisions, Chevrolet was hit first. It began closing assembly plants two weeks ago and as of Thursday had 48,500 of 60,000 workers idle.

Nobody in the auto industry is willing to estimate officially the length of the shutdowns. But it usually takes three to five weeks of steel production to fill all of the auto parts supply lines.

Alleged Swindle Suspect Seized

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Three men, including a former Miami Beach motel manager wanted in an alleged $25,000 stock swindle, were arrested Thursday by Washington, D.C. police, it was reported here.

Held in the swindle case was Mel Adler, 26. John Lipko, 50, was charged in connection with a $500 hotel bill at the Racquet Club, North Bay village. His companion, James Patrick Motley, 26, of Silver Spring, Md., was charged with passing two worthless checks for $1,493 at the club.

Adler had been sought by Miami Beach police since April 20 when Raphael Escandar, 27, a beach bar concessionaire, and a member of a well-to-do Cuban family, reported he loaned Adler $25,000 with Adler putting up $27,000 in blue chip stocks and bonds as collateral.

Beach police said the securities were stolen from the home of a Skokie, Ill., woman Nov. 7, 1956.

Adler got the securities from a local broker who said he did not know they were stolen property. The FBI is now looking for the original holder of the securities.

Adler told Washington police Thursday that he "could clear everything up." Motley and Lipko told police they knew nothing of the alleged swindle.

'Union Busting' Advice Omitted At Conference

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP)—A lawyer-lecturer spoke to 50 business men about unions Thursday at the University of Maryland, but there was no advice on "union busting" that labor officials had objected to beforehand.

And there were no union representatives on hand as Woodrow J. Sandler of New York spoke at an office management conference here.

Sandler told the business men that the labor-management struggle for affections of white collar workers would be won "by the side that recognizes the real needs of the employes."

Two union officials protested last week that the state-supported university campus was being used by a lecturer speaking on "how to resist unions." W. F. Strong, president of the Maryland-District of Columbia AFL-CIO and J.C. Turner, president of the Greater Washington Central Labor Union, asked that the course be cancelled.

They contended in telegrams to university President Dr. Wilson H. Elkins and Gov. J. Millard Tawes that the university was being used as a launching pad for an attack on unions.

Dr. Elkins replied the university was not sponsoring the course and that it opened its facilities to many groups without censoring the programs. He said he felt sure the course on management would be perfectly within proper bounds.

Sandler said in his talk that large unions are putting increasing emphasis on organizing engineers, technicians and clerical workers. Consequently, he added, it is important for management to improve its "personnel planning" if it wants to avoid unionization.

He quoted a labor leader as saying: "We don't create trouble. We find it."

Weather Bureau Sees Rough, Stormy Winter

WASHINGTON (AP) — Never mind the woolly bears and almanacs — now it's the Weather Bureau that says there may be a rough and stormy winter ahead.

This isn't definite. The bureau's top long-range forecaster said Thursday November's wind patterns will tell more about what's in store.

Dr. Jerome Namias, chief of the bureau's extended forecasts section, said if present wind patterns continue, the nation may experience an unusually stormy winter with sharp temperature contrasts between one section and another.

He said the high westerly winds, which normally blow from west to east, have generally been moving from north to south during the fall.

This has created conflicting channels of air movement, with polar air moving south in one channel and tropical air moving north in another. Where these channels brush against each other, Namias explained, temperature contrasts often produce unusually stormy weather.

If the north-south patterns continue, he said, this would not necessarily mean unusually heavy snows and extreme cold for all sections. He said the storms could bring either rain or snow and temperatures could either be cold or mild, depending on the movements of tropical and polar air. Presumably, he said, there would be sharp variations between one section of the country and another.

Navy Has No Plans To Relocate Contract

ANNAPOLIS (AP) — The Navy has assured Gov. Tawes it has no plans at present to take a 10-million-dollar contract away from the naval weapons plant in Washington.

Tawes sent a telegram Tuesday to William B. Franke, secretary of the Navy, noting that he had been informed the contract may be relocated.

The governor protested the possible transferral and asked for a hearing in which Maryland could present its views. The plant, the old Naval Gun Factory, employs some 300 workers who live in Maryland.

Tawes' office Thursday released a reply from Fred A. Bantz, undersecretary of the Navy.

"I would like to assure you," Bantz said, "the Navy has no plans to transfer any work which has been planned for the Navy weapons plant."

The contract calls for fire equipment and electronics work.

Beefeater Bows Out

LONDON (AP)—The beefiest of London Tower's 36 Beefeaters is bowing out. The Beefeaters are keepers of the crown jewels and the Tower museum.

Last Civil War Vet Suffers Relapse

HOUSTON, Tex. (UPI) —Confederate veteran Walter G. Williams, fighting his third bout with pneumonia this year, has suffered a relapse and put back under an oxygen tent, his doctor said Thursday.

Williams, the only survivor of the Civil War, contracted pneumonia a week ago Thursday and was put under oxygen for three days at that time. He was be 117 years old Nov. 14.

Beirne Declares Worker Faces Double Challenge

ANNAPOLIS (AP) — An American union official told labor leaders from 13 foreign countries Thursday that working men throughout the world face the international challenge of "beating back oppression and poverty."

Joseph A. Beirne, international president of the Communication Workers of America, said the worldwide labor movement must work for the maintenance of peace, higher living standards and the spreading of political, economic and industrial freedom throughout the world.

Beirne was the principal speaker at a program marking the seventh anniversary of the International Labor Center.

The center is operated by St. John's College here in cooperation with the Department of Labor and the State Department's International Cooperation Administration.

It is designed to give foreign labor leaders an introduction to American labor - management practices when they are brought to this country under the ICA's exchange program with other countries.

Beirne, in his prepared remarks, said he thinks the American labor movement is helping meet the international challenge for the most part.

Love Triangle Developed Into Holdup, Bandit Says

BALTIMORE (AP) — A confessed bank robber described in U.S. District Court Thursday how a love triangle developed into a $18,250 holdup at the Central Bank of Howard County in Clarksville.

Glenn W. O'Dell, 28, of Beaver, W. Va., testified that he often dated the wife of his companion prior to the Howard County holdup.

The companion, Raymond Lee Mills, 37, and his wife Marjorie Viola Mills, 34, both of Dayton, Md., have been charged with robbing the Clarksville bank Nov. 8, 1957. O'Dell already has pleaded guilty to taking part in the robbery and is awaiting sentencing.

O'Dell told Federal Judge R. Dorsey Watkins that Mills planned the robbery, drove the getaway car and gave him $1,300 or more of the loot afterwards. He said Mrs. Mills left her husband and went to Florida with him a few months after the robbery.

O'Dell was arrested last Aug. 1 in Cleveland and the Mills couple were picked up in Dayton on the same day.

O'Dell, the key witness at the Mills' trial, said he came to Maryland in August 1956 and worked in a College Park hamburger stand managed by Mrs. Mills. He said he began dating her six months later.

Mills first proposed the bank robbery in August 1957, O'Dell testified. He said he later agreed to help Mills.

The witness said Mrs. Mills knew of the plans and said she would alter O'Dell's work records on the day of the holdup to show that he had worked at the time of the robbery.

O'Dell said he and Mills drove to the bank in the rain and that he went inside while Mills stayed in the car. After the robbery, he said, they abandoned the car and walked for several hours through muddy fields to reach Mills' farmhouse.

The next day, he said, he went back to work at the hamburger stand with Mrs. Mills. O'Dell said he and Mills made two trips to Baltimore during the next few weeks to cash the loot.

Montgomery Park Commission Urged

ROCKVILLE, Md. (AP) — A study group recommended Wednesday night that Montgomery County establish a Park and Recreation Commission.

The group—a subcommittee of the Recreation and Park Study Committee appointed by the County Council—suggested supervision of park operations be taken away from the Maryland-National Capital Park and Planning Commission and that County Manager M. L. Reese be stripped of authority over the county's recreation department.

The subcommittee is headed by Dr. Grant L. Hagen. Its recommendations are expected to result in some controversy when the full committee considers them. The full committee is to submit its report by Jan. 1. The present disagreement was touched off by a recent report by Recreation Director Forest V. Gustafson. The report was sharply critical of park operations and the school board's recreation program.

Teachers Seek Grady Backing

BALTIMORE (AP) — The chief lobbyist for Maryland teachers met Thursday with Mayor J. Harold Grady to enlist his backing for a state-financed pay raise.

Grady's visitor at City Hall, Milson C. Raver, said the mayor's support would be appreciated but the city would not be expected to take part in the teachers pay campaign. Raver is executive secretary of the Maryland State Teachers Assn.

Raver noted that the city would "gain" more than two million dollars if the association's plan for a state-financed 15-million-dollar pay raise program were adopted.

The two million would be city's share of increased aid under the statewide plan, which calls for increasing the state - guaranteed minimum salary scale from $3,200-$5,000 to $4,000-$6,000.

The M.S.T.A. claims a membership of 17,000, including about 40 per cent of all Baltimore teachers.

Wife, Child Beater Gets 3-Year Sentence

ODENTON, Md. (AP) — A 21-year-old Anne Arundel County laborer was sentenced to three years in the House of Correction for beating his wife and her 20-month-old daughter and throwing them out of their house into the rain.

The sentence was imposed Thursday on George C. Young by Magistrate J. Nelson Clark.

Patrolman William H. Beall said he found the mother and child at 4:30 a.m. last Saturday on a street near their home. The child was treated for bruises of the face and forehead.

State-Built Ocean City Convention Hall Urged

BALTIMORE (AP) — A one million dollar convention hall should be built by the state at Ocean City to help Maryland compete for conventions going to other shore resorts and bolster the state's tourist trade, a commission said Thursday.

A 14-man group named by Gov. Tawes under authority of the 1959 General Assembly advocated construction of the big meeting place with funds from sale of timber cut in Worcester County amortizing the project.

The commission, headed by Mayor Hugh T. Cropper Jr. of the ocean resort, will submit its formal recommendations to the Legislative Council next week.

It advocated construction of a hall seating 3,500, dining facilities for 1,500 and four to six executive or committee rooms.

The auditorium should be made available to state agencies, Maryland professional, business, religious, fraternal and civic organizations without charge.

Trade shows, industrial exhibits, sporting events and other privately financed entertainments would be required to pay a fee, under terms of the commission plan.

The commission said the State Board of Public Works should draw up plans for the project and request a one million dollar appropriation from the 1960 Legislature for land acquisition and construction.

The commission said Ocean City itself shouldn't be required to finance the undertaking because it is "already suffering financially as the result of the rapid growth of the resort" since the end of World War II.

Md. Teachers Assn. Purchases Building

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Maryland State Teachers Assn. has purchased the four-story Hopper-McGaw Building at Charles and Mulberry Sts. for use as its new headquarters. The price was $106,000, and Executive Secretary Milton C. Raver said renovations would cost about $250,000.

The association represents 17,000 Maryland school teachers.

Eastern Stainless Earnings Decline

BALTIMORE (AP) — Eastern Stainless Steel Corp. Thursday reported a drop in earnings during the third quarter of this year.

President John M. Curly attributed the decline to unsettled conditions arising from the steel strike.

Net income for the quarter was $713,130, down from $753,449 for the same three months last year, while sales totaled $14,601,574, down from last year's third quarter total of $13,245,074.

Eastern Stainless has continued to operate during the current steel strike through an agreement with its union. However, the company plant needs steel ingots from regular steel plants to refine into the stainless variety, and its supply is running short.

For the first nine months of the year, Eastern Stainless sales totaled $51,080,770, highest in its history. This compares with net sales of $34,824,769 for the same period last year.

Jessup Post To Morganstern.

BALTIMORE (AP) —Dr. Jacob Morganstern, former head of Crownsville State Hospital, has been named superintendent of a new maximum security hospital at Jessup.

His appointment was announced by the advisory board to the Department of Mental Hygiene on recommendation of Dr. Clifton T. Perkins, State Commissioner of Mental Hygiene.

The 275-bed hospital; costing an estimated $2,889,000, will be ready for occupancy early next year. The institution, located on the grounds of the House of Correction, will house offenders committed for pre-trial examinations as well as those declared by the courts to be criminally insane.

Patients considered to be maximum security risks also will be sent to the new facility from other hospitals.

Dr. Morganstern, now director of forensic psychiatry for the department, joined the staff at Crownsville as a physician in 1941 and later was named superintendent. He left that post in 1952.

Bike-Riding Delivery Boy Killed When Cars Collide

BALTIMORE (AP) — A careening car, apparently out of control, smashed into another car at a busy intersection Thursday. A 16-year-old messenger on a bicycle was caught between the cars and killed.

John Burling, the young cyclist, was jammed into the trunk of one car by the impact. His bike was crushed and scattered through the intersection of North Ave. and St. Paul St.

The drivers of the two cars were treated at Mercy Hospital for shock and minor injuries.

Both cars and young Burling were headed south on the one-way street. Witnesses said a car driven by Mrs. Margaret Irwin, 56, was swinging wildly down the street, dodging cars. She appeared to be trying to signal to other cars as she passed them.

At the intersection she struck the boy and the rear of a State car which police said was driven by James Canter, 51, a chauffeur for Spring Grove State Hospital. One of the boy's shoes was found about 40 feet from where the accident occurred.

She was reported under sedation at the hospital.

Yusif, Palestinian Refugee, Clings To Glimmer Of Hope

By DAVID DUGAS

BEIRUT (UPI) — Eleven years ago a Palestinian farmer named Yusif and his family joined thousands of their countrymen in an exodus from Palestine during the Arab-Israeli war. The departure was a speedy one and there was no promise of a speedy return.

Today Yusif is one of the more than one million men, women and children known as Palestinian refugees whose problem apparently is among the world's most hopeless.

But Yusif is not without some hope.

With encouragement from Arab governments, he believes the vanished Palestine must be recreated and that he will return to it. The United Nations has promised him compensation for his losses, or repatriation. He demands only the latter. He has neither.

To take care of Yusif's immediate needs and to help him and his fellow refugees start life anew, the U.N. in 1950 set up the U.N. Relief and Works Agency as a temporary solution. On that basis it has been continued, receiving contributions from U.N. member nations that have amounted so far to about 263 million dollars.

The present five-year mandate for UNRWA expires next June 30. There is no real doubt that its life will be extended, as asked by U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold, by the refugees and by the host Arab governments.

But the problem illustrated by Yusif and his family remains.

When he fled his farm in Palestine in 1948 he took with him his wife, an aging uncle and an eight-year-old son. Now his family is bigger.

So are other families. There were an estimated 720,000 refugees seeking temporary homes in 1948. Now, according to the latest UNRWA estimate, there are 1,087,628.

Yusif (the Arab equivalent of Joseph) and his family live in Jordan, an Indian-sized country that has become home for more than half of all Palestinian refugees. There are another 100,000 Palestinians in Jordan, many of them professional men and skilled workers, who are not counted as refugees.

Yusif lives in a camp near Jericho called Aqabat Jaber. It is home for more than 32,000 refugees and is one of four camps around the ancient biblical town. Altogether, UNRWA maintains 42 camps in Jordan, the United Arab Republic's Syrian region, the U.A.R.-administered Gaza Strip and in Lebanon.

Back in Palestine, Yusif, like most of his fellow refugees, was a farmer. It is the only life he knows. Around Jericho he sometimes finds a few weeks' work in fields during the year. But most of the time there is nothing to do but sit idly, discussing with friends the day when all will return to their own land.

Yusif and the others could choose to remain in Jordan. There they have been officially welcomed as full-fledged citizens —a status not accorded refugees in Syria, Gaza or Lebanon.

THEIR ADVENTURE OVER—This is the end of an early morning adventure for a little boy and his dog. David Avery, 2, and his dog Spot apparently slipped out of the Avery household at Oakland, Calif., while his parents were sleeping yesterday. They were spotted walking along the Nimitz Freeway. Patrolman Wendell Morrison responded to a call and promptly tucked little David and Spot under his arms and took them home. No one could explain David's exposed posterior. (AP Photofax)

Disaster Relief Among B'nai B'rith 'Firsts'

By DANIEL RAPOPORT
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Jewish organization that was the first national organization of any kind to provide disaster relief recently celebrated its 116th year of service to all Americans.

B'nai B'rith is a name well known to most Americans. But few are aware that such "firsts" as disaster relief are sprinkled throughout its remarkable history.

Here are a few B'nai B'rith achievements:

--It became the first organization in the U.S. to build hospitals that specialized in treating tuberculosis and arthritic diseases.

—In 1868—some 13 years before the Red Cross was born—B'nai B'rith established precedent, when it assisted the victims of a flood in Baltimore.

—Its 116 years make it one of the oldest service or fraternal groups in the United States. Only the Masons and Odd Fellows claim a longer history.

American history is dotted with mention of B'nai B'rith, which was founded in New York on Oct. 13, 1843, by a Jewish mechanic named Henry Jones.

Soon after it was born, the group was fighting anti-semitism, even before the term was coined. Secretary of State Daniel Webster and Sen. Henry Clay of Kentucky threw their support behind B'nai B'rith in its fight for removal of certain anti-Jewish laws abroad.

B'nai B'rith now boasts a total membership of 500,000 persons in 38 countries. It recently honored President Eisenhower for his "positive efforts" to preserve world peace. In turn, it has been commended by every U.S. President since McKinley.

In Hebrew, B'nai B'rith means "Sons of the Convenant." Along with the meaning goes a saying —"Whereever there are Jews in the free world, there is a B'nai B'rith."

Yule Demonstration To Be Given, Gifts Collected

The Junior Woman's Civic Club will have Mrs. E. E. Loar as guest speaker at the general meeting November 4. She also will give a demonstration on "Do It Yourself Christmas Decorations." Plans were formulated at the board meeting conducted by Mrs. Ralph Sell Jr., Wednesday at the club house.

As November has been designated by the General Federation of Women's Clubs as "Count Your Blessings" month, a collection will be taken at the meeting and sent to CARE, and credited to the junior clubs, whose country is the Philippines.

Mrs. Raymond P. Lapp Jr. reminded everyone to bring old toys for the toy box and articles, such as tissues, stretch socks, powder puffs and cigarets for the mental health patients.

The style show and card party for the benefit of the club's different philanthropic projects was discussed. It is to be November 12 at the Ali Ghan Country Club. Fashions will be by Martin's, Shinnamon's and Tots to Teens.

Mrs. Richard Dailey and Mrs. Leslie Clark were hostesses for the evening.

Eric Fable Heads Cumberland DeMolay

Officers were elected and Christmas dance plans were discussed at the meeting of Cumberland Chapter, Order of DeMolay Wednesday evening at the Masonic Temple.

Eric Fable was elected master councilor; Charles Hafer and David Dawson, senior councilors; Charles Aronholt and Larry Smith, junior councilors; and Kenneth Phillips, treasurer. James Kave is the holdover secretary.

Appointive officers will be named at the meeting November 11. The group discussed plans for the annual Christmas dance, which is to be held Christmas week. Members were reminded of the annual Scottish Rite dinner for the DeMolay, which will be held November 27 at 6:30 at the Ali Ghan Country Club. Cars will leave Central YMCA at 6 p. m.

Organization of a basketball team was begun for the Rec Department League.

Concluding the meeting a social hour was held and refreshments were served by the DeMolay Mothers Club.

Cresaps Will Be Honored

Wreaths of flowers will be placed on the graves of the son and grandson of Col. Thomas Cresap, founder of Oldtown in 1740, Ross Shaw, honorary member of the Cresap Society, reported yesterday.

Representative John R. Foley will donate a wreath for the grave of Captain Michael Cresap, grandson of Col. Thomas Cresap. It will be placed on his grave at Oldtown at 10 a.m. on Veterans Day by Mr. Shaw.

Lawrence W. Collins of New York City, a descendant of the Cresaps, has donated a wreath and will place it on the grave of Captain Michael Cresap, son of Col. Thomas Cresap, in Trinity graveyard, New York City, on Veterans Day.

Club Day Camp To Hold "Hay Seed Hop"

A "Hay Seed Hop" will be sponsored by the Cumberland Country Club Day Camp Association tonight at the club. Music from 9 until 1 will be by the Blue Notes. The Holloween theme is being carried out in the decorations, but sports clothes are to be worn instead of costumes. The public is invited.

Mrs. Benjamin LaNeve is chairman, with Mrs. Woodrow Gurley, Mrs. Hollis Seavy and Mrs. Carlton Brinsfield assisting.

A rummage sale will be held Monday from 11 until 3 p.m. by Group 4 in Central Methodist Church, South George Street.

Students To Make UN Tour

Nine students are registered to make the United Nations tour, sponsored by the Cumberland Branch, American Association of University Women, Miss Margaret Baker, member of the branch and advisor of Allegany High School UN Club, reports.

The tour is sponsored annually by the branch, in conjunction with the state association, for high school students. The group, accompanied by two adults, will leave here November 5 and spend the night in Baltimore. Joining the Baltimore group, they leave for New York on the sixth.

To motivate their history course, the group will be taken on a guided tour of the United Nations and attend a meeting of the General Assembly as well as special sessions. They will return home after dinner.

Students going are Patricia Linaburg, Gretta Gough, Elizabeth Blair, Paulette Dryer, Sue Wheatherholt, Dorothy Miller, Holly Smith, Sandra Roeder and Barbara Psimer. They will be accompanied by Miss Irene Lapp and Mrs. Carl H. Clapp.

Club 514 Takes Orders

Navy Mothers Club 514 made plans for a bake sale at the meeting conducted by Mrs. Lucille Bartlett at the American Legion home. It is to be held November 7 at 10 a. m. at the Cumberland Electric Store, North Centre Street.

Orders are being taken for candy and Christmas cards. It was decided to reorder dish cloths. Cigarets were given to a Navy man.

Concluding the meeting refreshments were served by members with birthdays in July and August.

Social Chart

A bake sale will be held tomorrow in Sterling Electric Store, 100 North Centre Street, by the Emma R. Hileman Bible Class of St. Luke's Lutheran Church.

Animal Welfare Society Approves 2 Ordinances

Two committees were appointed and ordinances were approved at the meeting of the Animal Welfare Society, conducted by Louis Young at the Public Library Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Earle Cobey, Mrs. Brooke Whiting and Mrs. Arthur P. Dixon were named on the nominating committee. The "Animal Friend of the Year" committee includes Mrs. John Towler, Mrs. Helen P. Wise, Mrs. Winnie Bigler and Mrs. Frank Simpson.

The president reported that the "Peep Law" has been rejected by both the city and county administrations. For the past two months it was noted that there has been no candidate for the Best Friend to Animal award. Any person knowing of a special act of kindness to an animal is asked to contact the society.

Ordinances approved by the society were "Cats to be licensed and belled, not to run free without both," and "Licenses to be billed by the county, with fees going to the animal wardens proportionately."

Mrs. Harold Matthews told of the mistreatment and killing of her Persian kitten by high school boys. The society requested they be notified as to the progress in this case.

Animal Welfare staff workers reported on their investigation of a local riding academy. It was decided by the society that conditions are satisfactory at the riding academy.

The recommendation of Mrs. Helen P. Wise that Mrs. Florence Finan be appointed to the board of directors was accepted.

Penn Ave. 1935 Reunion Chairmen Are Named

Mrs. Annie Leith and Coy Dyer were named cochairmen for the first reunion of the 1935 class of Pennsylvania Avenue High School marking the 25th anniversary of graduation.

Other chairmen named for the reunion to be held July 2, 1960 at Ali Ghan Shrine Club are Mrs. Dorothy Bryant Adams, hospitality and registering; Arthur Morgan, William Powell, gifts; Mrs. Mildred Crabtree Stufft, financial; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hinkle, program and Mrs. Naomi Moss Rice, memory book. Serving on the committees will be Maynard Fisher, Mrs. Maxine Snyder Squires, Mrs. Elma Harsh Duer, Mrs. Violet Teets Smith, Harry Goss, Mrs. Maxine Souders McGill, Mrs. Mary Ellen Wolford Serf, Mrs. Vera Thomas Gardner; Mrs. Ruth Ringler Taschenberg, William Arthur and Mrs. Sarah Soulsby Berry.

The next meeting will be held Friday November 6 at 7:30 p.m. in the fellowship hall of Grace Methodist Church, Second Street and Virginia Avenue. At this time other chairmen and committees will be selected. Members of the class are urged to attend the meetings and assist in the preparations for the reunion.

Halloween Dance To Be Held Saturday

The Cumberland Junior Association of Commerce is sponsoring a public Halloween dance tomorrow night at Clarysville Inn. Costumes are optional. Prizes for the best and funniest costumes will be awarded. Music will be by Peter Lukas and his band.

Tickets may be obtained from any member of the association or at the door. Proceeds are for civic improvements.

Murray Buckley is chairman of arrangements, assisted by Chris Lockard, Allan Douglas, Donald Blair, Richard Dailey, Ray Kenney and Ralph Sell Jr.

Mrs. Walter T. Smith, Brant Road, Cresaptown, has returned home after being a patient in Memorial Hospital.

Allegany Senate Is Entertained

The Senate of the Allegany High School Student Council was treated to a dinner by Miss Orpha-Bonita Pritchard, advisor, Wednesday evening at the Ali Ghan Country Club.

Organized last year, this is the first that the Student Council has been operating. A regular meeting was held following the dinner and the Senate will present its agenda at the meeting of the council.

A fall motif was carried out with pumpkins decorating the table. The senate presented a corsage of yellow rosebuds to Miss Pritchard.

Dr. Ardell Haines, principal, was a guest. Others present were Robert Wiseman, Senate president; Tim Barnes, vice president; Kathryn Starcher, secretary; John Kauffman, treasurer; Sherry Ricks, Mary Beth Sheehe, Sandra Roeder, Dale Sterner and Donald Walker.

Potomac Valley Riding Club will have a trail ride Sunday at 11 a.m. from the club house, followed by a luncheon. A business session will be held at 8 p.m.

Miss Ruth Cornwell will be honored with a program at the meeting of McKinley Chapter 12, OES, tonight at 8 at the temple.

NEW YORK (AP) — A leading economist said Wednesday that in his opinion it'll be the stockholder not the public who absorbs the higher labor cost in any steel settlement.

Eliot Janeway, president of Janeway Research Corp. and a director of Birdsboro Steel Foundry & Machine Co., made the statement in a news announcement.

"The industry made a profit on the higher labor costs it absorbed in 1956 because it was able to raise its prices enough to do so," Janeway said.

"But it can't repeat this chapter of history this year, thanks to imports, let alone politics. And it isn't even going to try.

"Regardless of the outcome of the steel strike, steel stocks have had their move. The mere existence of the steel agreement is bound to disturb the investment community which traditionally draws its money back from management whose operating problems are allowed to become political footballs and daily newspaper headlines.

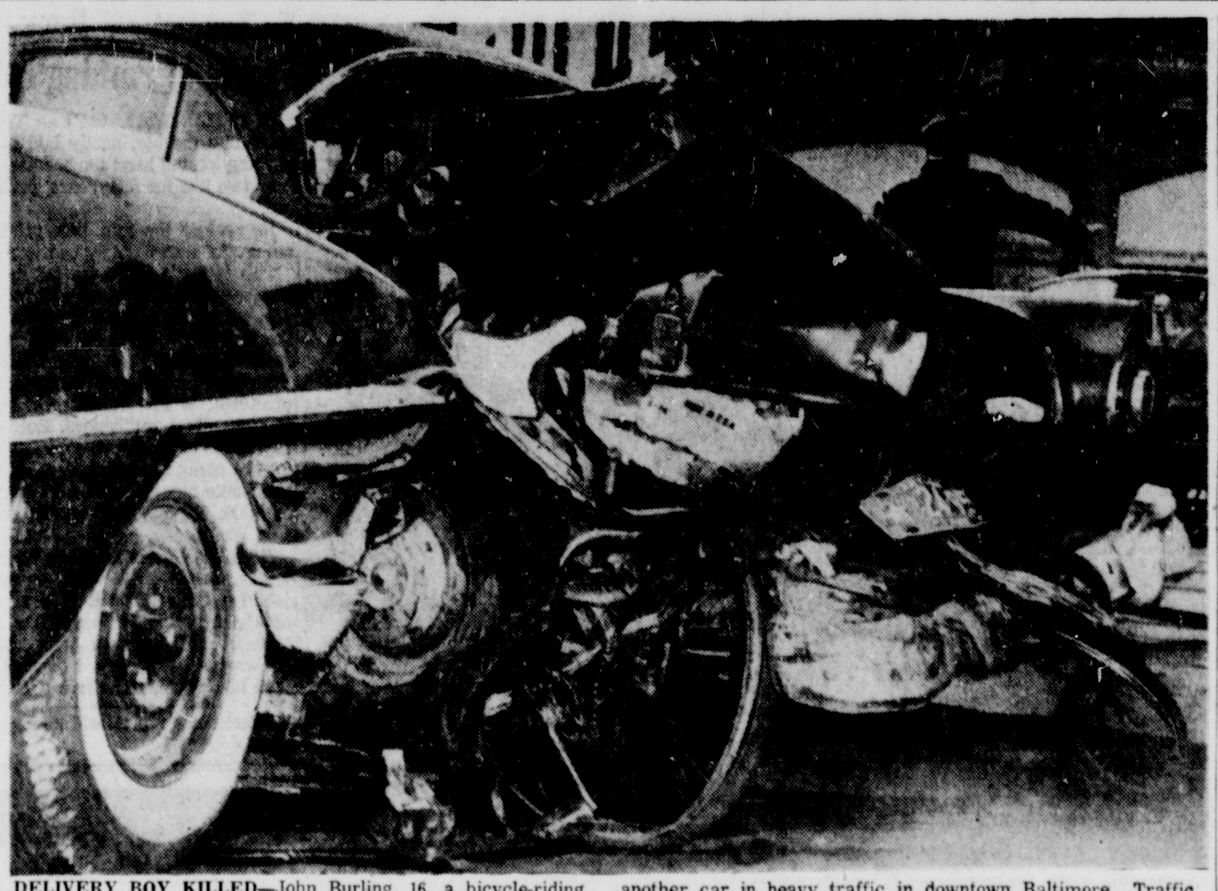
"Even an immediate contract can only mean defeat for the industry as the Kaiser settlement suggests. The union need not—and will not—give the productivity issue, but the industry already has agreed to give up on the labor cost issue."

Christmas clubs with 13 million members will pour $1,405,000,000 in savings into business channels in the next two weeks. President Edward F. Dorset of the Christmas Club Corp. says members plan to use 31 per cent for Christmas buying, 51 per cent for savings and investment and the balance of taxes, bills and miscellaneous expenses.

Here's good news for women pinched by bulky girdles: The Du Pont Co. will put into production a new textile fiber which stretches and snaps back into place like rubber. This means, Du Pont says, that girdles made of the fiber will be easier to get in and out of, will be lighter, softer and sheerer, and will give as much figure control as heavier models.

Ban "Lolita"

CHRISTCHURCH, N. Z. (UPI)—The New Zealand customs department Thursday banned import of Vladimir Nabokov's novel "Lolita." Customs reversed an earlier ruling which said Lolita, because of its merits, could be sold to adults but not to children. This resulted in confusion because, it was left to book sellers to decide who was adult enough to read it. Thursday book sellers advised customers the book was not available.



DELIVERY BOY KILLED—John Burling, 16, a bicycle-riding delivery boy for the Baltimore Blueprint Company, was killed yesterday when he was struck by a car and thrown against another car in heavy traffic in downtown Baltimore. Traffic at the busy intersection, just north of Baltimore's business district, was snarled for over an hour. (AP Photofax)

Mutual Bible For Protestants, Catholics Is Project For Future

By GEORGE CORNELL
Associated Press Religion Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—For Protestants and Roman Catholics—the same Bible.

That's considered a possibility in the ranks of biblical scholarship. It's also seen as a potential means of bringing closer ties between the two folds.

But some practical difficulties are noted, including the question of whether ordinary church people would readily take to the idea.

"It could be done," said the Very Rev. Msgr. John J. Dougherty, of Immaculate Conception Seminary, Darlington, N.J. "at the scholarly level, it's recognized that there is little difference in contemporary Bible translation."

Yet scant likelihood is seen for the project at present, since Protestants have barely launched a major new translation of their own the revised standard version, and Catholics are just finishing a new one.

Each undertaking has required years of work—and heavy investments.

A mutual Bible might not be "feasible at the present, but it would be wonderful for the future," said the Rev. Dr. William F. Albright, a noted Protestant archeologist, biblical expert and professor at Baltimore's Johns Hopkins University.

"If such a Bible could be brought out, it would be advantageous to both sides," he added. "It would be one more break in the wall which separates Catholics and Protestants."

The suggestion was made last week by the Rev. Walter M. Abbott, associate editor of the Catholic weekly, America.

With modern advances in biblical research, and increasing cooperation of Protestant and Catholic scholars in this field, he said it would "seem an easy step to a joint translation of the Bible for the Christian people."

The Rev. Dr. Luther A. Weigle, of Yale Divinity School and a leading Protestant authority on Bible translation, said the proposal was entirely within reach "from the standpoint of the scholars."

However, some experts cited obstacles, including views of many lay people that differences in Catholic and Protestants beliefs arise from differences in Bible texts, and they want their own distinct version.

"Given that kind of popular misconception and recognizing the pastoral responsibilities, a common Bible seems unlikely in the near future," Msgr. Dougherty said. "People have to be educated."

Recent archeological finds have provided a wealth of new information on vocabularies, idioms and cultures of Bible days, and stirred wide activity in biblical research by both Protestants and Catholics, often together.

U.S. Giving Planes

TAIPEI, Formosa (UPI) — The United States disclosed Thursday it is giving supersonic RF-101 Voodoo jet reconnaissance planes to Nationalist China. Military sources said the jets already being delivered on Formosa would permit the Nationalist to photograph Red China while remaining over international waters. Sources also said Nationalist sabrejets shot down a Communist MIG early this month in a battle that was hushed up because the United States wants peace in the Formosa Straits.

Dove Survives Shot And Refrigeration

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — A dove survived a hunter's shot and four days in a refrigerator.

R. B. Castle, a Mobile real estate man, got his limit of doves last Saturday. He returned home and placed the bag in the refrigerator, planning to clean the doves later.

He got around to it Tuesday. But when he opened the bag, out hobbled a live dove with a broken wing.

Castle's children, Gale, 7, and Robby, 2, immediately adopted the durable dove and are nursing it back to health.

Eggplant is said to be a native of southern Asia, where it has been cultivated since remote antiquity.

De Gaulle's Foot-Dragging On Summit Upsets Britain

By J. M. ROBERTS
Associated Press News Analyst

Britain has been far more upset by Charles de Gaulle's foot-dragging over a summit conference than has the United States.

In Britain it has gone so far that at least one of the great London newspapers, the conservative Daily Telegraph, considers it a threat to the Western alliance.

The conservative Times, which may not be as great a mirror of government thinking as it once was, but which is extremely powerful, says the French idea that real progress must be made before a conference stands Anglo-American policy on its head and would seem to make a conference unnecessary.

It is obvious that the British have been led into one of the great dangers of summitry—the belief that it can really produce great accomplishments. Such beliefs, when shattered, tend to make matters worse rather than better.

The United States takes a more even view of De Gaulle and a much less hopeful view of possible summit results.

President Eisenhower thinks De Gaulle will be ready for a Western conference on summit procedure in a few weeks and that things will progress toward the East-West meeting.

The expressed American attitude toward the ultimate outcome is one of wait and see, against an unexpressed background of pessimism. Hope is seen for continuance of the Berlin stalemate, but not for a settlement such as the British believe possible. Some hope is held in other fields such as disarmament.

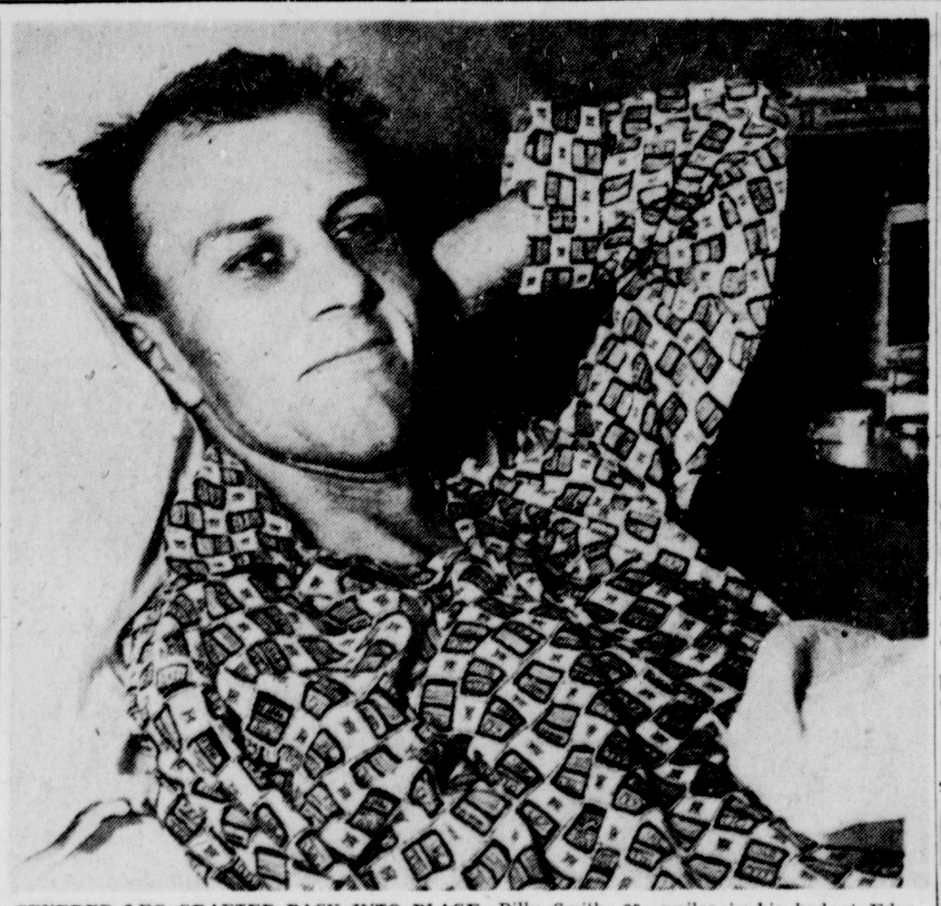
From this distance, the effect of the dispute on Franco-British and Anglo-German relations in other affairs appears more important than any far-fetched talk of danger to the Atlantic Alliance. That alliance is the result of pressures from without which far outweigh any divergence of views within.

Germany and France, in the European Economic Community, in the European Coal and Steel Community and in other fields under the Council of Europe, are engaged in a program of economic cooperation and political unity which has the British worried. The British have joined with seven European countries not members of the Economic Community to "cooperate" with the Community, which actually means to protect their own interests.

There is a period of flux in which the homogenization of European interests violates a traditional, though not now actively pursued, British policy of preventing Continental coalitions.

Along with this, France is actively seeking a return to her old-time position as a great power due some deference.

The foundation of the United Nations was laid at the Dumbarton Oaks conference in Washington.



SEVERED LEG GRAFTED BACK INTO PLACE—Billy Smith, 25, smiles in his bed at Eden Hospital, Hayward, Calif., yesterday. Wednesday it was revealed a team of doctors succeeded in grafting back his severed leg in an operation about three months ago. Surgeons said they could find no parallel in medical history for the operation. Smith's leg was crushed a few inches above the knee by a crane while he was re-bricking a furnace. Only a two-inch strip of skin connected the leg to the stump at the time of the accident. Doctors said all that remains now are skin grafts and an operation within a few months to link main hip nerve to lower leg.

1958 Per Capita Tax Shows Drop-To $568

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Americans paid $98,400,000,000 in federal, state and local taxes in 1958, or about $568 for each man, woman and child, the Census Bureau reported Wednesday.

Taxes per capita in 1957 were $580. The decline resulted from a rise in population and a dip of 200 million dollars in total tax collections.

Taxes in Delaware were lightest in relation to income, totaling $81.96 per $1,000 of personal income. The bite was deepest in Wyoming, where the tax ratio was $193.41 per $1,000.

The bureau pointed out that state and local outlays rose 13 per cent from 1957 to 1958 for a record $53,700,000,000. Revenues totaled $49,300,000,000 and the difference was made up by borrowing.

Ex-Teamsters' Boss Works In Parking Lot

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — You drive into the big, neatly laid out parking lot and hand the heavy-set man two bits for four hours' parking.

He pockets the coin, then points out a spot with friendly courtesy.

This is Dave Beck, putting in a full day at his downtown Seattle parking lot across the street from the building where he once directed the giant Teamster's Union.

Beck, 65, onetime Teamsters' president, is far from broke. He is reputedly a millionaire. But he says he is out to prove something.

"I'm going to show everybody I can make money and I don't have to work for the Teamsters," he said Wednesday.

Beck spends six or seven hours a day, five days a week, on the job. He arrives about 8:30 a.m. and leaves around 3:30 or 4 p.m.

Beck said business was "not building up the way it should" with hired help, so he took over.

Black bears are said to have poor eyesight.

Crew Members Desert

ADELAIDE, Australia (UPI)—Nine anti-Communist crew members of the Yugoslav ship "Boka" deserted during its stop here earlier this month, immigration authorities said Thursday. One of the men has asked for political asylum and his request is being considered. All the group, which included four officers, has expressed dissatisfaction with the Communist regime in Yugoslavia.

Ann Landers . . .

Answers Your Problems

DEAR ANN: Well it happened again this morning, and I MUST write this letter and get this out of my system before I pop.

ANOTHER of my girl friends had her picture in the paper with the announcement that she was married secretly six months ago. I'll bet my life she'll have a baby within five months. All the girls pull this and I'm sick of it.

These so called "fancy debs" live it up and when they get into trouble blithely announce they've been married several months. Then they have a "premature" baby (with hair three inches long) and everything is forgiven. They join clubs, hold offices, and their mothers actually seem proud of them.

Does it pay to do the right thing when one girl after another pulls this stuff and in two weeks it all blows over? Please comment.—HOLDING OUT.

DEAR HOLDING: Simmer down and use your head. What can these girls do but pretend everything is ginger-peachy and then pull a rinkydink with the dates? Do you suggest all pregnant brides wear yellow armbands or be shipped to the Island of Elba?

These girls (and their mothers) are well aware that people can count. They know, too, that when a "secret marriage" announcement is soon followed by maternity clothes on the girl, tongues are sure to start wagging.

Yes, it does pay to do the right thing, regardless of the carefree manner in which the expectant brides conduct themselves. Don't be fooled by the smiling face they present to the world. They would have preferred it the other way.

DEAR ANN: I'm embarrassed to write for advice at my age, but something is bothering me and I would feel even more foolish asking someone in my social circle.

I'm a widow in my 40s. A certain gentleman I've been seeing has a peculiarity which makes me uncomfortable. When the waiter brings the check he always puts on his reading glasses, takes a pencil from his pocket and adds it up.

Occasionally he finds an error and then he triumphantly points it out to the waiter. It's humiliating to me and I wonder if it's worth the few dollars. Shall I speak to him about this?—SILENT SUFFERER.

DEAR SILENT: People make mistakes—and so do machines. There's nothing wrong with checking a bill and you should not be embarrassed because he's smart enough to do it. In fact, it's silly to hand out money without checking first.

If you haven't been going over YOUR bills before paying them, it's time you started.

DEAR ANN: My wife's folks live four blocks away. They are lovely people but they have one big fault that drives me nuts. At least twice a week they walk over with their company. If someone drops in on them they bring them over to our house. It's easier to haul their guests to our place than to entertain them.

Frequently we've had to change plans so as not to appear rude. Frankly I'm sick of it. There's never an advance phone call. They just show up. Please tell us what we should do short of insulting them. They are really swell people and have been terrific to us.—SANDY.

DEAR SANDY: This is now a habit which must be broken. The next time they appear with guests say, "We were just going out—so sorry." Then get your hats and coats and GO OUT—even if it's to a drugstore for a package of gum.

Does almost everyone have a good time but you? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "How To Be Well-Liked," enclosing with your request 20c in coin and a large, self-addressed envelope.

(Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.)

One Authority Urged

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Stephen M. Young (D-Ohio) said Thursday the U.S. space program is "more tangled than a landlocked octopus," and urged creation of a cabinet post for space and aeronautical science. Young, a member of the Senate space committee, said "if we do not act quickly to bring our space and missile programs under one authority, we will become enmeshed in a multiplicity of agencies and our space program will never get off the ground."

Arts, Crafts Shown Here

An exhibition of arts and crafts by members of the B'er Chayim Temple Sisterhood is being held in the vestry of the temple, according to Mrs. Robert Miller, who is in charge of the exhibit.

Originally scheduled as a one-day show Wednesday, the exhibit has been extended through today because of the number of persons attracted to the display, Mrs. Miller said.

Contributing members, and their entries, include:

Mrs. Paul Steinberger, embroidery; Mrs. William Schindler, needlepoint; Bernard Leibowitz, woodwork; Rona Winer, metal craft; Allan Shrager, Mrs. Mark Lazarus Jr., Mrs. Richard Schwab, Mrs. B. D. Freedman, Mrs. Samuel Wertheimer, Mrs. Harry Olin and Mrs. Miller, oil paintings.

Mrs. Wertheimer, Mrs. Freedman, Mrs. Olin and Allan Shrager, watercolors; Mrs. Richard Schwab, Mrs. Leonard Schwab and Mrs. Wertheimer, sketches; Mrs. Freedman and Mrs. Miller, fashion illustrations; Mrs. Miller, prints, woodcuts, etchings and lithographs.

Mrs. Miller, textile design; Mrs. Miller and Richard Winer, sculpture; Mrs. Freedman, Mrs. Olin, Mrs. Samuel Schwab, Mrs. Walter Brock, Shrager and Robert Miller, mosaics, and Mrs. R. H. Mendelsohn, ceramics.

WAC Career Opportunity Open To Women Of Area

A program of interest to young women college graduates of this area was announced here yesterday by Lt. Rhoda M. Hevner, procurement officer for the Women's Army Corps.

Lt. Hevner said a class for WAC officers will begin at Fort McClellan, Ala., on February 23, when 250 young women college graduates will begin training for careers as officers in the WAC. Of this total number, she said, 50 will come from the Second Army area, which embraces Maryland, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Ohio and Kentucky. She said she has interviewed a couple of prospective WAC officers here and expects to enlist several before the final date of acceptance on December 23.

The Womens Army Corps offers opportunities for direct commissions as second lieutenants to women with four years of college or work experience between the ages of 20 to 28, and first lieutenant commissions to women with seven years' college or work experience between the ages of 28 and 33.

Base pay while training and serving ranges from $2,677.60 per year plus $574.56 subsistence or food allowance and $820.80 for quarters or rent allowance for second lieutenants; and $3,112.32 per year plus subsistence of $574.56 for food and $925.20 for rent for first lieutenants. In addition to this total pay of $4,062.96 or $4,612.08, a 30-day paid vacation is assured each year and medical and dental care are provided without charge.

Miss Hevner said there are 10 specific career fields open to qualified WAC officers. These include personnel and administration, intelligence, training, logistics, comptroller, public information, information and education, civil affairs and military government, legal and legislative, and special services.

College training, work experience and aptitude tests are used to establish qualifications and assignment to each of these fields, the lieutenant explained.

The orientation course offered for newly commissioned WAC officers lasts for 20 weeks and includes full indoctrination into the military service.

The initial tour of duty, Lt. Hevner said, is for two years. This can be extended by the individual's own request. WACs and WAC officers are now serving in many Army posts in this country, in Europe and the Far East.

The minimum college requirement is two years toward a baccalaureate degree or its equivalent, and the opportunity is open to single or married women, provided they have no dependents under the age of 18.

Lt. Hevner, who is assigned to this recruiting district and is stationed at the main station in Fairmont, W.Va., visits here each month. Information on the WAC and WAC officer programs may be obtained at the Army Recruiting Station, third floor Post Office Building, and appointments can be made there for an interview.

MOSCOW (UPI) — Alexander Nesmeyanov, Russia's top scientist, said Thursday more information — and possibly more moon pictures — is to come from Russia's high-flying Lunik III. Nesmeyanov, as president of the Soviet Academy of Sciences, is titular head of Russia's scientific corps. He wrote in the Communist Party newspaper Pravda that "not all scientific information received from aboard the automatic interplanetary station has yet been analyzed."

Sets Up Internships

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Ford Foundation announced Thursday it is awarding $1,927,000 in grants for teachers, journalists, attorneys and college students to serve "internships" with congressional and state legislators and local officials. "The aim of the internship program is to attract into political life and government more of the talent that ordinarily goes into other kinds of careers," said Dyke Brown, foundation vice president. "Government, like education, business and the professions, will be no better than the caliber of persons who choose it as a career."

Men Sentenced To Work For City

Two habituals who were found guilty on charges of being drunk and panhandling yesterday are scheduled to become the first members of a city "work gang" Monday.

Each man was fined a total of $110 and given 60-day jail terms in default, with Trial Magistrate F. Allan Weatherholt stipulating that the two be put to work on the city's streets, beginning Monday.

Weatherholt invoked a portion of the City Code which states violators can be put to work under supervision of the street superintendent and Police Department, with the transgressors being credited with the rate paid for such labor by the city.

Street Commissioner John J. Long yesterday said he would cooperate with the program, pending a ruling on the legality of the plan from City Attorney William R. Carscaden.

The men, he continued, should report to Carl G. Rickard Jr., assistant city engineer for streets, parks and planning, before being assigned to Charles Heller, street superintendent, for work details.

Weatherholt threatened the use of labor on city streets to habitual offenders shortly after his appointment as trial magistrate.

Opening lead: Nine of ♠.

South's inadequate knowledge of the percentage tables today resulted in a net loss of over 2,000 points in the play of the hand.

The opening lead was the nine of spades. Declarer refused to finesse, winning the first trick with the ace. Concluding that his best chance was to establish dummy's diamonds, he immediately went to work on that suit, trusting that the outstanding six cards would be divided three and three. When this hope failed to materialize, the contract landed on the rocks.

Declarer had overlooked a much better prospect of fulfilment on another line of play. That the six outstanding diamonds would probably not break three and three should have been taken into consideration. There was the further thought that, even if the diamonds did break, he would lose the hand if either opponent had four hearts, because if the diamonds were ruffed that opponent would have more trumps than himself.

The best plan was to try to cash all eight trumps separately, which together with three club tricks and two other aces would count to 13. The proper procedure was to play the ace, king, and queen of clubs, discarding dummy's two spades. A small spade is now ruffed with the three of hearts. The ace of diamonds is followed by another diamond ruffed by the four of hearts and now by cross ruffing the spades and diamonds, declarer makes the rest of the tricks.

When this line of play was pointed out to the actual player, he said he disliked to cash the ace, king, and queen of clubs for fear someone would ruff. In order for him to be justified in his apprehensions, the outstanding nine clubs would have to be divided seven and two, an extremely remote holding. The best percentage play was really quite simple.

Christmas Savings Club Payments $797,680

During the period from November 2 through November 9, five local financial institutions will mail Christmas Savings Club checks totaling $797,680 to 8,161 members.

The amount is $8,196 more than last year when $789,484 was mailed to 8,430 members. The number of members in the clubs dropped by 269 but the amount of money stashed away for the annual Christmas shopping spree increased. As usual not all will find its way into the buying of Christmas gifts and associated purchases. Some will be placed in savings accounts and others invested.

The local institutions, the amounts and mailing dates are as follows:

Cumberland Savings Bank: 756 clubs compared to 768 last year; will mail out checks November 9 totaling $95,000 compared to $99,419 a year ago.

First Federal Savings and Loan Association: 1,542 clubs compared to 1,519 last year, will mail out $113,103 November 7 compared to $107,359 a year ago.

First National Bank and Trust Company: 1,620 clubs compared to 1,786 a year ago; will mail out $133,000 November 6 compared to $137,800 a year ago.

Liberty Trust Company: 2,708 clubs compared to 2,742 a year ago; will mail out $319,000 November 9 compared to $315,000 last year.

Second National Bank: 1,535 clubs compared to 1,615 a year ago; will mail out $137,577 November 2 compared to $129,906 last year.

HOLLYWOOD

By Louella Parsons

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — There's been a huddle of Columbia bosses in New York, including Hollywood chief Sam Briskin, and one of the outcomes of this meeting of the minds is that Columbia will take over Jeff Chandler's independent production, "The Plunderers." An original by Bob Bardash, the story deals with post-Civil War action as suggested by the title.

Jeff's picture also gives Columbia a chance to show off some of its new young talent including Jimmie Darren, Glen Corbett, Rian Garrick and Michael Callan.

It might interest all these young men to know that another decision of the New York meeting is that $100,000 has been allocated to promote them plus other newcomers at this studio.

Getting back to Jeff—he's again holding hands with Esther Williams in the nightspots around town.

There's been a lot of talk around that Shirley Maclaine will be offered the Fanny Brice role in Fanny's life story. I believe Columbia owns the rights to the Fanny Brice story but so far there isn't a script written. Even so, many actresses have been named as possibilities. What about an actress not as well known, Kay Ballard, who does all Fanny's songs with that same verve that Fanny gave them?

Of course no one can make this story without the approval of Mrs. Ray Stark and William Brice, Fanny and Nicky Arnstein's son. William, by the way, is one of our leading young artists and Fanny would have been so proud of him had she lived to see his work.

I have often wondered why David Janssen hasn't been given an important motion picture. He looks like a young Clark Gable, has a voice very like Gable's, and he's handsome. Moreover, he's a good actor. His popularity in the "Richard Diamond" TV series has been growing and growing. I know, because I receive many letters about him.

I spoke to Sol Siegel and suggested, since MGM has been looking the field over for a male lead for Elizabeth Taylor in "Butterfield 8," that he take a look at some of David's TV shows. It's not true that Eddie Fisher is to have a role in the picture—at least it wasn't up to today.

We probably will have to eat those words — that satire never succeeds on the screen. "Li'l Abner," I believe, will be the movie to work this charm. It's full of new young faces, laughter, love and happy lunacy, plus songs and dances.

Leslie Parrish, a livin' doll, plays Daisy Mae, and I see a great career ahead of her. Peter Potter is delightful in this wacky world of Dogpatch. Stella Stevens as Appassionata Von Climax lives up to her promise, and you will like Stubby Kaye as Marryin' Sam. The miracle of "Li'l Abner" is that while it is all very sexy, Panama and Frank have made it as clean as a Dogpatch whistle.

If Tom Moore, Jr., is as handsome as his father and has the Irish charm of the late actor, he should win hands down the TV series for which he just tested, "Congressional Investigators." Mary Pickford, who is young Tom's aunt (Mary was married to Owen Moore), has been coaching Tom, Jr., went with him to the studio, and stayed on the sidelines as a morale booster while he was shooting the test.

Today Mary and Tom's mother (Eleanor) saw the test — and though these ladies are understandably prejudiced, they report he was "just great" and very photogenic. Tom recently graduated from Hawaii University.

A letter from Keefe Brasselle states that the picture he plans to do is about capital punishment and only in an indirect way would concern Caryl Chessman. Even in an indirect way would be too much for people who think Chessman has cheated the law long enough.

I had forgotten that Columbia made "Cell 2455 - Death Row" in 1955. In checking it, I find that there were many states where it couldn't be released, and England banned it completely. Ben Kahane said today that Columbia had let the option on Chessman's second book drop because "Cell 2455" was really a flop. There are too many pleasant things to see and hear about than this man's miserable life.

PPG Reports Sales Earnings Up For Quarter

Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company's sales for the third quarter of 1959 were $166,368,174 or approximately 10 per cent above sales of $151,041,874 reported for the same period of 1958, according to David G. Hill, president.

Net earnings for the third quarter were $14,049,031, equivalent to $1.42 per share. In the comparable quarter of 1958, net earnings were $12,055,562 or $1.22 per share. Income tax provisions for the third quarter were $13,374,059 as compared with $12,968,926 reported for the third period of 1958.

For the first nine months of 1959, sales were $446,248,355 as compared with $400,604,564 for the same period of 1958. This represents a sales increase of $45,643,791 or 11 per cent for the first three quarters. •

Net earnings for the nine months of 1959 amounted to $34,064,967 or $3.44 per share. For the equivalent period of 1958, net earnings were $24,810,021, or $2.50 per share. Income tax provisions for the first nine months of 1959 were $32,227,636 as compared with $25,821,882 for the same period of the preceding year.

Hill stated that third quarter sales of $166,368,174 were off moderately from record sales of $169,613,521 reported for the preceding quarter. He attributed the slight decline to normal seasonal influences as well as a leveling off in demand for glass products.

Glass sales reached a peak in the second quarter following settlement of the glass division's 134-day strike in mid-February, Mr. Hill pointed out.

Sales prospects for the company's major produces — glass, paints and chemicals—were encouraging at the beginning of the final quarter. The long strike in the steel industry, however, is now causing some postponement in orders from industrial customers, according to Hill.

'Little Two' Autos Again Dominate Market Activity

NEW YORK (UPI)—Stocks continued in a generally higher vein on active trading, with electronics featuring on the size of gain and the "little two" autos again dominating activity.

Volume for the session totaled 3,890,000 shares, compared with Wednesday's 3,920,000.

Studebaker issues dominated the early dealings after the stock exchange discontinued all stop orders in the issues—thus preventing the bulls from protecting profits and the bears from limiting losses. The order came after Wednesday's sharp gyrations in the issues. The immediate reaction was heavy selling. The Studebaker stocks rallied some from their lows when the entire market picked up late in the session, but still closed with losses.

Studebaker common, most active with 389,600 shares changing hands, lost 2⅞ to 25½.

Wall Street talk centered around early resumption of steel operations through a negotiated contract, or application of the Taft-Hartley injunction and the whole list improved late in the day after top level negotiators resumed a session in Pittsburgh.

The electronics were given a whirl that lifted Ampex more than 5, Texas Instruments over 4, Litton nearly 4, Motorola and General Precision Equipment around 3.

Among aircrafts, there were gains of a point to 3 points in Douglas, North American and Martin. Allied ran up over 5 in the chemicals. There was strength in drugs with Schering and Norwich substantially higher.

Steels did little except for Youngstown which fell nearly 2.

Chicago Grains

CHICAGO (UPI) — Most grains were lower as fair weather brought selling Thursday on the Chicago Board of Trade.

At the final bell, wheat was off ½ to 1½; corn off ¼ to ⅜; oats unchanged to off ¼; rye off 1 to 1⅝; and soybeans off ¼ to 1.

The wheat market was quiet. Waker prices reflected an absence of commercial support. Local and outside longs sold, and prices fell well below earlier firm levels. Local traders bought December and March early.

Corn was also weak. Trade slowed down after an active start. Commercial houses sold December early in what was regarded as hedging. Commission houses bought. Cash corn was mostly firm.

Oats showed the only appreciable advance Thursday, as cash houses continued to buy, most trade was light and prices closed steady.

Rye dropped more than a cent, following the lead of a heavier Winnipeg market.

Soybeans were again erratic, opening lower, rallying to firm and then falling off again. Friday's is the first delivery notice day, and there was a good deal of changing. November was bought against sales of January and May. Processors bought January.

Reports that France bought 375,000 bushels of soybeans from Red China at $1 to $2 a ton below U. S. prices touched off some selling in beans.

West Germany was said to have bought 560,000 bushels of hard wheat, while Israel and Japan picked up soybeans.

Outside markets were mixed.

City Police Applicants Being Sought

The Cumberland Civil Service Commission, meeting Tuesday at City Hall, discussed an examination for patrolman in the Police Department.

Applications will be received at the office of City Clerk Wallace G. Ullery until 5 p. m. November 24. Date of the examination will be set later.

Ullery said only two names remain on the patrolman eligibility list at the present time.

In another action, the commission said classification of executives in the Police Department is being proposed if the department desires it.

The matter was brought about, it was said, by the recent wage increases granted city employes. The new schedule listed detective at $100 more than a patrolman in wage setup where previously both had been the same.

If the department desires the executives classified, the commission asked that it be furnished with a list of duties and other information.

Fort Cumberland Hotel Buys Liberty Theatre

The Liberty Theatre building on North Liberty Street has been sold to the Cumberland Hotel Company for $40,000, according to a deed recorded in the land records office of the Court House yesterday.

The property was purchased from the Wicomico Theatre Corporation.

Plans are to raze the theater property and use the land for a parking lot for guests of the Fort Cumberland Hotel, according to papers filed in connection with the property transfer. The hotel is operated by the purchasing company.

For many years the theatre was operated by the late Thomas Burke as a movie house. A number of stage attractions were also presented. During the 1920s the theater also was used to present prize fights among some of the topnotch boxers of the east.

The Schine Theatre chain operated the movie house for some years but in recent years the building has been vacant.

Under terms of a court action some years ago the Schine chain was instructed to divest itself of the theatre.

The first talkie movie with Al Jolson was shown at the Liberty in 1929 and for several years movies were shown starting at midnight on Sunday. In those days there were no Sunday movies allowed in Cumberland.

Cub Scouts Will Stage Book Drive

LUKE — Reading material for area hospitals, instead of the usual candy and cookies, will be collected Halloween night by Cub Scouts of Tri-Towns Pack No. 33.

Turning the usual goody gathering night into a public service, uniformed cub scouts will make a house-to-house drive in the Tri-Towns to ask for books which can be used by the patients in area hospitals. Children's books, comic books, pocket books, etc., all will be accepted and then distributed to hospitals in Keyser, Frostburg, Romney and Cumberland.

About 40 cub scouts are expected to participate in the drive Halloween night from 4:00 to 6:00 p. m.

Cub Master James Chapman has cautioned, however, that this will be not a "scrap drive," and only good, serviceable and readable books will be accepted and redistributed. Tri-Towns residents are being asked to make a special effort to part with all unused books.

Dividend Declared

The board of directors of West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company at a meeting held in New York Tuesday declared a regular quarterly dividend of $1.12½ per share on the 4½ per cent cumulative preferred stock.

This dividend is payable November 15, to stockholders of record at 3 p. m. on November 6.

New Plan To Reapportion Delegates Is Submitted

BALTIMORE (AP) — A compromise plan to give Maryland counties more seats in the House of Delegates was submitted to Gov. Tawes by his special commission Thursday.

The size of the Baltimore City delegation, now 36 members, would be frozen at that number.

Under the proposed formula, the four largest — Prince Georges, Montgomery, Anne Arundel and Baltimore counties—would pick up additional seats after the 1960 census. That's because they already exceed 200,000 in population, the mark at which the commission would give another seat to counties now having the present maximum of six.

Other counties also could gain seats after they reach certain population limits, but all growth in representation would end when the House membership reached 141, compared with its present 123.

No changes in the membership of the Senate are proposed. Each of the 23 counties would continue to have one seat, as would each of Baltimore City's six legislative districts.

From the 1867 adoption of the State Constitution until House membership was frozen in 1950, this was the formula for apportionment of seats:

Two seats for counties with 18,000 population or less.

Three—18,000 to 28,000.

Four—28,000 to 40,000.

Five—40,000 to 55,000.

Six—more than 55,000.

The governor's commission, headed by William C. Walsh, former attorney general, proposed:

At least two seats for each county.

Three seats — for any county which now has two seats but whose population reaches 50,000 in any future census up to 1980.

Four—population of 75,000.

Five—100,000.

Six—150,000.

Seven—200,000.

For every additional 100,000 increase in population after that, a county would pick up one more seat until it reached the individual maximum of 10 seats.

"Our present problem (inequity of representation) stems largely from the population yardsticks set out in the Constitution of 1867, plus the failure to hold a constitutional convention every 20 years as provided for by that Constitution," the Walsh Committee told the governor.

"Any group which attempts to deal with the problem is at once faced with the established representation now given Baltimore City and each county, and with the practical difficulty of getting a sufficient number of the members of the Legislature to vote for a proposal which in any way lessens the political importance of their respective political units.

"The result is that a compromise must be sought which will at least make some improvement in the present situation without decreasing to an unreasonable extent the political stature and importance of any area of the State."

Many Area Veterans And Dependents Will Be Affected By Changes In Disability Pension Law

The laws governing non-service-connected pensions for war veterans should be carefully studied and understood by persons of retirement age, and especially those attaining retirement age in the near future, Thomas G. Kilduff, assistant state service officer of the Maryland Veterans' Commission announced.

His office is located in Room 4 on the first floor of the County Building on Union Street. His telephone number is PA 4-0155.

Mr. Kilduff said that under the present law, veterans who are eligible for pension benefits can have a yearly income of $1,400 if single, or $2,700 with dependents. The dependents' income such as the wife's Social Security payments will not be computed with the veteran's when determining this income limitation.

The new law recently passed by the House and Senate will go into effect July 1, 1960. This bill will benefit some pensioners. However, at the same time it can cause a considerable loss to many other veterans and their dependents.

For example, an eligible veteran with no dependents having an annual income of $1,400 would, under the present law, be entitled to $78.75 monthly. The same person would receive only $40 monthly pension under the new law. Veterans with dependents will also be affected. Also, this recently enacted bill will consider a certain portion of the wife's income (if not estranged) when determining the veteran's entitlement to benefits.

The veteran must be on the pension rolls prior to July 1, 1960, to be eligible under the present payment plan.

It takes approximately 90 days to process a claim, therefore an applicant would not likely be entitled to the current rates if he should apply 30 or 60 days before the July 1 deadline. After the date, the claimant has no alternative but to accept the provisions in the newly enacted law.

A veteran need not be 65 to be eligible for non-service-connected pension. If the individual is permanently and totally disabled or if he is unable to obtain gainful employment as the result of his physical condition, no matter what age, he can apply for these benefits. This includes veterans of World War I, World War II, and the Korean war.

Harvard Student Poll

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (UPI)—Adlai E. Stevenson and Nelson A. Rockefeller were one-sided favorites for the presidential nominations in a poll of Harvard faculty members, it was announced on Thursday. The poll conducted by "Harvard students for Rockefeller" gave Stevenson 62 per cent of the Democratic preference vote and Rockefeller 81 per cent of the Republican preference vote.

Offers Suits

OPORTO, Portugal (UPI)—Eduardo Cerqueira said Thursday the thief who stole three suits from his clothing store could keep them if he sent back what was in the pockets. Cerqueira said he hid 100,000 escudos ($3,500) in the pockets of one of the suits.

Car Production Falls

DETROIT (UPI) — Automotive News reported Thursday that car production in the United States will drop to an estimated 101,358 units this week, largely due to crippling of General Motors operations by steel shortages. This week's production compares with 112,488 cars turned out last week and 97,804 units produced in the corresponding week of last year.

To Host Camargo

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower announced on Thursday that the president of Colombia, Dr. Alberto Lleras Camargo, will arrive in Washington April 5 to start a 10-day state visit. The Colombian leader will stay here for three days and spend the rest of his visit touring the country.

Nuclear Bomb Scare Unfounded

Seldom are there tangible benefits from the crash of an airplane, but two Air Force tragedies in the last year have proved conclusively that there is no danger of a nuclear bomb exploding if the plane carrying it is involved in a collision. This is true provided the bomb is carried in a disarmed state, as it is except at such time as an actual alert is sounded and the plane is on its way to a target.

Spokesmen in the Defense Department have many times reassured the public that there is no danger in unarmed nuclear bombs, even if they should accidentally fall to the ground. But realization of the potential destruction inherent in each bomb was bound to give the ground population jitters every time a bomber flew overhead, despite reassurances from the Pentagon.

A bomber crash in North Carolina last year and the collision of a B-52 and its refueling plane on October 15 have proved the efficacy of Air Force precautions. Both planes carried disarmed nuclear bombs, both crashed, and in neither case was there a nuclear explosion.

Most of the planes carrying nuclear weapons over the United States are attached to the Strategic Air Command, which provides the only constantly alert retaliatory force. With a rotation system which keeps bombers aloft every minute of every day, SAC units are designed to be on their way to enemy targets in any corner of the globe within minutes of an attack on the U.S.

Although the Pentagon has never publicly described the armament of SAC planes, the two bomber crashes have made it quite clear that these planes are armed with either A-bombs or H-bombs, even on training missions, to maintain the constant preparedness necessary in this era of uncertainty and mistrust.

There is an added sense of security both in the knowledge that the horizon is constantly protected by planes carrying such devastating weapons and that their destructiveness is effectively preserved for the enemy.

TV Confessions

Apparently the walking encyclopedias who appeared on the TV quiz shows signed contracts. These were entertainment contracts. They were not appearing as encyclopedias but as entertainers; they were showmen, pitchmen for advertising. For that they got paid. No one appeared without some form of compensation.

Their defense that they did not cheat is that they put on a good show and that is what they were hired to do. Their amended confessions to New York District Attorney Frank Hogan, if they are within these margins, may have legal substantiation, but public opinion will regard the entire business as cheating.

Dr. Frank Stanton of CBS shows more sense than others involved in this exhibition of greed; he admits the guilt of all participants, including his company's, changes the policy and denounces the practice. Others who have failed to follow his example, must explain to the public how they can justify cheating.

What seems to be missed in all the discussions about the cheating TV shows are two facts:

1. The air waves are not owned by the networks or the radio stations. They are owned by the people of the United States and are operated under license. The responsibility then is as much the FCC's and the FTC's to see that the American people are not swindled as anyone else's;

2. The quiz shows and similar entertainment are generally presented to the public as unrehearsed. That in radio is possible; in television it is difficult if not impossible. Edward R. Murrow who used to manage the rather dull "Person to Person" show, says of this:

"The producers must know who is going where and when and for how long. They must know whether the individual will require 20 seconds or two minutes to answer a question. The alternative to a degree of rehearsal would be chaos."

If a show has been rehearsed, it is not unrehearsed. Perhaps that is why the "Person to Person" show was so stilted, but most of the quiz shows were not dull. They seemed to be genuinely unrehearsed. They seemed to be spontaneous.

The TV quizzes will die now and most of the giveaway programs will die. What is to take their places? Shall we have more Westerns and more murders? What is left to show? This seems to be a frightful dilemma for television which is required by its very nature to produce too many shows each day. After all, most Westerns have by now come to the same end; the hero generally has to murder the villain and the same scenery has become tiresome. Now that we have become accustomed to the heroes and know them intimately, the element of surprise is lost.

The "private eye" yarns get tougher each day. The thrill departs after the racketeer is shot; it is not necessary to pour the remaining bullets into him. Besides, they are bad for the young who nowadays do not go to bed at 9 p. m. when wickedness apparently becomes permissible on TV.

The use of TV needs to be thought out anew. The tendency of all media of expression in this country is to find a formula that pays off and to stay with it until it no longer pays off. Probably what happened with the cheating TV quiz shows is that the formula was growing desperately difficult ot keep going; so they made it an easier instrument by a bit of innocent cheating. But in the end, crime does not pay, because somebody tells.

I used to enjoy quiz shows. They were a wonderful reminder that nobody knows much really and that a bit of humility helps. But the cheating was in some cases quite obvious, particularly when questions which could correctly be answered in different ways, had to be answered only one way. Why was that? We used to argue about such goings-on in this family and would consult various reference books. Maybe we learned something.

Confessing secretly to a District Attorney may satisfy a lawyer, but it is meaningless for the public. It is like going down to a District Attorney's office to cop a second degree. In this case, it is worse, for it is the public that has been cheated and the public needs to know the facts.

The place for effective confession is in the press which the people who were cheated read. It is they who have the right to know.

Let's Keep In Mind The Dark Side

Secret Memos Reveal Quiz Show Rigging Was Discussed At Start

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON—Secret minutes kept by the high command of the $64,000 quiz shows reveal that the question of rigging was raised on opening night.

After the first performance of $64,000 Question," granddaddy of all big-money shows, the advertising representative conceded that "a little bit of rigging" might be necessary on opening night but warned that the reaction would be bad if the public suspected "trickery" behind the scenes.

This prophetic advice came from Albert Ward of the B. B. D. & O. advertising agency who recorded what happened at the brainstorm sessions where the $64,000 shows were planned. His brief notes were typed on B. B. D. & O. stationery and marked "Confidential."

After keeping minutes of the weekly meetings for two years, however, Ward was abruptly ordered to stop after he put in writing that Revlon, the sponsor, wanted certain contestants knocked off the shows.

Revlon's Martin Revson, who presided over the meetings, objected that such a document might be damaging if the public got hold of it. Actually Revlon did not advocate rigging the $64,000 programs, except to use tougher questions to eliminate contestants without audience appeal.

Ward's notes were locked in the B. B. D. & O. safe, and no more minutes were taken. However, the early minutes have now been exhumed from the safe, and ned by this column.

ng them is a memo, writt y Ward and dated June 8, 1955, criticizing the first $64,000 show.

Warns Against Tricks

"The two contestants were possibly a little too good looking and a little too bright for the real good of the show," he wrote. "Granted, an opening night may need a little bit of rigging to make it come off properly, but we have to realize that we are getting an awful close look on the home screen and nothing will make it come off properly, but we have to realize that we are getting an awful close look on the home screen and nothing will make Revlon look worse than if the public thinks there is some kind of trickery going on behind the scenes."

Ward also didn't like bringing the questions to the show under armed guard from the vaults of the Manufacturers Trust Company.

"I think the business of having the manager of a New York bank flanked by two of New York's finest has the slight ring of a plugged nickel," he protested.

"I would say," he added, "that advertisers and show business are getting to sound too rich and maybe a little offensive in their wealth."

But Ward agreed the show was heading for the high ratings.

"As usual," he wrote, "I have carped maybe too much. . . . I would like to end by saying I think the show has wonderful show elements. I am sure it will have a big public and has all the earmarks of ratings well up in the 30's. I would think the opportunities for promoting this are as great as it was when Phil Baker used to play his accordion and he was only giving away hairpins. As I heard Lou Cowan say after the show, when he completed a phone call, 'Fellows, we're in!"

More Losers Needed

Ward's confidential minutes are full of references indicating that some control was kept on contestants.

"It was decided there was a definite need for the '$64,000 Question' to have more losers," declare the minutes on March 15, 1957.

Again on March 28, the minutes report: "Mr. Abrams (George Abrams, then in charge of Revlon's advertising) talked about the necessity of our having losers in the lower categories."

A notation on March 1 urges: "There are many reasons why it is necessary for both shows to have women contestants. It was agreed that, as an unwritten rule, there will be a woman on each and every 'Question' and 'Challenge' show."

A later note adds: "Decided that children are needed on show."

More specifically, the March 21 minutes declare: "It was not decided as to how much longer Teddy Nadler (memory expert) would continue on the 'Challenge'."

Also on March 7 "There was extended discussion of the probability of having Robert Strom (youthful science expert) go for the second and possibly the third plateau."

This column is satisfied from interviewing participants in these secret brainstorm sessions, however, that neither the sponsors nor advertisers had any idea advance answers were fed to contestants. This was done by the producers, Entertainment Productions, which gave winning answers to some contestants on the "$64,000 Challenge" when the ratings began to drop.

Made It Tough

For the most part, undesirable contestants were eliminated by asking questions too difficult for them. This was determined from their preliminary test which probed their knowledge exhaustively before they were allowed on the show.

The system failed in the case of Dr. Joyce Brothers, first woman to win $64,000, who appeared as an expert on boxing. The high command decided she lacked audience appeal and tried to get rid of her by asking questions she wasn't expected to be able to answer.

But she had boned up on boxing more than the producers realized. When they asked her for the names of referees in several almost-forgotten fights, she rattled off the correct answers and went on to win the top prize.

Two years later, she was unable to remember the same answers when she was called in for questioning by the New York District Attorney's office.

"I have a mental eraser," she explained. "I can erase things from my mind that I no longer wish to remember."

The Congressional committee investigating the scandal-scuttled quiz shows intends to find out next week how many other contestants have "mental erasers."

Reds Busy Making Trouble In Latin America

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON—In the upper strata they talk of "summit" meetings and "the spirit of Camp David" but in the lower strata—where the battles of the "cold war" continue to be fought every day—there is no let-up in the fierce struggle by the Soviet spy apparatus inside the free countries of the world to subvert governments and secure victories for Communist imperialism.

The latest revelation of the plot by the Soviet government to spy on the American Embassy in Moscow and to kidnap and force into espionage a United States officer is no surprise to those in our government here familiar with the Communist spy system.

Does Nikita Khrushchev really think the American people will ever trust a government which perpetrates such a crude plot as that just uncovered against Russell Langelle, the U. S. security officer who was ousted from Moscow last week after refusing to become a Communist spy.

Mr. Langelle now has told his story to American newsmen here with the permission of the State Department. He says that the Soviets have tried to subvert other Embassy personnel and that he was picked on because he had been successful in "frustrating and obstructing" Soviet attempts to spy on the American Embassy. He was constantly at odds with Soviet officials because it was his task to protect Embassy documents and communications and to keep the personnel from being compromised.

It is interesting to note that Mr. Langelle says he managed to thwart espionage attempts directed at Vice President Nixon's party. There are hints that the Soviets tried to put listening devices in the rooms occupied by the Vice President.

But apart from what the Soviets do in Moscow to elicit information from Americans, or to line up persons who will become their informants on returning to the United States, there is a well-organized and well-financed campaign throughout the world to carry on subversive activities.

There is, for instance, in this week's issue of "U. S. News & World Report," a dispatch from Montevideo, Uruguay, which reads in part as follows:

"Working quietly in the free-and-easy atmosphere of Uruguay, the Russians are speeding the build-up of Communist subversion and sabotage throughout the whole of South America.

"At least 70 Russian officials are busy in seven different buildings in Montevideo. This city is capital of a little country with half as many people as there are in greater Chicago.

"These Russians, officially concerned with Soviet relations with Uruguay, are in fact out for bigger game—the South American continent itself. Subversion in Central America and the Caribbean is primarily the business of the big Soviet Embassy in Mexico. The Soviet legation in Montevideo directs Communist activities in the ten countries of South America.

"The Red build-up in Montevideo has reached such proportions that even Uruguay's tolerant government is getting ready to crack down. A proposal put before the government would require the Russians to cut their mission down to the size of Uruguay's mission to Moscow. That would trim the Soviet staff from 70 to 6.

"What finally has alarmed the Uruguayans is the overwhelming evidence of the size and strength of the web which the Russians are spinning out from Montevideo. This web stretches all over South America. Within this web, the Communists are spending upward of 100 million dollars a year."

Here are some of the high spots of Communist encroachments in South America as outlined in the Montevideo dispatch:

1. VENEZUELA—In 18 months Reds have tripled their strength and are infiltrating the Venezuelan press.

2. ECUADOR—Local Communists are plotting to sabotage the coming Inter-American Conference.

3. PERU—Reds are gaining ground among students, bank workers and among farmers.

4. BRAZIL — Communists are trying to make a comeback and are stirring up revolutionary mobs.

5. CHILE—Reds almost elected a President recently and, using various "left wing" parties, have won strength in the Parliament.

6. ARGENTINA — Riots and strikes have been led by Communists. The government now has outlawed the Communist Party.

7. BOLIVIA—Communists are trying by strikes and other subversive activities to frustrate the government's recovery plan.

As for Cuba and the Caribbean, Communist operations in recent months have been uncovered and there is more turmoil than ever in the region. Cuba's Castro claims he isn't a Communist, but he manages somehow to do some of the things the influential Communists want done, particularly creating friction with the United States.

This is but a small part of the "cold war" waged in North and South America and on other continents by Communist gold. Yet Mr. Khrushchev says he wants credits and increased "trade" and an easing of tensions."

Inside Washington

By Henry Cathcart

THE HOPEFULS—It seems awfully early in the season, but Presidential hopefuls in next year's campaigns already are criss-crossing the country in search of delegates, votes and issues.

A horde of Democratic potentials enliven the front pages with their claims and promises. The picture here is so confused that it's hard to pick a front runner although Senator John Kennedy of Massachusetts is spending the most money, making the most noise, and rolling up the most mileage.

The Republican picture is quite different. Vice President Richard M. Nixon, a candidate in everything but name, is riding the crest of a wave of popularity following his sensational exchanges with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev and others during his trip to Russia and Poland.

New York Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller is developing into something of a political oddity. Almost a year ago, upon his against-the-stream political triumph in New York, Republican rank and filers looked to him as the great hope of the party for the Presidential campaign in 1960.

Now, as the time is approaching for him to make up his mind whether or not to run, his popularity is down, his "fresh" personality is wearing off and the political professionals are beginning to have second thoughts about him.

Jim Bishop: Reporter

By Jim Bishop

The house has a proper air, like a librarian in business hours. I stood across the street from it, studying the deep brown color of it, the old shade down and one up on the second floor which gave the house a gay wink, and the little hole in the front hedge where my girls used to take a short cut coming from school.

The postman knows it as 857 Garrison Avenue, Teaneck, New Jersey. To him and to others it is just another house in a row of them. To me, it sings and it weeps because I knew it in good days and bad. That macadam driveway to the left: I put it there. The garage always leaned a little. The rose bushes were in the back long before the Bishops arrived, but the forsythia was something given by my mother. Do not say that walls have no ears. They have. They must. All the things which happened here could not have died in lonesome echoes. They must be retained because the things which happened to us happened to millions of families: The letter from the mortgage company reminding us that a payment was overdue; the first time we got the gray broadloom and Elinor wouldn't permit any of us in the living room or dining room; the lights and the excitement when company was coming.

I built the knotty pine cellar room as an office. It had shelves of books, a small bar, a desk, a typewriter, some easy chairs, t maracas and a stein hanging behind the bar, and a lot of laughter. The rock garden in the back was not mine. A man built it and he had tiny pink and yellow flowers growing between the rough stones. They looked so fragile; a breeze would bruise their cheeks.

Upstairs, Elinor and I had the front bedroom; Ginny had the small one; and my mother-in-law and little Gayle slept in the back one. The bath was a thing of beauty. Every time I wanted to take a look at it, I was ten seconds behind my mother-in-law.

This was the house where Gayle got her last spanking. She was six, a chubby little thing with two dark braids, a face like an apple, and cotton panties showing under a starchy dress. At sundown she could not be found. I got into the car and went up and down the darkening streets and I kept telling myself, in exasperation, that if God spared her I'd kill her.

She came in the back door contrite. She had been playing in a neighbor's house. I sat at the kitchen table. The women in my family watched. "All right," I said harshly, "down with the panties." She looked around for help. The faces of Ginny, her grandmother and mother mirrored stricken sympathy. They turned away. She was alone. The dirty little hands went up under the dress and, slowly, she began to peel the elastic top down.

The lower lip came out and began to tremble. I sat waiting. I tried to justify what I was about to do, but my throat was too tight. She stood before me with the panties half down and I quit cold. I looked at the diamond tears on the lids and I just couldn't.

"Okay," I said loudly, "I'm the brute around the house. I'm the sadist. I'm elected." I got up and walked out of the kitchen. Elinor stooped and clutched her baby in her arms and wept. She was the heroine; I was the heel. It was always like that.

We had good neighbors: the Fechners, the Kellys, many others. Now a new family lives in the house: Ray and Betty Stone. He's a bright salesman for Lever Brothers, and a kid cousin of mine. Once again the laughter of two little girls rings through the house: Karen and Kathleen, two beautiful blondes, 7 and 4.

If I look closely, I can see the little handprints on the stairway wall. There is a rag doll leaning drunkenly against a dining room chair. Kathleen asks gravely if I would like her to draw a lady for me. She stands at an end table with a piece of paper and a crayon and she sticks her tongue between her teeth and hacks out as fine a woman as you will find anywhere.

The crayon slipped and scarred a doily. Betty Stone looked horrified and said: "I'll fan you." I grabbed my hat and stood.

"I just dropped in for a minute," I said. "Give my best to Ray." I fled. Outside, I took a last long look at the house and wondered who had it before the Bishops, and if they had little girls too. Little girls who make cowards of their fathers . . .

Witches No Longer Blamed For Hysteria

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

Hysteria has been eliminated as an official diagnosis in the Standard Nomenclature—a sort of medical bible on the proper name of diseases and operations.

Some psychiatrists will continue to make this diagnosis, because to them hysteria represents a typical emotional reaction. Other psychiatrists regard hysteria as a symptom rather than a disease. It is a reaction that certain psychoneurotic persons develop under stress conditions.

The abandonment of this term means the end of one of the oldest words in the English language. The Greek word for uterus is hystera. The ancients believed hysteria was caused by a frustrated uterus; varied and bizarre symptoms occurred because the organ became detached and wandered around the body, pressing on this or that organ.

This ridiculous notion ran its course and was replaced by the view that hysteria resulted from congestion of the uterus. In the 17th Century, witchcraft was blamed and hysterical women were cured immediately and permanently by being put to death. The association of hysteria with uterus meant that males were exempt from the manifestation, so that men who developed the same symptoms were diagnosed as hypochondriacs.

Freud was one of the first to divorce hysteria from the pelvic organs. He developed the concept that emotional conflicts stemming from childhood experiences were responsible for the condition. This led to the theory that hysteria was the result of a repressed idea or impulse, and that the energy created was converted into physical symptoms.

Many neurotics, for example, are unhappy because of incidents and living conditions over which they have no control. The steam generated by this inward tension is expressed in the form of chest pain, palpitation, headache, indigestion, or other symptoms. But we will speak of hysterical women, showing that old impressions are difficult to eliminate. Both sexes exhibit emotional reactions, as we know.

TOMORROW: Rabies and other diseases from animals.

BLOOD PRESSURE AND PREGNANCY

Mrs. M. writes: Will high blood pressure in a pregnant woman affect the baby?

REPLY

Pregnancy is likely to aggravate the mother's high blood pressure. The baby is not affected unless the mother develops the toxemia of pregnancy.

STROKE AND VISION

R. P. writes: Does a stroke impair eyesight?

REPLY

Only when the muscles of one eye are paralyzed and the optic pathways are involved.

To the limit of space questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is inclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

Try And Stop Me

By Bennett Cerf

Sam Levenson reports that he dropped into a Chinese restaurant recently and was mildly astonished to note that the menu featured pizza pie. Summoning the manager, he demanded, "How come a chop suey joint serves an Italian dish like pizza?"

"We gotta," explained the manager. "The demand is terrific. You see, this is a Jewish neighborhood."

Home from a trek through darkest Africa with his wife, an explorer confided to J. W. Cunningham that the highlight of the expedition was the day they were captured by a band of cannibals. The chief, luckily, proved to be something of an epicure. "I never eat a person who has passed the age of forty," he announced.

"That was the moment," recalled the explorer, "that I heard my wife give her correct age for the first time in public."

Green Bean And Onion Salad

1½ pounds fresh green beans (2 packages frozen)
¾ cup salad oil
¼ cup wine vinegar
Pinch dry mustard
Salt, pepper, garlic clove, crushed whole
½ sweet onion, coarsely chopped

Cook green beans (whole if young and tender) in boiling salted water until they are just tender, but still crisp. Drain and cover with French dressing made by mixing remaining ingredients. Let stand in the refrigerator, stirring occasionally, for several hours or overnight. Discard garlic and serve salad chilled, on lettuce leaves. Serves 6.

Eyes Are On Your Menu

The eyes of your family are upon you and your menus for fall eating!

Yes, the ageless convention of hearty appetites during fall means personality foods. One of the best combinations we have come across is this all occasion dish for beef and mushrooms in rice. It adds spark and tang to any meal . . . and is easy on the budget too, for it makes use of two so-o-o convenient foods . . . canned condensed beef broth and ground beef.

The richness and blending of the soup with seasoned meatballs and Burgundy gives a flavor lift to fall planning. This dish is made for family service or entertaining. Serve with it a salad of hearts of artichokes, and oven-warmed and buttered rolls. Dessert? Seasonal apples, baked to perfection and topped with hard sauce or coffee cream.

Beef and Mushrooms in Rice

1 pound ground beef
2 tablespoons fine dry bread crumbs
2 tablespoons chopped onion
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
½ teaspoon salt
1 egg, slightly beaten
2 tablespoons Burgundy
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 can (4 ounces) sliced mushrooms, drained
1 small onion, sliced
1 can (10½ ounces) condensed beef broth
¼ cup water
2 tablespoons flour

Combine beef, crumbs, onion, parsley, salt, egg, and 1 tablespoon Burgundy. Shape into balls about 1-inch in diameter. Lightly brown in butter. Push meatballs to one side. Add mushrooms and onion; cook until onion is tender. Add soup and remaining Burgundy; heat. Meanwhile, mix flour and water until smooth; gradually add to hot liquid, stirring constantly. Cook over low heat about 15 minutes; stir often. Makes 4 servings.

There's A Time To Be Catty

Cats develop cataracts on riboflavin-low diets. Researchers report that the eye condition didn't develop when animals were placed under the protection of a high-carbohydrate, low-fat diet. This saving grace of carbohydrates suggests a need for cats to have an adequate supply of this nutrient each day. In humans, also, carbohydrates save certain B vitamins. Besides supplying get-up-and-go energy, they save protein for its special role; building and repairing cells. There's no doubt about it. A good way to copy cats is to include carbohydrates — fruits and vegetables, milk, enriched and whole grain bread and cereal—in menus, each day.

Timely Tips

Here are some facts worth remembering: (1) Freezing meat does not affect tenderness. (2) a roast should never be covered in cooking — when covered it becomes a pot-roast. (3) All meat should be cooked at a low temperature.

Shrimp In Season

Since shrimp is available in various sizes—they vary from as little as 15 to as much as 60 to the pound—you can select the size you prefer. The large size is often preferred for serving whole in salads and for breading and frying. While the smaller and in-between sizes will do just as well in casserole dishes, sauces, and salad preparations, where size is relatively unimportant.

Here's an appetizing dish — Shrimp Curry—recommended by home economists of the U. S. Department of Interior's Bureau of Commercial Fisheries:

¾ pound cooked shrimp, fresh or frozen
½ cup chopped onion
¼ cup butter or other fat, melted
¼ cup flour
1 teaspoon salt
Dash pepper
1¾ cups chicken broth or boullion
1½ teaspoons curry powder
½ cup applesauce
3 cups cooked rice

Curry condiments (chopped hard-cooked egg whites, sieved hard-cooked egg yolks, chopped salted peanuts, chopped green onion tops, chopped tomatoes, chutney, freshly grated coconut)

Thaw frozen shrimp. Cook onion in butter until tender. Blend in flour, salt, and pepper. Add broth gradually and cook until thick, stirring constantly. Add curry powder, applesauce, and shrimp; heat. Serve on rice with any of the curry condiments. Serves 6.

Worth Remembering

Lamb is always served piping hot or cold . . . never lukewarm. Usually, lamb roasts and chops are served either medium or well d ..e.

Secrets Of Charm

Top Tints

Experiment with your hair color!

For the first time in the history of the do-it-yourself-school in home coloring, a sampling of hair coloring is being introduced for a woman to experiment with herself. You can try tipping, streaking or banding your own hair at home. It has all been worked out by specialists who create professionally for home use so you can see for yourself exactly what each new shade can do for you.

There's an exclusive "vegetable catalyst D" included which automatically stops the coloring action at the right moment to assure an even, natural look. Cosmetic counters at all drug and department stores have it available.

Millions of women — in fact 86% — are doing it, according to research figures. They not only are coloring their hair but enjoying the youthful reassurance and beauty that it gives them.

There is nothing new about hair coloring: it goes back about 5,000 years. It has been discovered that Egyptian women as far back as 3,200 B.C. were dying their hair. Just recently the remains of golden hair and fiery red headed mummies were found in a tomb near Cairo. As everyone knows, the Egyptians are very dark so we know that these ladies of ancient times were no strangers to the tricks of hair dying.

Before tinting hair there are several important things to consider. You must choose a well-lighted room. You should make your color selection during the day, if possible. A room with a strong north light is best. Be sure your clothing is well protected, as tints can stain. It is best to remove your dress and protect yourself with a plastic cape or turkish towel. Be sure that the tint is at room temperature when used. And, last but not least, examine your scalp thoroughly (you can have someone help you do this) to be sure there are no cuts or abrasions. If there are, do not apply any preparations until it is thoroughly healed.

Good luck!

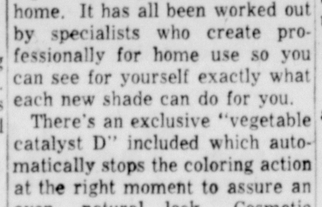
Meat And Your Health

Meat is considered a highly nutritious food. It provides high quality protein as well as essential B vitamins and minerals — iron and phosphorus.



Q. What is the name of this cut of meat?
A. Canadian-Style Bacon.
Q. Where does it come from and how is it identified?
A. It comes from the loin and is the boneless cured and smoked backstrip from the loin.
Q. How is it prepared?
A. It may be prepared as a whole piece and roasted in a 300° F. oven. Or sliced, it may be broiled, pan-broiled or pan-fried until lightly browned on both sides.

Pumpkin Cookies

1⅓ cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon pastry spice
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon soda
4 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
½ teaspoon lemon extract
1 egg
½ cup canned pumpkin
½ cup broken walnut meats
Raisins
Quilted broiling foil

Mix and sift together flour, spice, salt and soda. Cream butter; add sugar gradually, creaming until fluffy. Beat in lemon extract and egg until light. Add alternately sifted dry ingredients and pumpkin. Stir in nuts.

Tear off strips of 14-inch quilted broiling foil the length of your cookie sheet. Drop cookie dough by teaspoonfuls onto ungreased strips of quilted foil, and spread dough slightly. Decorate with raisins, making faces with two eyes, a nose and a mouth. Slip onto cookie sheet and bake in a moderate oven (375°F.) about 15 minutes, or until done. Makes about 2½ dozen cookies 2½-inches in diameter.

Hob-Nob With Goblins

Did you ever see a goblin? Neither have I. Who could say that a goblin does not have an apple body, a peppermint candy stick and a donut head?

For family fun and the "trick-in' and treatin'" crowd, plenty of apples, donuts, candy and boxed chocolates for everyone to make their own faces. Flaked coconut makes wonderful hair and nuts are fine for noses.

It is fair to warn you in advance that you better have plenty of ingredients on hand. Those door-bell ringing youngsters seem to have an enormous appetite for this kind of fare and the ingredients are devoured most rapidly in the process of creating one's very own funny-faced donut goblin.

We suggest using both plain and sugared donuts for faces. Ducky, a duck-like goblin, has a white sugar-coated donut face with a chocolate nougat bill, cinnamon candy mouth and hard-candy eyes. A piece of chocolate is set jauntily on top for a hat effect.

Sleepy, Snoozy and Saucy sitting on a tray are examples for everyone to try and top. The sweetest prize for the funniest or best goblin face should be a surprise—an award of freshly boxed chocolates.

Junior Shrimp Pizza

INGREDIENTS:
- Biscuit dough
- 3 cups sifted all purpose flour
- 4½ teaspoons baking powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ⅓ cup cold shortening
- 1 cup cold milk

METHOD:

Sift flour, baking powder and salt together and cut in shortening with a pastry blender. Add milk and mix quickly. Knead for a few seconds on lightly floured board. Roll out to ¼" thickness. Cut in rounds 3" in diameter. Turn up edges. Top with sauce.

Television and Radio
by John Crosby

Seldom The People's Choice

DES MOINES, Iowa

I am out here again, munching on the grass roots, a nd talking to people and having them talk back. Last year, the big question was what's Jack Paar really like. This year Paar has taken a back seat to Charles Van Doren. The quiz shows are the big news, as they are in New York, and the deeper issues at stake—the honesty of television as a medium—has caused grave concern.

In "The Des Moines Register" this morning the four subjects under discussion on the editorial page are the United Nations, Arms Making in Germany, Orval Faubus, and "Will TV Honesty Be Rewarded?" The conclusion to that editorial is that "if the other broadcasting and TV systems would join CBS in putting in the new nothing-but-the-truth policy, the need would not exist for further government regulation."

I thought Dr. Frank Stanton's decision to impose complete honesty on programs was splendid and long overdue. The decision to eliminate big-money quiz-shows was a superb bit of gamesmanship. CBS hasn't got any big-money quizzes—not any more at any rate—that it cares deeply about, while NBC with its enormously popular and demoralizing "Price Is Right" and "Tic Tac Dough" has a bundle of them that it is reluctant to get rid of.

The ball is in NBC's court now and the network hates it.

The really important point is that an awareness that honesty is not only the best policy but the only policy is refreshing. All of us have been annoyed by canned laughter, and the decision of CBS to toss it out is a great relief. CBS was far and away the worst offender in this regard. Its half-hour comedy programs were studded with phony laughter that obscured—or attempted to obscure—the fundamental unfunniness of its programs. A rigged discussion program in which certain topics are rehearsed and certain others taboo, disguises truth itself. A man sitting at home watching, let us say, a United States Senator safely ignoring an issue in front of good reporters is in danger of assuming that the issue isn't an issue at all. That's the trouble with tampering with truth. Just a little bit of rigging, just a little bit of acquiescence in phoniness "for the sake of the show," starts a process of whittling away at the standards of honesty—and no one ever knows where to stop. After a while, people became aware of what is happening to their own programs.

There has been a gradual whittling away at the honesty and integrity of dramatic programs. Taboos crept in. Certain races and religions couldn't be mentioned. Ideas couldn't be discussed. Occupations couldn't be mentioned except flatteringly. Certain issues were left strictly alone. Now the trouble with this is that it treats us as children, as if subjects were too grown-up for the American people. There was a time when only the Wild West and outer space—neither of which has an organization to protect its misuse—were safe subjects.

However, the "Register" editorial's conclusions are a little oversimplified, a little wishful. Nobody wants government regulation (least of all the "Register" which owns the TV station here) and everyone assumes that government's effect on TV would be restrictive. If this would be true, I would be against it; too. TV doesn't need restriction so much as it needs freedom. Its creative artists need liberation from timorous advertisers and ad agency people.

But the "Register's" assumption that television will be just great the minute the quiz shows are cleaned up is too optimistic, to say the least. The quizzes just brought to light the fact that all sorts of malpractices have crept into television with the higher brass paying heed. How could this be, ask the people? Incredulity has been expressed that Dr. Stanton, president of CBS, could have been fooled by the dishonesty of quizzes on his network. But the fact is that most top TV executives and cop people in all branches of television from programming to packaging to starring to adertising, don't look at the medium which pays their bills.

I am dismayed by the ignorance of television shown by stars coming to town from Hollywood to appear in specials in New York. Many of them admit they haven't looked at television in years. Nowadays with tape replacing most live shows, the stars could at least look as themselves on TV. But they don't. Advertising agencies and sponsors watch a couple of shows with great interest but after a series gets well along, they read only the ratings. After the first two, no one is looking but the people, as the saying goes.

But the fact that they are looking does not mean they are satisfied. There is a sharp sense of loss at the disappearance of Sam Levenson out here in the Midwest. Women liked Levenson's humor and they felt he was not talking down to them. However, there is a great sense of helplessness among the women I met, a feeling that their wishes were thoroughly ignored. "What's the point of writing?" they tell me. "They pay no attention." The Firestone program is missed terribly.

For a medium that claims to be so terribly receptive to whims and wishes of the people, television is terrible to get at, terribly hard to register disapproval on. The people feel very much left out of its decisions and terribly ignored in its programming.

Party Perfect Casserole

She has done it again! That's what your guests and family will say when they first taste this Vienna Sausage Casserole.

Aside from using them on an hors d'oeuvres tray, Vienna-style sausages can create all kinds of different and unusual meals for you such as this casserole.

Vienna Sausage Casserole
- 2 cans (4 ounces each) Vienna-style sausages
- 1 tablespoon chopped onion
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 2 tablespoons flour
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 1½ cups milk
- ½ cup grated sharp cheddar cheese
- 1 package (10 ounces) frozen broccoli, cooked
- 2 hard-cooked eggs, chopped
- ½ cup soft bread crumbs
- 2 tablespoons butter, melted

Cook onion in butter or margarine until tender. Stir in flour and salt. Add milk. Cook, stirring constantly, until thickened. Add cheese and cook very slowly until melted. Cut broccoli in 1-inch pieces and place in bottom of a greased 1½-quart casserole. Sprinkle half of the chopped eggs over broccoli. Cover with a layer of Vienna-style sausages and then the remaining chopped eggs. Paur cheese sauce over top. Mix soft bread crumbs with melted butter and arrange around edge of casserole. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) for 30 minutes. Yield: 4 servings.

Pilaf Of Wheat

- 1 cup bulghour wheat, uncooked
- 1 small onion, diced
- 2½ tbsps. butter or fat
- 2 cups boiling water
- 3 bouillon cubes

Melt butter and lightly brown onion dice. Add bulghour and stir over moderate heat until grains are well coated with fat. Add water and bouillon cubes and bring mixture to a boil. Stir, cover the pan, and simmer until all the liquid is absorbed and bulghour is tender. Serves 6 as accompaniment to game or game birds.

Baedeker, the name associated with guidebooks for travelers, came from Karl Baedeker, German publisher of guide books.

American food processors are rightly proud of the "convenience foods" which cut down kitchen hours for American homemakers. And homemakers themselves find new ways to use these products. Take frozen French fries, most popular vegetable in today's frozen food case. They're great heated to serve as crispy, golden brown French fries, but smart homemakers also use these peeled, cut-up, and cooked strips of fine quality potatoes in casseroles, soups, chowders, and potato salads, cold or hot. Saves scrubbing, peeling, and cooking. Potatoes are top quality, too.

The Liberty Bell, famous for its association with great patriotic events, stands in the tower half of Independence Hall. It has been cast three times.

Halloween Party? Here's A Popcorn Cat!

Watch the eyes light up when both youngsters and not-so-youngsters catch sight of this bewitching Kitty Kat centerpiece made of popcorn. It'll be a yawling success at any Halloween Party! This crunchy confection is as good to eat as it is to look at — and so easy to make! The secret to working with popcorn is simple . . . plan ahead and have everything ready to use so you can work without interruption. Best of all, you can make this delicious conversation piece days early, if you wish, and it'll still be fresh and crispy on the big occasion.

If you're still ambitious, use the same pattern in miniature for Kute Kitty Kat placecards!

Kitty Kat Centerpiece

5 quarts popped popcorn
2½ cups granulated sugar
1 cup light corn syrup
¾ cup water
½ cup butter or margarine
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
Large licorice gumdrops
Licorice jelly strips

Measure popped corn into large metal bowl or pan and heat in slow oven (300-325°F.). Mix together sugar, syrup, water, butter or margarine, and salt in saucepan. Bring to soft crack stage (270 to 290°F.) Remove from heat and stir in vanilla. Pour in fine stream over popcorn and mix well. While corn is hot, pack into 3 - 8 inch foil lined layer cake pans. Pack tightly. Cool just a few minutes. Remove 2 of the popcorn layers from pans and remove foil. Press the 2 layers together to form one 2-layer cake. Turn third popcorn layer out of pan and remove foil. Allow popcorn layers to cool and "set."

To Assemble and Decorate — Plunge 3 heavy wood picks down half-way into center of the single layer placing them ½-inch apart for the base. Place large licorice gumdrops, one at a time, on granulated sugar and roll (with rolling pin) to 3/16 to ½-inch thickness. Cut into large ears, eyes, eyebrows, nose and mouth from licorice and make an attractive cat's face on the double popcorn layer, pressing the candy firmly into corn. Cut cat's whiskers out of licorice jelly strips and press into popcorn face to secure expression desired. Plunge face upright on its edge onto picks. Attach ears and fasten on securely with picks.

Left-over egg whites? Try this. Beat the egg whites until stiff, beating in a little sugar to sweeten. Drop by spoonfuls into simmering water. Cover and let cook about 5 mniutes. Dip out and serve as a topping on nutmeg-sprinkled canned apple sauce.

Plan A Pizza, Punch Party For Fall Entertaining

Crisp fall days are here again—just the season for a pizza and punch party! Perhaps you're having an informal open house to greet a new neighbor . . . or getting reacquainted with old ones after the summer. Football season is in full swing — friends will drop in on game days. Your teen-agers are most likely clamoring for a platter party — and Halloween ghosts and goblins will soon be hammering on your door for "tricks or treats."

Crunchy pizza . . . piping hot, spicy and pungent prompts wonderfully warm thoughts of friendly kitchens. Originally a Neopolitan favorite, pizza, which literally means "pie" is as well loved here in America today as it is in its motherland. We'd venture a guess that it is now a favorite with all age and nationality groups. This light crinkly breadstuff can be made in many novel sizes and shapes.

Most popular, of course, are the large round ones — but clever hostesses are now serving dainty little individual pizzas for party snacks and buffets. You can cut your own pizza pastry in any variety of shapes using your cookie cutter. You may want to make your own pizza dough or, for a short cut, buy one of the popular pizza dough mixes. English muffins are also tasty and can be purchased in different sizes.

There are an amazing variety of aromatic baked on fillings. Popular pizza toppings are Mozzarella cheese, provolone or cheddar cheese, shrimp, Italian sausages, mushrooms, antipastos, anchovies, hot chillies, onions and green peppers. They can be as highly seasoned as you like. Many stores now have special pizza seasonings and rosemary, chili powder, garlic, oregano and thyme accent many pizza recipes.

No need to purchase an elaborat punch bowl — party pizzas call for a hot beverage that's served in an earthen ware jug, large chafing dish, favorite pottery bowl, or carafe. Party guests of every age will enjoy this hot Spiced Cranberry Tea. Tea is the ideal base for a hot or cold punch because it combines well with fruit juices and is both refreshing and low in calories.

For a conversation piece invite your guests to drink from big pottery or glass mugs. Cinnamon stick muddlers are used instead of spoons for stirring. Some of your guests will want to float clove studded lemon slices in their mugs.

No need for the hostess to be busy at the last minute preparing this Spiced Cranberry Tea. Instead, the simple syrup can be prepared ahead of time and stored in the refrigerator. You simply reheat it just before serving and add it to the freshly brewed tea.

Spiced Cranberry Tea

INGREDIENTS:
24 tea bags
3 quarts boiling water
1½ cups water
¾ cup sugar
¼ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon allspice
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
½ cup lemon juice
2 cups cranberry cocktail
½ cup orange juice

METHOD:
Make a simple syrup by combining sugar, water and spices. Bring to a boil and simmer 10 minutes. Add cranberry, orange, and lemon juices. Make strong tea by pouring boiling water over tea bags. Brew for 5 minutes, and remove tea bags.

Add hot syrup to tea just before serving. Serve in mugs garnished with a clove studded lemon slice. If desired, syrup may be stored in refrigerator and used as required. Use 3 parts tea to 1 part syrup.

YIELD: 12-15 servings.

It takes more than 3 pounds of raw potatoes to produce 1 pound of frozen processed potatoes such as the popular frozen French fries. That means two pounds less potatoes to carry home and two pounds of garbage you don't have to dispose of every time you enjoy the frozen spuds.

A national weather bureau was established in 1870 under the supervision of the United States Army signal corps.

Teen Breakfast

Sadly enough, nutrition surveys indicate that teenagers generally do not eat a properly balanced breakfast. . . the type of breakfast which their growing bodies require. Breakfast, too often, is a gulp-and-dash affair or worse yet, is completely skipped in the rush of teen-age activities.

A breakfast meal should contain plenty of high quality protein and one of the best sources of high quality protein is meat. Meat gives the individual a satisfied feeling and helps to eliminate those mid-morning hunger pangs.

This Teen Breakfast is one that will provide the necessary ¼ to ⅓ of the daily food nutrients needed by the individual at the first meal of the day.

Teen Breakfast
Apricot Shreds
Broiled Lamb and Bacon Patties
French Toast Apple Jelly
Milk

For preparation of the patties simply purchase some ground lamb. Shape the patties and wrap in bacon before retiring the night before. Then in the morning, slip the patties under the broiler and broil 8 to 10 minutes, until they are browned, turn and brown on second side.

Other meats available for breakfast use include bacon, sausage, chipped beef, breakfast beef or ham slices.

PIZZA TOPPING:
2 8-oz. cans tomato sauce
1 10-oz. can mushroom bits
1 teaspoon oregano
½ teaspoon chili powder
Salt and pepper
Grated cheddar cheese
1 14-oz. pkg. shrimp (PCF — peeled, cleaned, flash frozen)

METHOD:
Cook shrimp according to package directions. Cool slightly, and cut into bite sized pieces. Add to sauce along with mushrooms, oregano, chili powder, salt and pepper. Simmer 2 minutes. Spoon mixture on to biscuit rounds. Sprinkle with cheese. Bake at 425°F. for 15-20 minutes. Serves 15.

Steel Strike Slows Work At Sugar Grove

No Deliveries In October

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Navy said Thursday that steel shortages have slowed work on the giant radar telescope being erected in an isolated area near Sugar Grove, W. Va.

The 600-foot diameter dish and its supporting equipment and buildings were scheduled for completion in 1962 at a total cost of more than 79 million dollars.

The Navy said that the civilian contractors reported they did not get any of the steel scheduled for delivery during October. They said some work requiring little or no steel is going ahead.

The Navy was unable to say how long the steel shortage would have to last before it would delay completion of the telescope and its supporting observatories.

Tice's Herd Tops Dairy Producers

OAKLAND — Roman L. Yoder, supervisor of Dairy Herd Improvement Association No. 1 reports that the top herd in his association for the month of September was Simon Tice's herd of 29 crossbreed cows that produced an average of 1047 pounds of milk and 51 pounds of fat. Second high herd was that of Oren Bender who has 13 grade Holsteins producing 1312 pounds of milk and 47.2 pounds of fat.

Clark Yoder's herd of 22 grade Holsteins was third with 1248 pounds of milk and 45.2 pounds of fat. Fourth was Simon Schrock's herd of 28 grade Gurnseys that produced 996 pounds of milk and 44.7 pounds of fat. Paul E. Yoder's herd of 21 grade Holsteins was fifth with 1221 pounds of milk and 44 pounds of fat.

Top cow in the association was Monkey, a crossbreed owned by Simon Tice that produced a total of 2000 pounds of milk and 102 pounds of fat. Simon Schrock's crossbreed, Princess, was second with 1940 pounds of milk and 95 pounds of fat.

Inka, a grade Holstein owned by Paul Yoder was third with 2000 pounds of milk and 88 pounds of fat. Clark Yoder's Ginny, a grade Holstein was fourth with 2230 pounds of milk and 87 pounds of fat. Gurney, a crossbreed owned by Simon Tice was fifth with 1580 pounds of milk and 87 pounds of fat.

St. Peter's Church Sponsors Party

LONACONING — St. Peter's Church School will hold a Halloween party Saturday night.

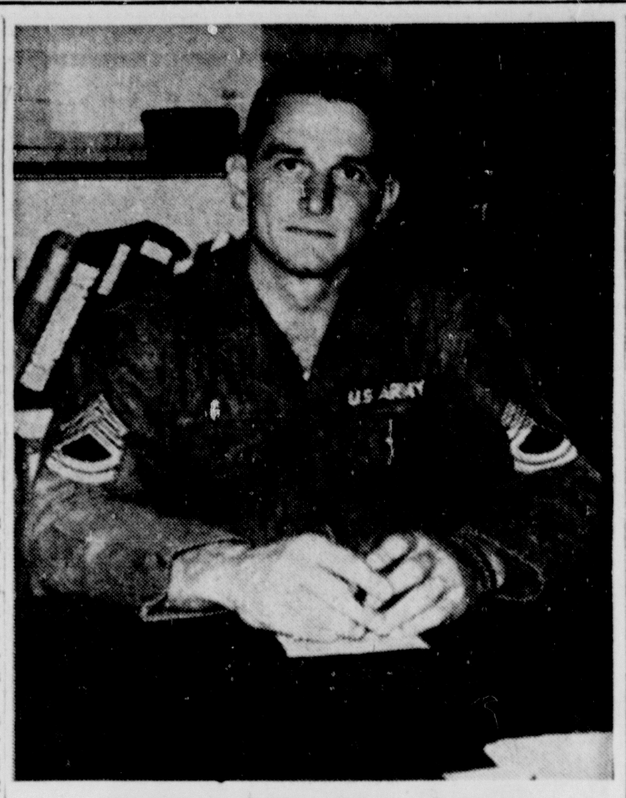
All church school children are invited to attend masked or unmasked. The Youth Group of St. Peter's is also invited to the party, to be held at 7 p.m. in the parish house.

The Youth Group has cancelled their Halloween dance which was scheduled for Friday night.

Bible Study Class Planned

PIEDMONT — The annual intensive Bible study, conducted by the Women of the Presbyterian Church, will be held at the church Sunday, November 1, at 3 p. m.

The theme of the study is "Through Conflict to Victory." A study of the book of Revelation. The leaders are Mrs. William G. McIntyre, Mrs. William S. McCain, Mrs. Eldred Green, Miss Nellie Dowling and Mrs. Edward Barnard.



Assigned To Guard Unit

Lionel Friend is the newly apponited Administrative and Supply Officer of Battery C, First Howitzer Battalion, 201st Artillery National Guard, located in Keyser, W. Va. Sgt. Friend was transferred from Kingwood, where he served as Supply Officer for Service Battery. Sgt. Friend replaces CWO Robert Brummage, who was transferred to the position of Battalion Chief Warrant Officer at Fairmont. Sgt. Friend resides with his wife and two daughters in Terra Alta.

Annabelle Clauson Entertains Class

ELLERSLIE — Dorcas Bible Class of the Methodist Church met Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Annabelle Clauson. Mrs. Grace Waltman was in charge of devotions and read from the "Upper Room."

Mrs. Marie Hartman, vice president was in charge of the business meeting. Nine members answered roll call. A dinner was planned for January and the annual Christmas party will be held in the hall December 15. Each member will bring a fifty-nine cent jingle gift and Mrs. Evelyn Hafer and Mrs. Kathleen Clapper were appointed chairmen. Refreshments were served by Miss Clauson and Mrs. Waltman.

Mail Damaged

BELPRE, Ohio (UPI) — Postal authorities sought Tuesday to determine who poured a quantity of chocolate milk into a mail storage box on a Belpre street. Letters and other pieces of mail were damaged to the extent that many must be returned to the senders.

Cub Pack 44 Makes Awards

FROSTBURG — Cub Pack No. 44, sponsored by Hill Street School Parent Teachers Association met a recent evening and held a bobcat ceremony with William Hochard presiding. Four new members, Thomas Langely, Gregory Grove, Edward Harbel and Richard Tranum received their Bobcat pins, neckerchiefs and slides. Star recruiter patches were presented to Thomas Vogtman, Jeffrey Barnard, James Pinto, George Reidler and Clarence Hochard for bringing in new members. Robert Miller received his Lion badge.

A short business meeting was held and it was decided that the pack would march in the Halloween parade Thursday evening. George Hochard and Melvin Dye will chaperone the boys. The next meeting will be held November 20 at Hill Street School.

Marianne Simpkins Marks Birthday

ELLERSLIE — Mr. and Mrs. Charles Simpkins entertained Saturday afternoon with a surprise party for their daughter Marianne's twelfth birthday. Games and dancing featured the entertainment. Halloween decorations were used and many lovely gifts were received.

Refreshments were served to the following guests, John Hartman, Ronnie Cook, Robbie and Steve Hagenbuch, Clarence Golden, Ronnie Wilt, Tommy Connor, Steve Shroyer, Bill Johnson, Mike Griffey, Eddie Troutman, Billy Waltman, Kay Simpkins, Betty Golden, Barbara Logue, Bonnie Davey, Nita Hillebrecht, Donna DeVore, Patty Nixon, Linda Porter, Becky Stahlman, Jean Wenrich, Sandra Shroyer and Mrs. Kay Wolford.

Valley Students Attend Session On Orientation

School Preparing For Parents Day

LONACONING—P. D. Beable, principal, conducted assemblies for junior and senior high school Wednesday morning to explain the facilities for Valley High School students education, guidance, pupils problems, and health.

He spoke to the students on the importance of their scheduled subjects taught by competent teachers, and distributed the "Parents Afternoon, November 9" sheets for students to take home to parents.

Frederick H. Sheeley, of the Pupil Personnel office, Board of Education, spoke to the students on his duties in handling attendance and student welfare problems.

James D. Preaskorn, guidance counselor, talked on the guidance program now in effect at Valley School.

William W. Saylor, vice principal, addressed the assemblies on his procedure for attendance, absence, tardiness, discipline, suspensions and withdrawals.

Mrs. Thelma Inskeep, county health nurse, told of her program of weekly visits to Valley and of clinics and testings available for children who have health problems, vision or hearing difficulties.

Episcopal Women Plan Yule Shop

LONACONING—Mrs. Leslie R. Miles Jr., chairman of the Christmas shop, has asked all women of St. Peter's to assist in the "St. Peter's Christmas Shop."

The proceeds from the recent rummage sale amounted to $60.75.

Three women attended the area meeting at Cumberland. They are Mrs. Raymond C. Riffey, vice president and devotional chairman, Mrs. Ella M. Braznell and Mrs. James W. Hutcheson. Father Leslee E. Schwindt also participated.

Horse Quarantine Is Relaxed In West Virginia

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—Relaxation of a quarantine on horses entering West Virginia from New Jersey and Maryland was announced Thursday by State Agriculture Commissioner John T. Johnson.

Effective immediately, the only part of the quarantine that will remain in force will be a requirement for fumigation of horse-carrying vehicles entering the state from Maryland or New Jersey. This is a precaution against mosquitoes which may be carrying the virus of equine encephalomyelitis.

The quarantine order was issued last month as a result of outbreaks of the disease among farm horses in New Jersey and Maryland. The disease also may be transmitted to humans and it has been blamed for 18 human deaths in New Jersey.

Appeal Is Filed In Damage Case

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—Defendants in a damage suit asked the State Supreme Court Tuesday to reverse a $12,500 award to Edith Flanagan by the Mineral County Circuit Court. The woman was injured Oct. 24, 1957 when an automobile driven by Lonnie F. Dayton collided in Keyser with a bus on which Mrs. Flanagan was a passenger. The suit was filed against Sheriff Walter Mott, administrator of Dayton's estate, and Osgood Bus Lines, Inc.

Bruce Hi Student Council Sponsors First Workshop

WESTERNPORT—Bruce High School Student Council conducted a workshop last Saturday, the first of its kind ever held in Allegany County.

The primary purpose of the workshop was to develop student council leaders by acquainting them with the plans and objectives of the Student Council for this year. It was decided that discussion groups would produce the best results. Each topic of discussion was presided over by a student council officer. Teachers served as consultants.

John McIntyre, president of the council, presented an opening assembly. The title of his talk was, "Do the best you can with what you have and do it NOW!"

Judy Pamepinto was in charge of devotions. Tommy Garcia and Larry Rexrode led the flag salute.

Nancy Whitworth led the discussion group, "Project of a Student Council." Raymond Chaney was consultant. "Problems of the Student Council," was led by Pauline Kooken and Thomas Magruder. Mrs. Catherine McGibboney was consultant.

John McIntyre supervised the discussion group on, "Parliamentary Procedure on Conducting A Meeting." Miss Agnes Laughlin was consultant. "Carrying Out the Duties of a Good Student Council Representative," was led by Peggy Hitt and Freddy Dayton. Paul Footen was consultant.

Approximately 80 students attended. Recorders for the groups included Betty Strong, Carol Whitfield, Patty Marsh and Mary Armentrout. Mary Armentrout also served as typist in perparing the program.

Sell Property

MT. SAVAGE—Miss Agnes Aldridge and Miss Florence Aldridge sold their home on Railroad Street and plan to reside in Akron, Ohio. Both women taught school here for a number of years and retired this past year from teaching.

Moorefield Seeks Home Mail Delivery

Lions Club Hopes Town Can Qualify

MOOREFIELD — Acting Postmaster Charles Rohrbaugh reported to the Moorefield Lions Club that he is working on a project to secure house-to-house mail delivery for Moorefield. Rohrbaugh said the old requirement of having sidewalks has been waived and delivery would be made by a motorized scooter which has been proven practical in other areas of the nation. The requirments are for a box to be placed at the road accessible to the scooter deliveryman.

Rohrbaugh said the minimum population to be served for house-to-house delivery is 2,500.

A census taken by David Hahn's history class at Moorefield High School earlier this year showed 1706 residents within the town limits with 246 south of the town limits and 259 on the northern edge of Moorefield. The proposed extension of the town limits will easily bring the minimum of 2,500 residents within the town to qualify for house-to-house mail delivery. The official census will be taken early in 1960.

Rohrbaugh said the installation of a house-to-house delivery would provide at least two additional jobs in the community and would speed up mail delivery for all residents. Houses will have to be numbered and all streets must be named.

The Lions Club has endorsed the proposal to extend the town limits and a petition has been prepared for signatures to be presented to the Town Council for a vote. It was pointed out that such action will have to be taken before the official federal census is completed in 1960.

The Yearbook staff, organized in May, has completed its advertising campaign. Its subscription drive will end this afternoon.

Others assisting in sales and lay-out include: Dale Hott, Leroy Morris, James DeHaven, Sue Sweene, Janet Vizza, Robert Weidner, Lester Pfister, Joseph Kroll, Robert Spataro, Charles Barb, Richard Lybarger and Cherrie McKenzie. Miss Kathleen McDermitt is the advisor. Granville Cannon is co-advisor.

Mental Cases From Alcohol On Increase

GRAFTON, W. Va. (UPI)—An official of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union (WCTU) said Thursday the number of alcoholics being committed to mental hospitals is rapidly increasing.

The observation was made by Mrs. L. G. Rowley, Waterford, Mich., in an address at the West Virginia WCTU convention.

"The number of alcoholics committed to the nation's mental hospitals and general psychiatric wards is increasing at the rate of nearly 10,000 a year," the National WCTU vice president said.

She told the group that the number diagnosed as having permanent injury to the brain also is going up correspondingly.

Mrs. Rowley said "statistics show that the country's short supply of mental institutions are being increasingly overcrowded by persons maimed or disabled by drink."

West Coast Seaman Visits County Friends

MIDLAND — ES2 Thomas E. Smith of 2156 Wisteria Street, Simi, Calif., spent a week in Frostburg visiting his friends, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon R. Broadwater and friends in Midland. Smith is the son of Mrs. Edna Smith and the late Thomas Guy Smith. He attended Sweetwater High School in San Yisdro, Calif., before entering the US Navy in February, 1948 at San Diego. He spent three years in Naples, Italy where he became acquainted with the Broadwaters.

After returning to the States his last duty station was with Naval Radio Station, Skaggs Island, Sonerma, Calif. Smith is now being transferred to Naval Sub School, New London, Conn., for nine weeks of training.

Study Group Gets Guidance

FROSTBURG — Miss Jane Grindle, guidance counselor at Beall High School, was guest speaker at the recent meeting of the parent-child study group. Miss Grindle stated that a full guidance program is available for all pupils from the eighth through the 12th grade.

She pointed out that various personality and aptitude tests are given throughout the year. The guidance department is available to help students make college decisions and also employment. Following a discussion, the parents were taken on a tour of the guidance department.

The parent-child study group is meeting at the school for the second year and has shown an increase in interest and attitude. The next meeting will be held Wednesday 7 p. m. due to the local Halloween parade. Mrs. Clara Mae Vogtman, leader, announced that a roundtable discussion will be held with the topic, "What Youth Worries About And Why." All parents are urged to attend these meetings.

Pythian Sisters Plan Roll Call

MIDLAND—According to Mrs. Earlene Cordial, presiding officer of Myrtle Temple No. 2, Pythian Sisters, plans are completed to hold the annual Roll Call at 7:30 p. m. November 5 in Red Men's Hall, Broadway Street. Mrs. Cordial appointed past officers of the Temple to fill the chairs. Members having birthdays in October, November and December are appointed to the refreshment committee.

Mrs. Julia Ward, district deputy and Mrs. Pearl Neilson, grand chief, Frostburg, and other area grand officers and members are expected to attend.

Hog-Nosed Snake Is Displayed At Valley Hi School

LONACONING — A hog-nosed snake, scientifically named a heterodon platyrhynchos, was brought to Valley High School science room by Bob Elliott of Mill Run, Barton and the snake was named "Mr. Hog Nose."

This mottled snake is not often found in this area; it rolls onto its back and feigns death at the approach of an enemy, flattens its head, puffs its body and makes a hissing sound. It got its name from the tip of its nose turning up. Since it is not poisonous or harmful, it was released to help maintain nature's balance.

Four Bands To Play At Beall Football Game Tonight

MT. SAVAGE — Beall, Bruce, and Mt. Savage High School Bands will participate in a combined half-time show at the Beall-Charles Town game tonight at Beall High School.

They will play music that they combined with 40 other high school bands at the Wake Forest-Maryland game on Band Day at the University of Maryland.

Moorefield Woman's Club Studies Floral Arranging

MOOREFIELD—C. J. Wagner, of Ren Roy Flowers, Cumberland, Md., will show arrangements of dried flowers and suggested Christmas decorations at the November meeting of the Woman's Club of Moorefield to be held at the Hardy County Public Library Monday, November 2, 8 p. m.

Mr. Wagner is an expert in flower arrangements and has held schools for the State Florist Associations in connection with the state universities in Georgia, Alabama, North Carolina and Tennessee. For two years he has designed, and one year served as commentator, for the annual Southern Retail Florist Association (an association which covers 14 southern states) at the largest Christmas school held in the world, at Charlotte, N. C. He has worked state Florist Schools in Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Florida and has just returned from New York where he was a designer at the annual Metropolitan Retail Florist Association's school at Hotel Statler.

Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. W. J. Teets, Mrs. Ashby Scea, Mrs. Howard Belt, Mrs. Edith Vance, Mrs. Glenn Evans and Miss Elizabeth Wilson.

Caribou are the chief source of livelihood for Alaska's nomadic Eskimos. The animals furnish meat for food, horn for implements, and hides for tents, ropes and clothing.

Mt. Savage KC Schedules Communion Breakfast

MT. SAVAGE—The annual Communion Breakfast of Mt. Savage Council 1058, Knights of Columbus, will be held on Sunday morning, November 8 at St. Patrick's parish hall.

Thomas B. Finan, Secretary of State of Maryland, will be principal speaker, James Brailer, grand knight, said last night.

Mass will be celebrated in St. Patrick's Church at 8 a. m. and the breakfast will follow, said Mr. Brailer.

Guests will include William L. Piedmont, supreme director of Columbian Squires with offices at New Haven, Conn.

That evening the annual Holy Hour for Knights of Columbus of this district will be held at the church at 7:30 p. m.

Rev. Robert F. Hopkins, assistant pastor of St. Mary's Church, Cumberland, will deliver the sermon, and benediction will be given by Rev. Michael Smyth, pastor of St. Patrick's.

Members of Chief Justice Taney General Assembly, Fourth Degree, Knights of Columbus, will be honor guard at the Holy Hour service.

Members of Knights of Columbus councils throughout the district are expected to attend the service. Columbian Squires of Cardinal Mooney Circle 1225, Mt. Savage; Father Bradley Circle 1218, Frostburg and Bishop James E. Walsh Circle 1222 of Cumberland are invited to attend with their parents.

UO Stages Successful Food Drive

PIEDMONT—The annual collection of non-perishable foodstuffs and clothing for United Organizations was one of the best conducted in the Tri-Towns according to Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas, secretary of UO.

The house-to-house pickup was staged by Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and their leaders and other volunteer help under the direction of Alton R. Fortney, who has headed the drive for a number of years.

Over 1,500 pieces of clothing were gathered, including 125 pairs of shoes.

Also collected were over 10,288 packages and cans of non-perishable foodstuffs. The clothing is being stored in Union Hall, Westernport, and the foodstuff in the Walker building here. These items will be ready for distribution tomorrow to the underprivileged as they are needed.

Final reports of the drive will be given at the monthly meeting of United Organizations Monday at 7:30 p. m. in the Westernport Library, according to Dr. Frank D. DeMarino, chairman, Piedmont.

Valley Juniors Planning Dance

LONACONING — The Junior Hop will be held on Wednesday, November 25, in Valley High School gym.

"Indian Summer" will be the theme of the Thanksgiving holiday school dance.

Robert Mitchell, class president, will appoint committee chairmen to plan the decorating scheme.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendel Beals and daughters, Eyria, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Blume, Kensington, Md., were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Beal.

Mrs. Irvin Shroyer Jr., is a patient in Memorial Hospital, Cumberland.

Mrs. Lydia Porter is ill at her home.

Paper Mill Honors Newly Retired Employes

J. Robert Garrett, one of 16 employes who retired this past year from West Virginia Pulp and Paper's Luke mill, is here being congratulated by General Manager John A. Luke at the eighth annual retired employes banquet. Held recently at Upper Potomac Shrine Club in Burlington, W. Va., approximately 100 former employes and mill officials were present for the annual event. Also retiring this past year were (left to right) S. Leslie Albright, 47 years service; George W. Moon, 15 years service; C. Fay Plaugher, 45 years service; J. Albert Johnston, 32 years service; Garrett, 36 years service; and Mr. Luke.

Calemine Named Advisor To Press Group

KEYSER—Frank A. Calemine, sponsor of the Journalism Department of Keyser High School, has been appointed to the advisory committee of the Southern Interscholastic Press Association for 1959-60. Chairman of the board is Col. J. W. Benjamin of Greenbrier Military School, Lewisburg.

The SIPA holds its annual meeting at Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va. Schools from 17 southern states attend the meeting. The Hi-Times, school paper of KHS, has placed first or second every year since SIPA was founded. The association was formed in 1925 as the Lee Memorial Journalism Foundation. The coming meeting will be held next April 29-30.

Highlights of the meeting are the nationally-known speakers, who address the students, and the election of the president of th convention. KHS has had two candidates in the past, Nancy Cosner in 1954 and William Oates in 1955.

Youth Sentenced To Penitentiary

KEYSER—A 17-year-old Piedmont youth was sentenced from one to 15 years in the West Virginia penitentiary yesterday by Judge Ernest See.

Another Piedmont youth, 16, was placed on probation for five years by Judge See at a hearing in Juvenile Court.

Both were found guilty of stealing a number of rifles from a store and private homes in Keyser. The 17-year-old had a number of previous criminal convictions. The younger boy was ordered to pay the court fees and to reimburse the owners for damage done to the rifles.

Offer Cash Prizes To Youngsters

MOOREFIELD—Every youngster participating in the Hallowe'en parade tonight will receive a prize, according to announcement by Richard Troughton, president of the Moorefield Lions Club. In addition to each youngster receiving a cash prize, special prizes will be awarded in various categories as selected by the judges. Awards will be made in the pet section, in the wheeled section, for the best costume, for the most unusual costume and nearly 20 categories.

The parade will start at 6:30 p.m. at Moorefield High School, proceed up Main Street to Winchester Street at the light, turning left to the Methodist Church, again turning left on Elm Street to the Court House and then right to the Graded School where the Moorefield Parent-Teachers Association will have the annual Halloween Festival.

Due to the work on Winchester Avenue on the new storm sewer it may be necessary to route the parade up Washington Street at the Moose Home towards the Graded School. Officials state however, that unless inclement weather prevents further work the parade will go up Winchester Avenue.

Committees named from the Lions Club members are Parade Formation and Lineup, C. B. Bishoff, chairman, Dr. W. B. Homan, Roy Hamilton, William Clark, Glenn Evans, S. L. Harper Jr., George Murphy and Clyde Grimes. Street and Traffic committee, C. R. Powers chairman, T. J. Hawse and S. L. Dodd. Band and Fire Company committee, E. L. Puffenberger chairman, Oscar H. Bean and Charles Rohrbaugh. Publicity committee, R. E. Fisher, chairman, W. C. H. Poole and W. C. Harper. Hand-Out committee, J. O. Flinn, chairman, Carleton Saville, S. E. Hinkle, Charles Roth, Judy Ours, J. M. Harrison and George T. Leatherman. Judges committee, C. A. Ludwick, chairman, Lewis Moomau, E. B. Thrush, Mask Harwood, Wendell Hester and John Seymour Jr.

The parade this year is expected to be one of the largest in the history of the event. Moorefield High School Band and the Moorefield Volunteer Fire Company will participate in the parade. Traffic will be either halted or rerouted during the progress of the parade.

A dance at the American Legion home will follow the parade and PTA festival.

The judges stand for the parade will be at the lights in front of the M. A. Bean Motor Company.

Moorefield Legion Plans Dance, Dinner

MOOREFIELD — A dance will be held at the American Legion home tonight after the Hallowe'en parade and festival, according to Post Commander Carl Keller.

Keller also announced that a shrimp feed will be held Sunday at the Legion Home beginning at 4 p. m.

The annual kick-off dinner for the membership drive will be held Veterans Day, November 11, for members and prospective members.

Courtney Pratt, past tenth district commander, reports that the largest caravan ever assembled from the Moorefield post, attended the meeting of legionnaires in Romney on Sunday, October 11.

Mt. Savage PTA Sponsors Dance

MT. SAVAGE — The Parent Teachers Association is sponsoring a Thanksgiving dance November 13 in the school cafeteria. It will be held from 8 till 10:30 p.m. Refreshments will be sold.

Committees Named For Pancake Day

FROSTBURG — Peter Lukas, chairman of the third annual Pancake Day sponsored by the Frostburg Rotary Club, has announced the work schedule for members November 7.

The affair, which is scheduled from 7 a. m. to 7 p. m., will have the following Rotarians on duty: 7 to 9 a. m.—Reford Aldridge, Thomas V. Baucom, Adam Baer, Glenn Beall and Earl Brain: 9 to 11 a. m.—Ivan C. Diehl, John Davis, John Dunkle, Edward Ewald, Gerald Groves, and R. Bowen Hardesty; 11 a. m. to 1 p. m.—Michael Heiskell, Charles Hill, Wayne Hill, Walter Jeffries, William Jenkins and Robert Jones; 1 to 3 p. m.—Gilbert Miller, Fred Morton, Harry Ort, Howard Plummer, Ralph Race and Martin Rothstein; 3 to 5 p. m.—Harry Shupe, A. Charles Stewart, Paul V. Taylor, Harry Teter, Howard Ward and George Wehler; 5 to 7 p. m.—James Bangard, James F. Kelly, H. Martin P. Davidson, Lowell Sowers Jr., Roger Hosbein and Selby Desner.

The general committee includes Lukas, Arthur Roe, Harold Dudley, John Watson and Charles Meehan.

At 7 p. m., Miss Pancake 3rd will be crowned and presented a gift. Second and third place winners will also receive a gift. All girls participating will receive a framed portrait.

Proceeds from the Pancake Day will go toward the building fund of the Frostburg public library.

Child Christened

FROSTBURG — The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Lewis, Eckhart, was christened Sunday in St. Michaels Catholic Church with Rev. Regis F. Larkin, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Taccino were sponsors. The child was named Eugene Bradford Lewis.

Following the ceremony, a turkey dinner was held in Eckhart with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Taccino and children; Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph and Richard, Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Lewis; Barbara and Robert Beeman; Mrs. Edna Farrell, Cumberland, Mrs. John Lewis, and Frank Posenel attending.

Church Arranges Annual Bazar

MT. SAVAGE — The annual parish bazar for St. George's Episcopal Church will be held November 5. The bazar will open with a buffet supper. Fancy articles for gift giving, supplies from the country store, parcel post packages and various other booths will be on the main floor. The public is invited to attend.

Churchmen's Federation Hold Semiannual Meeting

SOMERSET, Pa.—The semiannual fall dinner meeting of the Churchmen's Brotherhood, Somerset Area Federation, United Church of Christ, was held recently at Sipesville, Pa. fire hall. Invocation was offered by Rev. Richard W. Barley, pastor of St. Matthews Church, Bowling Green, Md.

G. Franklin Martin, vice president, Frostburg, Md., presided in the absence of W. R. Tressler, president, who was reported seriously ill.

Robert French, of Somerset, led group singing and sang a solo. Robert Lorentz, of Somerset, read the scripture lesson. On roll call of chapters 136 persons were in attendance.

Roy Barndt, RFD 2, Somerset, was elected vice president for a two year term; Eber Cockley, of Meyersdale, was elected secretary; Rev. Richard Shellenberger, of Somerset, was elected spiritual advisor.

The guest speaker, Dr. Robert V. Moss, president, Theological Seminary, of Lancaster, Pa., was introduced by Rev. Charles E. Fogle. In an inspiring address, Dr. Moss pictured the lay members of the church as "living stones" in the structure of the church, in contrast with prevailing or often accepted impression of the church as a building constructed by human hands.

The next meeting will be held at Grantsville, Md., April 19, 1960.

Research Lab Memorial To Dr. Dreyfus

The Camille and Henry Dreyfus Foundation has made a $2,500,000 grant for the establishment of an international center for polymer chemistry at North Carolina's new Research Triangle Institute, it was announced yesterday by Governor Luther H. Hodges.

The new research center will be known as the Camille Dreyfus Laboratory, in memory of Dr. Camille Dreyfus who was the founder and first president of the Celanese Corporation of America. Construction on the $700,000 laboratory is expected to begin in 1960.

The remainder of the huge grant will provide salaries of the research staff as well as the necessary scientific equipment and supplies.

The Dreyfus foundation is a non-profit organization established to advance the sciences of chemistry and chemical engineering and related sciences throughout the world. It is a memorial to Drs. Camille and Henry Dreyfus, Swiss-born scientists who pioneered in research and contributed to three major industries — man-made fibers, plastics and chemicals.

Dr. Camille Dreyfus came to Cumberland in 1918 and helped establish the parent Celanese Corporation of America plant in the corn fields along the Potomac River. He left England at the urging of President Woodrow Wilson and Secretary of War Newton D. Baker.

The new company received many setbacks, including two floods which almost ruined the plans to open the first American plant to produce man-made fibers to make yarn here.

However, on Christmas Day, 1924, the first commercial production of acetate filament yarn in the United States was accomplished here under direction of Dr. Camille Dreyfus who remained here for a number of years as president of the concern. He died in New York in 1956.

Donald A. Burner Rejoins W.Va. Police

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—The office of State Police Supt. Hazen Fair has announced that Trooper Donald A. Burner, 29-year-old Philippi native, has rejoined the department and been sent to Co. D headquarters at Beckley for further assignment by the company commander.

Burner, a Marine Corps veteran, enlisted with the department previously in August, 1952, and then resigned in September, 1956. Shortly after his resignation, he enlisted for a second hitch in the Marines and recently was discharged.

He spent most of his prior state police service with the Moorefield detachment of Co. C.

Keyser Truck Driver Injured

CARLISLE, Pa. (UPI)—Thomas Kinnie Jr., 36, Keyser, W.Va., was injured Thursday when his tractor-trailer rammed into the rear of another one east of the Blue Mountain Tunnel on the Pennsylvania Turnpike. He is in Carlisle Hospital with a possible leg fracture and bruises. Police said he apparently dozed at the wheel. The other driver, Harold Leach, 24, Martinsburg, was injured.

Improvements At Pimlico Plant

BALTIMORE, Oct. 27 — The second major phase of Pimlico's current improvement and expansion program will be completed for the opening of the track's 141st race meeting on Friday, November 13.

Workmen are putting finishing touches on:

1—A 140-foot addition to the track's six-story grandstand-clubhouse building. It will add nearly 3,000 new grandstand seats serviced by two new escalators.

2—The enclosing of the entire 360-foot length of the grandstand-clubhouse building with 16,200 feet of glass — an area larger than a football field.

3—Installation of the biggest heating system ever attempted in a sports plant. It involves nearly 100 huge gas heaters capable of generating 3,000,000 BTU's of heat energy.

4—Complete interior redecoration of this huge building by the noted decorator, S. Tebbs Chichester of Don McAfee & Associates.

The completed project will boost the total seating capacity of the building to 6,200 seats serviced by five escalators and an elevator. The original building opened in 1954 cost $2,000,000. The new addition and other improvements will cost an estimated three-quarter-million dollars.

FSTC Invites High School Students To Campus Days

FROSTBURG—November 5 and 6 have been designated as "Campus Days" for Frostburg State Teachers College, according to Don Wittig, student chairman, and John Allison, faculty advisor.

The program, sponsored by the Student Congress, is designed to bring prospective high school students from over the state to the college for a day to acquaint them with academic studies and extra curricular activities, and to tour the campus.

November 5, students from Allegany, Garrett, Frederick and Washington counties will be the guests. The following day, the college will play host to students from other Maryland counties.

The program for each day will include a visit to a classroom lecture or laboratory at 10 a.m., followed by a tour of the campus at 11 a.m. and lunch at noon.

An assembly program at 1 p.m. will feature selections played by the college band under the direction of Dr. Ward K. Cole. Songs will be sung by Phi Omicron Delta Sorority and Delta Kapp fraternity members. Dr. Thomas V. Baucom will give a brief talk on administration requirements.

Councilors To Hear Squires' Director

William L. Piedmont, supreme director of Columbian Squires with offices in New Haven, Conn., will confer with councilors of three local and area Circles on Saturday, November 7, at the Knights of Columbus home in Mt. Savage.

The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. Councilors will attend from Bishop James E. Walsh Circle 1222 of Cumberland; Father Bradley Circle 1218, of Frostburg; and Cardinal Mooney Circle 1225, of Mt. Savage.

Mr. Piedmont will bring the Circles up to date on current activities and go over new ideas with the councilors.

No Protest Planned

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department said Thursday it plans no protest against the action of a Cuban plane which flew low near a U. S. destroyer escort in Caribbean waters.

It takes some 200 thousand board feet of lumber for the flight deck of an escort-type aircraft carrier.

Frederick High School, the team that put the only blemish on Fort Hill's record this season, comes here tonight to test Allegany High School's Campers, leaders of the Cumberland Valley Athletic League, at 8 o'clock at the Greenway Avenue stadium.

Coach Ed Schwarz's Campers are setting the pace in the C.V.A.L. with a 3-0 record while Frederick owns an 0-2-1 record.

Allegany has whipped North Hagerstown, South Hagerstown and Martinsburg while Frederick battled Fort Hill to a 7-7 tie in September and lost to Westminster and South Hagerstown's Rebels.

Play Four At Home

Tonight's game is the first of four games in a row at home for the Campers. They play Westminster next week, Romney November 14 and Fort Hill on Thanksgiving Day.

Fort Hill, idle this weekend, is breathing down Allegany's back in the C.V.A.L. race with a 3-0-1 record.

Allegany owns an overall record of 5-1 and will be angling for its fourth consecutive victory since the setback at the hands of Keyser High. The Cadets, coached by Jack Molesworth for the third season, have won two, lost four and played one tie game.

Vikings Host Keyser

Keyser High, only undefeated and untied team in the tri-state area, goes after its 7th victory of the season today when it faces the Vikings at Petersburg in a Potomac Valley Conference contest.

Valley Seeks Series Sweep Over Aggies

Mt. Savage To Test Bruce High Today

Held even in their last two outings by Mt .Savage and Bruce, Valley High School's booters will try to get back into the win column when they tackle the Flintstone Aggies for the 14th time in a W.M.I. League game today at Valley High Field.

Flintstone is the only school to defeat Valley since the Knights came into the league in 1953. That was on October 9 that year and the Aggies scored a 3-2 win on their home field.

Since that game Valley has gone unbeaten in 51 league contests, including ten ties. Last year Valley played four tie games and one was a 2-2 draw with Flintstone.

Valley Won 11 Out of 13

Valley's league record against Flintstone for seven years is 11 wins, one loss and one tie. Earlier in the season the Black Knights eked out a 2-1 decision over Coach "Stony" Jackson's booters.

A victory would enable Coach John Meyers' eleven to move one step closer toward its seventh straight title. Valley now is 4-0-2 and has only two games remaining on its schedule with Flintstone and Beall at Frostburg. Bruce occupies the runner-up spot with 3-1-1 and has remaining games with Mt. Savage, Flintstone and Beall.

Clifton Van Roby and "Ozzie" Nelson will officiate at today's game.

Indians Test Bruce

Mt. Savage High School's Indians, who tied Valley at Lonaconing and beat Flintstone and Bruce in their last three outings to move into third place, will attempt to beat Bruce at Westernport—something that hasn't been done since 1954. Coach John Thomas' team dropped a 2-1 decision to the Bulldogs on October 9.

A win for Mt. Savage today would put the Indians in second place, one point in the fore of Bruce.

Mt. Savage's record to date is 2-2-2 while Bruce is 3-1-1.

"Moose" Arnone and Jack Burner will handle this game.

Cards Sign Pact With Red Wings

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — General manager Bing Devine announced Thursday the St. Louis Cardinals have signed a working agreement for the next three seasons with the Rochester Red Wings of the triple-A International League.

The Rochester pact and an earlier agreement for two years with Tulsa of the Texas League marked the first time the Cards made minor league committments of more than one year.

Ameche Sets Pace

Baltimore fullback Alan Ameche, with four 1959 touchdowns to his credit, is now the leading point-producer, 222, and TD-maker, 37, in the club's history.

NEW PITCH FOR HIM — One of the star pitchers of the St. Louis Cards, Larry Jackson, has come up with a new pitch—as sports editor of the Idaho Evening Statesman, Boise, Id. Jackson, who was 14-13 with the Cards, will join the club again in the spring.

Wynn Is Voted Young Award As Top Pitcher

Victor In 22 Games, Cops 13 Of 16 Votes

BOSTON (UPI)—Veteran Early Wynn of the Chicago White Sox, who won the most games in either league last season at the age of 39, Thursday was named winner of the 1959 Cy Young Award as the top pitcher in the majors last season.

Wynn compiled a 22-10 record for the pennant winning White Sox after a 14-16 losing slate in 1958. He won the United Press International "comeback of the year" honors several weeks ago for his return to form.

Thirteen of the 16 votes cast by the Baseball Writers Association of America went to the husky Nokomis, Fla., resident. Sam Jones of the San Francisco Giants received two votes and Bob Shaw, also of the White Sox, got the other one.

Wynn's margin of victory in the balloting, announced here by BBWAA secretary Hy Hurwitz, was the largest since lefthander Warren Spahn won the Young trophy in 1957 with 15 of the 16 votes.

Neither Spahn, nor Bob Turley of the New York Yankees, who won the award last year, was mentioned in the voting this year.

The Cy Young Award was instituted in 1956 by baseball Commissioner Ford Frick. Don Newcombe of the Brooklyn Dodgers won it the first year.

Wynn, who holds the most victories among active pitchers in the major leagues with 271, compiled a 3.13 earned run average last season, hurling five shutouts and 14 complete games.

Colleges Score Record Number Of Field Goals

Wider Goal Posts Result In 118 In 332 Contests

NEW YORK (UPI) — College football's new wider goal posts have produced a record number of field goals for a single season with the season not quite two-thirds over, the NCAA disclosed Friday.

A grand total of 118 three-pointers has been booted in 332 games so far this year, breaking the old full season record of 105 set in 578 games last year, according to figures compiled by the NCAA's Service Bureau.

Taking dead aim at the crossbar, which is four feet, 10 inches wider this season than in past years, the collegians are kicking one field goal in every 2.8 games as against one in every 5.6 games last year.

What's more, it appears that new records have been set for accuracy, although the NCAA isn't sure because records of misses never were compiled in the past.

This year's 118 field goals have resulted from only 228 attempts, an average of 51.8 per cent. Pro stars in the National Football League have exceeded that percentage only one season in history.

Everyone's getting into the act, too. Of the 110 major college teams, only 24 have yet to try a field goal.

Louisiana State and Mississippi, rivals this Saturday night in the feature game of this week end's program, both figure in the kicking statistics. Mississippi has tried more field goals than any major team in the nation, eight, but has clicked on only three by Bob Khayat. LSU, on the other hand, has bagged the greatest number of field goals, five, in five attempts by Wendell Harris.

The longest boot so far, a kick that traveled 48 yards in the air, was by Vince Scott of Maryland in the Terrapins' opening game.

Cubs Sign Banks, Boost His Salary

CHICAGO (UPI)—The Chicago Cubs scotched rumors Thursday that they might trade or sell their star shortstop, Ernie Banks, by announcing that the home run slugger had signed a 1960 contract at a substantial raise.

There was no announcement as to the figure, but Banks reportedly will receive $55,000 to $60,000 and become the second highest paid player ever to wear a Cub uniform. Ralph Kiner, now general manager of the Pacific Coast League San Diego Padres, was said to have received $65,000 when he was obtained by the Cubs from Pittsburgh in June, 1953, for players and cash.

Last season, when Banks hit 45 home runs and led the National League with 143 runs batted in, he was said to have received a $45,000 base salary plus a bonus estimated at about $5,000.

Fort Hill Harriers Triumph In First Cross Country Meet

Merwin Hast Leads In 2.2 Miles Event

Sentinels Get 23 Points, Campers 43 And Beall High 71

Fort Hill High School won team and individual honors in the first Allegany county interscholastic cross country meet held yesterday over the Fort Cumberland Golf Club course on the Oldtown road.

Merwin Hast of Fort Hill, led a field of 38 harriers from three schools over the 2.2 miles of hill and dale in the good time of 12 minutes and three seconds while Bill Claus of Allegany came in second about seven yards back.

Allegany Runner-Up

Fort Hill's team won the meet with low score of 23 points. Allegany was second with 43 and Beall last with 71 tallies. Six of the first eight finishers were from Fort Hill. The score of the first five runners on each team makes up the final point standing.

Approximately 100 persons witnessed the sport make its debut here in the perfect fall weather.

The expected duel between Hast and Claus was just that. The Fort Hill ace grabbed an early lead and Claus stayed close most of the way. On the 250 yards straightaway the Allegany lad pulled within five yards on the leader. That gap widened, however, to seven yards as Hast put on a burst of speed in the final 150 yards. There are four hills on the course and the most gruelling test was on No. 6 fairway which is fairly steep.

Order Of Finish

Here is the order in which the runners finished:

1. Merwin Hast, Fort Hill. 2. William Claus, Allegany. 3. Paul Miller, Fort Hill. 5. Robert Light, Fort Hill. 6. Jan Withrow, Fort Hill. 7. Harry "Butch" Bosley, Fort Hill. 8. Llewellyn, Fort Hill. 9. Phil Van Newkirk, Beall. 10. Richard Tosh, Allegany

11. James Talley, Fort Hill. 12. David Baldwin, Fort Hill. 13. Stevenson, Beall. 14. Jeff Humbertson, Allegany 15. Robert Grant, Fort Hill. 16. William Livingston, Beall. 17. State Meet Nov. 7

The three schools that participated in yesterday's meet will be eligible for the state championship event to be held at Hereford High School, Parkton, on November 7, at 11 a. m.

Seven members of each squad will compete in Class A for the state trophy. Remaining members of the squads will vie in Class B.

FINISHES FIRST — Merwin Hast of Fort Hill High School paced a starting field of 38 hill and dale runners from three county schools in the first Allegany County cross country championship meet yesterday at the Fort Cumberland Golf Club course. Hast finished about seven yards ahead of Bill Claus of Allegany, finishing the 2.2 miles grind in the good time of 12 minutes, 3 seconds. Fort Hill High copped the team title.

Sanders Takes Sahara Pro-Am

Doug Gets $1,000 In Silver Dollars

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — Front-running Doug Sanders was almost blown off the Las Vegas municipal golf course by winds that reached 50 miles an hour Thursday, but he had enough to win the $7500 Sahara pro-amateur golf tournament with a 54 - hole score of 219.

Sanders, whose opening round 66 tied a tournament record, staggered in with an eight over par 80 in the final round of the tournament. His 219 total, three over par for the distance, was four shots better than runnerup Ed (Porky) Oliver of Denver.

Sanders, of Miami Beach, Fla., had scores of 66-73-80. He got $1000 in silver dollars for first prize.

Oliver blew in with an 82 in the final round for his 223 total, good for $800 in second money.

Next at 225 was Jimmy Clarke of Los Angeles who won $650 for finishing third and a $100 bonus for firing the best round of the final day's play—a brilliant, considering the weather, 75.

Savemenow Wins Shenandoah Race

CHARLES TOWN, W. Va. (AP) —Mrs. Edith Allnutt's Savemenow took over in the last quarters Thursday night to score a going-away four-length victory in the Crown Cork and Seal Purse, feature of the ladies night card at Shenandoah Downs.

A crowd estimated at 3,000 made the three-year-old the 2-1 choice and she responded under the forceful riding of Fausto D. Rivera. Savemenow paid $6.40, $4.20 and $3.20.

Harry E. Stotler's Moco Yardley was a tiring second at a $6.40 $3.60 mutuel, and Blushing Bride ran third paying $5.20.

Columbia Is Back In Sally League

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati baseball club management announced Thursday it was moving the Savannah Club of the Sally League back to Columbia, S.C.

Gabe Paul, general manager, said John Sarlo, business manager, would continue as head of the club.

WINNING CROSS COUNTRY TEAM—Fort Hill High School won team honors in the first Allegany county interscholastic cross country meet yesterday over Fort Cumberland Golf Club course with low score of 23 points. Allegany was second and Beall third. Points accumulated by the first five runners from each school figured in the final score in the 2.2 mile test. The Fort Hill squad, left to right: FRONT ROW—Harry "Butch" Bosley, Jan Withrow, Bob Light, Mike Miller, Merwin Hast, David Baldwin, Billy Burgess and Gary Bartik. BACK ROW—Clarence Kean, manager; Bill Llewellyn, Mike Wanda, Leroy Bird, Alan Sine, Glen Shipway, Bob Grant, Dick Morgan, Jimmy Talley and Coach Charles "Buck" Smith.

Alston Signs One-Year Pact

Salary Is Believed Around $40,000

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Manager Walter Alston has signed a new one-year contract to pilot the world champion Los Angeles Dodgers and he gets a raise in pay.

General Manager E. J. (Buzzie) Bavasi announced the signing Thursday after a talk with Alston at his home in Darrtown, Ohio.

The Dodgers did not divulge money but it is believed Alston's salary now approaches $40,000 a year.

"Alston has accepted terms for a one year contract—and he was awarded a nice raise," Bavasi said.

Alston was voted "manager of the year" for ushering the Dodgers to the National League pennant in a playoff with Milwaukee and then winning the series in six games against the Chicago White Sox. The Dodgers finished a dismal seventh in 1958.

Maryland Drills In Sweat Clothes

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP)—The Maryland football team drilled in sweat clothes Thursday and shunned the rough stuff in preparation for Saturday's game against South Carolina.

Backfield men had another long drill in punting and punt returns.

With a rest last Saturday, the Terps' 39-man squad will be in good physical condition for the Gamecocks.

The team will leave Washington National Airport at 10:15 a.m. Friday by chartered plane. It is scheduled to arrive in Columbia, S.C., at noon.

North-South Title To Mrs. Bartholomew

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP)—Mrs. Charles Bartholomew of Brookline, Mass., battled wind, cold and rain Thursday to win the North and South Women's Senior Golf Tournament with a final round 79 and a two-day total of 159.

Eddie Wins Three

NEW YORK (UPI)—Eddie Arcaro booted home three winners at Aqueduct Thursday, including an easy two and one-half length victory aboard Starlet Miss in the $6,500 Creole Maid Purse.

Arcaro's other triumphs were on Boat Race ($5.10) in the fourth race and Arrant Bully ($5.00) in the ninth.

Starlet Miss, winning her first race since last August, paid $11.10 $7.10 and $5.20 across the board.

Halfback Bob Emmert raced off tackle for 65 yards and a fourth quarter touchdown to give Beall High School's junior varsity football team a 13-7 victory over the Keyser High School Jayvees in a game played yesterday at Frostburg.

Three minutes of play remained when Emmert's long touchdown dash sewed up the decision after Beall had taken over on downs on its own 35. Jim Robertson kicked the extra point.

Keyser had taken a 7-6 lead early in the final quarter when fullback Landis scored from the seven on an off tackle slant and Bradfield plunged the point.

Jim McFarland passed 10 yards to Jerry Delaney for the first touchdown of the game in the second period to climax a 73-yard drive. Robertson's kick for the point was blocked.

The victory gave the Little Mountaineers a 3-3 record for the season. Beall plays the LaSalle Jayvees at Frostburg on November 9.

NATIONAL HOCKEY LEAGUE

Rice Institute Refuses To Rent Stadium To Pros

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Rice Institute Thursday refused to rent its football stadium to a possible Houston entry in the National Football League.

Houston had been offered a franchise in the NFL under an expansion program due to begin in 1960. The franchise was granted on the condition that an adequate stadium would be available.

A memorandum from the board of the university restated the school's policy against use of the stadium for professional football.

Craig F. Cullinan said he and his group "will immediately re-examine our position and see what, if anything, can be done to keep from losing our National Football League franchise."

Tacoma Joins Coast League

Washington City Replaces Phoenix

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Tacoma, Wash., replaced Phoenix, Ariz., as a member of the Pacific Coast League Thursday.

PCL directors, meeting here, approved the change by unanimous vote.

League President Leslie O'Connor said the PCL is hopeful a Tacoma club will produce an intense baseball rivalry among Tacoma, Seattle and Portland that will greatly boost attendance.

Phoenix, the sick sister in the eight-team league last year, lost its franchise mainly because fans would not submit to the desert heat to attend games.

Sam Jones Honored By Morgantown Club

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. (IPI) — Star pitcher Sad Sam Jones of the San Francisco Giants was honored Thursday night by the Morgantown Touchdown Club.

Jones was honored guest at the club's weekly smoker in advance of home West Virginia University games. The slender right-hander, who posted the best earned run average in the National League this year, was given a proficiency award by the club.

Houk, Pesky Or Mauch To Pilot Kansas City

Craft's Successor Will Be Named Soon

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI) — Harry Craft's successor as manager of the Kansas City Athletics is expected to be named within the next week.

The A's have been without a field boss since the close of the 1959 campaign when Craft's contract was not renewed, and the long list of possible successors has been slashed until only three names remain — Ralph Houk, Johnny Pesky and Gene Mauch.

Houk, former catcher and now a coach with the New York Yankees, is considered the prime candidate.

A native of nearby Lawrence, Kan., Houk joined the Yankees in 1947. He split the 1948 and 1949 seasons between New York and Kansas City, then the Yankees' American Association farm club, but returned to the Yanks to stay in 1950. He got in only 31 games between 1950 and 1954, retiring as an active player with a lifetime batting average of .272.

Houk was given managerial experience by the Yankees at their Denver club in 1955, 1956, and 1957. His clubs twice finished second and once came in third. For the past two season he has been a coach with the Yankees.

Pesky was one of the American League's most popular players from 1942 to 1954 with the Red Sox, Tigers and Senators. Pesky retired as an active player at the end of the 1954 season with a lifetime batting average of .307.

He was a player-coach at Denver in 1955, managed Durham in 1956, managed Birmingham in 1957, was with Lancaster in 1958, and with Knoxville in 1959. He won pennants each of his last two years.

Mauch spent his big league playing days with the Braves, Dodgers, Pirates, Cubs, Cardinals and Red Sox, calling it quits at the end of the 1956 season. He played all infield positions and retired with a lifetime batting average of .225.

The past season he managed Minneapolis to the American Association playoff championship.

Pioneers To Battle Undefeated Falcons

FAIRMONT, W. Va. (UPI) — Fairmont State's undefeated football squad puts its six game winning streak on the line here Friday night when it meets defending West Virginia Conference champion Glenville.

The Falcons clinched the western division crown last Saturday when they upset previously unbeaten West Virginia Tech 19-12. Glenville lost to Salem 13-0 last weekend. They now have a 3-3 record.

Fernandez Is Favorite Over Ortega

Slugging Welters Fight At Garden

NEW YORK (UPI) — Welterweight contenders Florentino Fernandez of Cuba and Gaspar Ortega of Mexico give their second demonstration of an irresistible force meeting an immovable object Friday night at Madison Square Garden.

Unbeaten Fernandez, a terrific slugger, is favored at 11-5 to whip the "Iron Indian" again in their nationally televised and broadcast 10-rounder.

When they collided the first time at Miami Beach on Sept. 11, the irresistible Cuban's knockout string was snapped at 15 straight, although he did manage to register his 21st consecutive victory on a decision.

In that Miami Beach thriller, rugged Ortega was floored twice; and the double - decking enraged him. Only once before had he ever been knocked down, and then by a low blow. He was fighting furiously against Fernandez at the finish.

Lanky Ortega lost the decision, but he remained unstopped in 69 fights.

In his United States debut, Florentino tagged rugged Stefan Redl of Germany with his first knockout on June 19 at the Garden. The Cuban's next and latest fight was with Ortega, Sept. 11. Neither Fernandez nor Ortega fought since then.

At 24, Ortega of Mexicali is only a year older than Fernandez; but he is much more experienced in 69 professional bouts. He won 51, lost 16 and had two draws. A fair puncher, he scored 21 kayoes.

He is ranked eighth among 147-pound contenders by the National Boxing Association and 10th by The Ring.

Fernandez, rated fifth by the NBA and ninth by The Ring, registered 18 knockouts in his 21 straight professional wins.

Lewis To Make Lineup Changes For Penn State

Huston, Timmerman, Adkins WVU Starters

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. (UPI) — West Virginia Coach Art Lewis said Thursday he would make three changes in his starting lineup for Saturday's game with unbeaten Penn State.

Lewis said he would start junior Tom Huston at fullback in place of Bob Benke; sophomore end Bob Timmerman in place of injured end Ben McComb and Fred Adkins will be at right guard in place of Pete Tolley. Lewis had said previously he would play Adkins most of the game to give Tolley a much needed rest.

The rest of the starting lineup has Dave Hess at the other end, Carl Dannenberg and Glen Bowman at tackles, Bill (Hard Coal) Lopasky at the other guard; Joe Wirth at center, Danny Williams at quarterback, and Johnny Marra and Ray Peterson at halfbacks.

Lewis put his charges through a final workout Thursday and said he would hold a light drill Friday.

Penn State will arrive in Morgantown Friday and hold a light drill at Mountaineer Field Friday afternoon.

Shoemaker Will Ride Tompion

World's Richest Race Set Saturday

CAMDEN, N.J. (UPI)—Jockey Willie Shoemaker not only will ride Tompion in Saturday's running of the Garden State Stakes but plans to win the world's richest race with the young colt.

Shoemaker was torn between riding Round Table for the Kerr Stable Saturday in the $100,000 added Jockey Club Gold Cup at Aqueduct or handling Tompion at Garden State Park. But he had agreed to ride Tompion last August and owner C. V. Whitney insisted he fulfill the engagement.

Now that the matter has been resolved Shoemaker showed no signs of resentment when questioned by telephone in Toronto at a press breakfast at Garden State.

"I made a commitment to ride Tompion and I'm going to keep it," Willie said.

Tompion was beaten by Warfare recently in the Champagne and Shoemaker expects to reverse that decision. Asked by Jimmy Jones of Calumet Farm what tactics he planned to use, Shoemaker replied, "I am going to ride to win."

Shoemaker is counting upon a recent change in equipment to swing the race in Tompion's favor.

"He runs 100 per cent better in blinkers and his best race was in the Champagne in them. Before that you never knew what he was going to do. He would duck-in and he would duck-out. With blinkers he really tries to run," Shoemaker added.

Three of the expected 11 starters at Garden State had "blow outs" Thursday morning. Bourbon Prince ran a half mile in :49 4-5; Azure's Orphan went five furlongs in :59 1-5; and T. V. Lark was clocked in 1:13 for six furlongs.

Venetian Way, Bally Ache, Stephen, Lurullah and Judge Martin complete the probable field.

Sedgman Is Leader In Vienna Tennis

VIENNA (UPI) — Frank Sedgman of Australia maintained his hold on first place in the European professional Grand Prix tennis championships Thursday night defeating his countryman, Lew Hoad, in straight sets, 6-1, 6-3.

Little Ken Rosewall of Australia dropped the first set but came back to win over Tony Trabert of the United States, 3-6, 6-0, 6-2.

Sedgman now has 16 victories. Rosewall is pressing for the lead with 15 wins. Lew Hoad is in third place with 11 points while Tony Trabert is trailing the field with only 8 victories.

LONACONING — A Halloween dance will be held Friday night at Valley High School gym, sponsored by the French Club. There will be prizes and records. Mrs. Margaret B. Sloan is faculty advisor to the club.

The roots of the mesquite tree are frequently about three times the length of the bush they support.

Deadline Set Saturday For City Petition

Saturday at midnight is the deadline for submitting petitions on Charter Amendment Resolution 12, which would remove the three-year residency requirement for applicants for police and firemen positions with the City of Cumberland.

City Clerk Wallace G. Ullery said the resolution was passed by the Mayor and Council September 21 and under the city's home rule legislation, opponents have 40 days from that date to file a petition containing the names of 20 percent of the registered voters. When the required number has been certified, the resolution would go to a referendum.

Lacking the required number of names, the petition would fail and the resolution become effective.

There is a possibility that some change in the resolution will be made. Police and Fire Commissioner Philmore Fleming has suggested that the old three-year residency clause be reinstated in the charter and an additional provision made empowering the Civil Service Commission to waive the residency requirement.

Fleming has said previously that on a recent examination the city should have had 30 applicants for patrolman but only had eight.

The new resolution has been opposed both by the Police and Firemen's Welfare Association and the Fraternal Order of Police.

It applies to all capacities in the departments and particular opposition has been raised to the inclusion of the position of chief of police in waiving the residency clause.

Musk oxen have an outer coat of long, coarse, dark brown to black hair and a warm undercoating of wool that is shed every year.

Four kinds of flying animals are known: birds, insects, bats and the extinct lizards of about 100 million years ago. Flying fish are not included, as they only skim through the air.

Microwave means better, clearer reception on Cable TV!

With microwave there is no doubt that the Cumberland area has the clearest and steadiest reception, the most TV stations to choose from and the most TV programs, of any city in the world. Our additional cost for this relay point will be about $4000 per month, but we were only too glad to be able to make these improvements, and there will be no increase in Cable TV Subscription rates!

4 DOOR V8
This is one of the cars we sold in '58 and we know it to be in A-1 condition. It is a two tone of blue and white. It has the powerful V8 engine with straight transmission and is very economical to operate. Other equipment includes Windshield washers, heater, defroster, signal lights, variable speed electric wipers, backup lights and white sidewall tires. It has a two tone spotless interior. We can show you the work orders on this car and it is a wonderful opportunity to own this A-1 car for just a fraction of the original cost at

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Mapleside Fellowship Collects $70 For UNICEF

The Mapleside Methodist Youth Fellowship held a Halloween party in the recreation room of the church. Each Senior M.Y.F. member took a group of younger children and they were assigned a street to collect for UNICEF. When they returned to the church the party was held and games were played until all had returned. Then Brenda and Sherry Proudfoot, and Lindajean Dicken played selections on the piano, and Charles Burcaw with the flute and Edgar Kolb on the accordion played several selections together as a duet.

The money collected was counted and announced to the group as a total of $70. Refreshments were served. There were about 65 attending.

Noah Webster began his preparation of his American dictionary of the English language in 1807 and published the book in 1828.

Dates Announced

Members of the Circle 8 ULCW of St. Paul's Church were reminded of World Community Day November 6; ULCW fall rally dinner the 10th, thank offering service, the 15th and dedication banquet the 23d.

Preceding the meeting the group arranged flowers for the mission study dinner. Mrs. Howard Irwin presided and Mrs. F. B. Krenchbaum conducted devotionals.

NOTICE

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 127 of the Charter of the City of Cumberland, Maryland, (1950 Edition), notice is hereby given that the Mayor and City Council of Cumberland did, in regular session Monday, October 12, 1959, approve the Report of Commissioners for the closing of a portion of Smith Street, which street is fourteen (14) feet wide and runs from the Northerly side of North Centre Street to the Southerly boundary of the Western Maryland Railway Company right of way, a distance of approximately two hundred forty-seven (247) feet.

After meeting on the premises (10:30 A.M., October 6, 1959) and remaining there for a period in excess of one-half (½) hour, the Commissioners report that several property owners appeared but no objections were filed and, after walking over the entire area involved, the following was the unanimous opinion of the Commissioners appointed to close said portion of Smith Street:

"That there are no damages or benefits to the owners of lots binding on the portion of Smith Street in said City, which street is 14 feet wide and runs from the northerly side of North Centre Street to the southerly boundary of the Western Maryland Railway Company right of way, a distance of approximately 247 feet.

Under the circumstances, the Commissioners feel that since the Light and Decker Company will own most of the property abutting on said portion of Smith Street to be closed, it should be required to pay all costs incurred by the City of Cumberland in connection with the closing."

Any person, persons, firm or corporation feeling aggrieved by the decision of the Commissioners may appeal therefrom within thirty (30) days after October 12, 1959, and filing written notice of such appeal with the City Clerk of the City of Cumberland, Maryland, who will transmit same to the Circuit Court for Allegany County to be docketed for jury trial.

MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL OF CUMBERLAND
Wallace G. Ullery

Fire Destroys Old Log House In Midlothian

Family Escapes Without Injury

Fire yesterday gutted the second story of an old log house, reportedly the oldest structure in Midlothian, as firemen battled for over an hour to save the community landmark.

The blaze was discovered about 5:45 p.m. by George Gordon who resides in the house with his wife and three children, Marion, 14, George, 12, and Elmer, 8.

Before calling for aid, Mr. Gordon attempted unsuccessfully to stifle the flames, which firemen believe started from an overheated stove pipe.

Neighbors, seeing the dense smoke pouring from second story windows of the building, rushed to help the Gordon family, getting the residents and some of their furniture and belongings from the burning house before firemen arrived.

Nine trucks and nearly 75 volunteer firemen from Frostburg, Shaft, Midland and Clarysville responded to the alarm and brought the fire under control.

Firemen were hampered by the dense smoke pouring from the building and were forced to pump water from a creek several hundred feet to the structure.

The entire second floor was destroyed, firemen said, and the Gordons lost much of their clothing and furniture. The fire burned through the floor and ceiling, although the outside walls remained intact.

The building, owned by Wilbert Hoban of Ohio, is believed to be more than 150 years old. Approximately 80 years ago it was a farm house with several smaller cabins which since have been torn down.

The building was heated by a large stove on the first floor. A pipe from the stove went to the second floor and through the roof. It is believed that this pipe became overheated and caused the fire.

No one was injured, firemen said.

Mr. Gordon is employed by the Frostburg Auto Company.

Gray Ladies Plan Activities

Escapee Given One-Year Term In Penitentiary

Men Arraigned At Kingwood

Roger Raridon of near Clarksburg, W. Va., who escaped from Hopemont Sanitarium, was sentenced yesterday to one year in the West Virginia penitentiary by Judge Melvin C. Snyder in Preston County Circuit Court at Kingwood.

The judge stipulated that Raridon would serve his sentence in addition to his time in the sanitarium, Prosecuting Attorney James T. Dailey Jr. of Preston County said last night.

Raridon was indicted by the grand jury last March.

Twelve other men who were indicted Tuesday by the grand jury, entered pleas yesterday when arraigned before Judge Snyder.

Arthur P. Wilson, 39, of Kingwood, pleaded not guilty to four morals charges involving his 16-year-old daughter, and to two burglary charges; Elza Rummel pleaded not guilty to burglary charges; George Thomas, 39, of Kingwood, pleaded not guilty to charges of malicious assault.

Charles E. Davis of Arthurdale pleaded not guilty to manslaughter; Eugene Owens pleaded guilty to the theft of a power saw; Franklin D. Turner of Harrison County pleaded guilty to a charge of auto theft; Paul Morgan, Albright, pleaded not guilty to auto theft; Fred Hennings, Washington, Pa., entered a plea of guilty to a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses.

James Tichnell pleaded not guilty to malicious assault; Robert Lee Shreve of near Rowlesburg and Leslie Poling entered pleas of guilty to a charge of breaking and entering a camp near Terra Alta; Charles V. Liston pleaded not guilty to contributing to the delinquency of a minor child.

Billy R. Barker, Terra Alta, indicted on three charges of obtaining property under false pretenses, was not arraigned. He is in custody at Morgantown.

Prosecuting Attorney Dailey said civil trials will begin Monday and criminal trials will probably begin on Thursday of next week.

30-Year-Old Hyndman Man Shot To Death

A 30-year-old man was found shot to death last night at his home, one mile south of Hyndman, Pa. He died of a gunshot wound in the stomach, authorities said.

The victim was identified as Robert Steward Margraff. The shooting apparently occurred about 9:30 p. m. State Police last night had not determined if the wound was accidental or self-inflicted.

Mr. Margraff was born June 19, 1929, a son of Mrs. Etta (Resh) Margraff and the late Edward Margraff. He is survived by his mother, his widow, Mrs. Sarah (Sheirer) Margraff, three children, David Lee, Judy Anna, and Cathy Jane; two brothers, Fred Margraff, Cumberland, and John Margraff, Hagerstown, and three sisters, Mrs. Elva Lowery, and Mrs. Rosalie Kirpatric, both of Hagerstown, and Mrs. Mabel Zeigler, Washington, D.C.

He was a member of Hyndman Methodist Church.

The body is at the Zeigler Funeral Home.

Plaintiffs Get $7,966 Damages In Court Here

A Nikep resident and his father, plaintiffs in a damage suit heard yesterday in Allegany County Circuit Court, were awarded a total of $7,966.71 by a petit jury which deliberated an hour before reaching its verdict.

Leroy Myers, who was permanently disabled in the two-car accident July 27, 1958 near Lonaconing; and his father, Robert Myers, whose car was damaged, filed the suit against John H. Thrasher Jr. of RD 2, Frostburg.

The nine men and three women on the jury awarded $7,500 to Leroy Myers who suffered a spinal injury, incurred medical expenses and lost wages. His father was awarded $466.71 for damage to the vehicle.

The accident occurred on Maryland Route 36 about a mile and a half south of Lonaconing. Thrasher was traveling south on the highway and rammed into the rear of the Myers car, which was parked on the west side of the shoulder of the road.

The defendant testified in court yesterday that prior to the accident he had been looking out the window at a girl and was not paying attention to the road.

Two doctors testified during the trial. One said that Myers' injury may become worse. The plaintiff appeared in court wearing a neck brace.

Leroy Myers sought $30,000 when the suit was filed, and his father sought $1,000 damages. Attorneys for the plaintiff were William Geppert and Julius E. Schindler. W. Earle Cobey and Gorman Getty represented the defendant.

Foreman of the petit jury was Clarence V. Burns. Closing arguments concluded about 3:10 p. m. when the jurors were instructed by Chief Judge Morgan C. Harris who presided on the bench.

Traffic Island Is Built At Intersection

Blacktop Is Used For Ramped Area

A traffic island was built at the intersection of Henderson Avenue and North Mechanic Street yesterday.

Designed to ease the difficulties for drivers entering Route 40, the channelizing device was built of blacktop yesterday by Street Department crews.

The island will allow drivers to pull up to the barrier in safety and to make sure the way ahead is clear before entering the busy highway.

A stop sign located on the right side of Mechanic Street is too far away from Henderson Avenue to provide good sight lines.

The placing of the traffic island is in line with a recommendation made by the State Roads Commission's traffic division at the request of Police Commissioner Philmore Fleming.

The SRC, after making a study of the intersection, recommended that a traffic island be installed and an actuated traffic signal be placed at the spot to expedite traffic movement and improve safety.

The lights, Mr. Fleming has reported, would be desirable but would cost $12,000.

The island was built of blacktop according to plans prepared by the City Engineering Department and at the request of Street Commissioner John J. Long.

The triangular area was graded so a vehicle which accidentally hops the barrier or is forced upon it can return to grade safely with only a bump.

Some time ago, the Police Department painted an island to divide traffic at the intersection and found it improved safety conditions.

Cancer Survey Workers Asked To Return Kits

Over 1,500 Families Contacted In County

Mrs. Lucile Roeder, chairman of the "Cancer Preventive Study" for Allegany County, yesterday urged all volunteer workers to return their questionnaire kits to the chapter's headquarters in the County Building on Union Street.

Mrs. Roeder said the kits soon must be forwarded to the Statistical Research Section of the American Cancer Society in New York for tabulation.

The study, which is under the direction of Dr. E. Cuyler Hammond, will prove the effect of environment of cancer and will attempt to learn more about symptoms of the disease to help prove early detection. The information obtained from these questionnaires is designed to test many theories about the cause of cancer.

Another major object of the study is to find out what percentage of the public has undiagnosed cancer.

More than 150 volunteer workers are taking part in the survey in this county. The local chapter hopes to contact at least 1,500 families during the survey, which is a part of the largest medical survey ever conducted by the American Cancer Society.

The study will cover a six-year period and each family who takes part will be reported on annually. In addition to answering an original questionnaire, each person will be asked to fill out forms with supplementary information every two years.

Mt. Savage Man Held For Jury Action

Melvin Gene Carder of Mt. Savage is being held in Garrett County Jail for action of the grand jury on charges of breaking and entering the lake dwelling of Jesse Miller Jr., Pittsburgh, and taking furnishings valued at $375, and also for auto larceny.

During separate hearings this week before Trial Magistrate Robert M. Maroney at Oakland, charges were preferred against Carder and bond was set at $1,000 in the dwelling case and $500 in the auto larceny.

Mr. Miller arrived at his cabin last Friday night and found a car in front of his place loaded with furniture. Two persons reportedly took off into the woods.

Sheriff James F. Frantz and State Police were notified. They made a quick trip to the cottage on Meadow Mountain Road and the auto was identifed by the license number as being owned by Carder.

The following day State Police at LaVale were notifed by Carder that his car had been stolen. They asked him to come and register proof of ownership, at which time he was placed under arrest.

Yesterday morning Tfc. Robert D. Henline charged Carder with the theft of a pickup truck from the Bittinger area. It was found later in Frostburg.

In another case before Magistrate Maroney, Earl Kyle of Barton pleaded guilty to a charge of possession of rabbits in a closed season, filed by Leo Friend, game warden.

Kyle was fined $50 and costs on the charge and an additional $25 for the five rabbits in his possession.

Fire Equipment Prepared For Winter Driving

The Cumberland Fire Department is getting ready for winter, Fire Chief Virgil Parker reported yesterday.

He said the task of winterizing all motorized equipment began about two weeks ago and should be completed by the end of next week.

Equipment, he explained, is prepared for winter driving conditions through a program which includes placing anti-freeze in radiators after they are cleaned and flushed, a new set of spark plugs and draining of all oil and grease which is replaced with winter-grade lubricants.

The work, which includes a motor tune-up, is made under the direction of Lt. Harold McDonald, master mechanic at Central Fire Department.

The procedure includes the loading of all fire trucks with newly tested hose and tools.

Chains are on hand for all vehicles, Chief Parker said, and there is a standing order that chains are to be placed on all first-line equipment as soon as the first snow begins to fall.

Chains are kept on until all unpaved streets are dry.

A similar overhaul is provided for all equipment in the spring.

No matter what the weather may be, each piece of motorized equipment is started up at 8 a. m. and 6 p. m. and allowed to idle for five minutes.

At the same time, crews are required to test pumps and to make a check to see that all tools are on hand and the mobile radio is operating satisfactorily.

Firearms Safety Taught To 4-H Club

A demonstration on firearms safety was presented by James Griffith at a meeting of the Baltimore Pike Boys 4-H Club.

The demonstration was held Tuesday at the home of Richard Ware, with members of the Breakneck 4-H Club as visitors. Mrs. Ware served refreshments after the meeting.

Attorney Files Writ For Client In Murder Case

Ronald W. "Pete" Guard, 51-year-old Friendsville constable, entered a plea of not guilty to a charge of first degree murder at a hearing yesterday before Trial Magistrate Robert M. Maroney in Oakland. He was ordered held without bond for action of the grand jury in the fatal shooting early Sunday of George Raymond Schroyer, 40-year-old Friendsville tavern operator.

Attorney Lewis R. Jones immediately filed for a writ of habeas corpus in an effort to fix bond and gain his client's release. A hearing will be held Monday before Associate Judge Neil C. Fraley on the writ.

The murder charge will be presented to the grand jury at the January term of Garrett County Circuit Court. Guard has been held in the county jail at Oakland since the shooting.

Testifying for the state at yesterday's preliminary hearing were Sheriff James Frantz, Robert Spear and Walter Coddington. State's Attorney Dwight Stover asked that a first-degree murder charge be placed against Guard following their testimony.

Surplus Food Distribution Dates Listed

The dates for distribution of surplus food to qualified persons in Allegany County were announced yesterday by Grant A. Wiebel, supervisor of the program for this county.

Mr. Wiebel also announced that Tuesday, November 10, will be the deadline for new applications for donable food for November.

He added November 10 also will be the deadline for persons who must contact the surplus food office in the County Building for re-certification.

The dates and distribution points for the food are:

Cumberland—November 16 and 17 from 9:30 a. m. to 3 p. m. at the Armory. Cresaptown — November 18 from 9:30 a. m. to 11 a m. at the Fire Hall. Christian Church To Hold Program

The Comprehensive Evangelism Program of First Christian Church will begin another phase Sunday entitled "Deepening the Spiritual Life," according to Rev. Ralph Burnette, pastor.

Rev. Burnette said this Sunday's program is called "Experiencing God's Love." Sunday also has been designated as Covenant Sunday and the prayer covenant will be made at the 10:40 a. m. service.

Rev. Burnette said the program of visitation will be held November 10-13, followed by Decision Sunday, November 15. Rev. Dr. John W. Frye, national Evangelist for Christian churches, will begin a preaching mission for eight days starting November 15. The service will be held each day at 7:30 p. m.

Firemen Meet Sunday

Member companies of the Allegany-Garrett Counties Volunteer Firemen's Association will meet at 2 p. m. Sunday at the fire hall in Clarysville.

C Of C Housing Unit To Hold Dinner Meeting

Certified Agency Plan To Be Explained

The housing committee of the Cumberland Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a dinner meeting November 12 at 6:30 p. m. in the Cumberland Country Club for those in Allegany and Garrett counties who have a business interest in housing.

The principal speaker will be Charles H. Borcherding, area director of the Federal Housing Administration, who will discuss the FHA's Certified Agency Program.

J. Carson Dowell, chairman of the committee, will preside and present a briefing on the work of the committee.

Mr. Borcherding will discuss the certified agency program and how it can be used to step up the use of the FHA facilities in this area.

Invitations to attend are being extended to leaders of Western Maryland financial institutions, housing contractors, buiding supply people, real estate personnel and industrial leaders of the area.

Reservations may be made with the Chamber of Commerce until noon on November 10.

The recently appointed housing committee is presently trying to make a close estimate of the amount of housing needed by area industries and the price range of the needed dwellings.

Meetings have been held with industry representatives and with the heads of area financial institutions.

Shooting Victim Still 'Critical'

Herbert F. Martin, 65, of 43 Maryland Street, Keyser, W. Va., was reported still in "critical" condition late last night at Potomac Valley Hospital, Keyser, of a .22 calibre rifle bullet wound.

Mr. Martin was admitted to the hospital early yesterday morning after he allegedly shot himself in the mouth. His wife found him lying on the garage floor.

The shooting is being investigated by Police Chief Guy F. Clem of Keyser.

Duke Bible Class Plans Rally Day

Rally Day will be observed by the Duke Memorial Bible Class at its meeting Sunday in Central YMCA.

The meeting will begin at 9:30 a.m. so a class picture can be taken.

Miss Shirley Keating will sing "Prayer Is the Key to Heaven," accompanied by Paul Marriott, class pianist.

Charles E. Shaw will teach the lesson and the class orchestra will play.

Mercury Dips Below Freezing In Cold Snap

Yesterday morning's cold snap, coldest of the season, dropped temperatures well below the freezing mark in the tri-state area and wiped out most vegetation that had survived previous light frosts in many sections.

Oakland was the coldest spot in the state, with a low of 21.5 degrees and a frost which left a white coating a quarter of an inch thick.

Deal, Pa., on the Western Maryland Railway and Elkins, W. Va., each had 22 degrees, while Frostburg had 26 and Cumberland 28.

A light freeze covered many damp areas in Cumberland before temperatures rose to the day's high of 55 degrees.

Annual ASC Convention Here Today

The annual convention of the Allegany County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee will be held this morning at 10:30 in the ASC office, 37 Washington Street.

Elizabeth A. Hoover, office manager, said yesterday the purpose of the convention is to elect a chairman, vice chairman, member and two alternates of the county committee.

Committee chairmen from the five communities in the county who will attend the convention include:

Marshall T. Mann, Community A, Little Orleans; Floyd Buser, Community B., Oldtown; Earl F. Stonestreet, Community C., Flintstone; R. W. Ferguson, Community D., Mt. Savage, Union Grove; and Ivan Wilson, Community E., Frostburg, Georges Creek and Potomac Valley.

Bradye H. Dolly of Community C has been the chairman of the committee for the past two years. Those officers elected this morning will assume their duties during a meeting scheduled at 1:30 p. m., Thursday, November 5 at the ASC office.

Miss Hoover, who said there are 864 farmers in the county, pointed out that the responsibility of the committee is to keep individual community officials and farmers up to date on ASC activities.

These activities include agricultural conservation, wheat marketing, price support, soil bank and wool programs.

Miss Rooney Has Emergency Operation

Miss Mary F. Rooney, Lonaconing, was reported improved yesterday in Sacred Heart Hospital, where she underwent an emergency operation Wednesday night.

Miss Rooney is medical care clerk for the Allegany County Health Department.

Salem Council Pilgrimage Is Set Tonight

Salem Council No. 11, Royal and Select Masters, will make a pilgrimage to Baltimore tonight to attend a Grand Council meeting.

The meeting will open at 7:30 p. m. at the Masonic Temple on North Charles Street.

It will feature the conferring of the Super Excellent degree of Royal Arch by grand officers and members of the Baltimore bodies.

Salem Council expects to have from 40 to 50 members attend and to receive the degree, which is usually conferred once every five years.

The local delegation will be headed by Thomas S. Gifford, thrice illustrious master of Salem Council.

The delegation will leave by car or by buses, which will leave the Masonic Temple today at 2:30 p. m.

A hearing will be held today at 1:30 p. m. in Juvenile Court for the two youths involved in the crash of a stolen jeep Tuesday night which claimed the life of a 12-year-old local boy.

John P. Oster, 27 Browning Street, was crushed to death when the stolen vehicle in which he was a passenger overturned on Williams Road.

The driver, Dewayne C. Sowers, 15, of 933 Glenwood Street, is being detained at the Allegany County Infirmary, and Robert W. Nixon, 12, of 927 Gay Street, has been released to the custody of his parents.

The jeep was stolen Tuesday about 7 p. m. from Allan D. Miller, 940 Gay Street, and was wrecked about 10 p. m. about five miles east of Cumberland on Williams Road.

Piedmont Man Sentenced In Theft

A Piedmont man was sentenced to from one to 15 years in the West Virginia Penitentiary and another Piedmont youth was paroled for five years after they pleaded guilty Wednesday in Mineral County Circuit Court to charges of breaking and entering and larceny.

Judge Ernest A. See ordered Lewis Ray Serfino to the penitentiary and paroled George Arthur Pyles after finding them guilty of breaking and entering a home in Piedmont this summer and taking a typewriter and several guns.

The two admitted breaking and entering the home of Roy M. Walker while the Walkers were on vacation on the South Branch of the Potomac.

Celanese Firm Earnings Hit $15,815,499

The Celanese Corporation of America and domestic subsidiaries yesterday reported that earnings of $15,815,499 for the nine months ending September 30 were 57 per cent higher than the $10,082,719 in earnings reported for the same period last year.

This year's first nine months' earnings were equal to $1.67 per common share, as compared with 89 cents per share earnings during the same period last year. Both figures are based upon the 7,334,197 common shares currently outstanding.

For the first nine months this year, Celanese product sales totaled $193,357,991, exceeding by 18 per cent the $163,573,099 sales volume of the comparable nine months of 1958. Sales of $65,779,941 for the three months ending September 30 were 10 per cent greater than the $59,785,897 in sales reported for the third quarter last year.

Earnings for the third quarter this year amounted to $5,370,411, equal to 57 cents a common share, as compared with last year's third quarter earnings of $4,381,374, equal to 43 cents per common share, both per share earnings figures based on total shares currently outstanding.

In making the report, President Harold Blanke stated, "The continued improvement in the company's sales during 1959 reflects steady gains in our three major product areas—chemicals, fibers and plastics."

Bus Route Changed

Queen City Bus Lines yesterday announced a temporary rerouting of the Pennsylvania Avenue bus while Laing Avenue between South Street and Virginia Avenue is closed for the next few days.

The bus, on its return or uptown trip, will use Fifth Street to Pennsylvania Avenue, and then will go up Pennsylvania Avenue and continue its regular route.

El Fidel Club To Install New Officers Today

The El Fidel Club will hold a past presidents ball and installation of officers at Ali Ghan Shrine Country Club tonight.

A cocktail hour will be held from 7:30 p. m. to 8:30 p. m.

At 8:30 p. m. Noel Speir Cook will install the following officers:

President, Harry Young; vice president, Joseph A. Moore; recording secretary, Burland E. DeBolt; financial secretary, William Burner; treasurer, J. Elmer Minnicks; sentinel, Marshall J. Shank; trustees, Edwin W. VanMeter, Alvin E. Burner and Cornelius A. Dye.

Charles F. Hare, retiring president, was the first president of the El Fidel Club when it was organized 16 years ago. At that time the membership of the club was restricted to employes of the B&O Railroad. In the intervening years the rules have been relaxed to admit others into membership.

The membership is limited to 100 men and the aims of the club are to work for civic improvements and promote social activities of the community.

A dance will be held begining at 9 p. m., with music by Jimmy Young's Nu-Tones.

At 11 p. m. a buffet lunch will be served. The Halloween motif will be carried out in decorations.

Other stated events of the club include a Christmas party to be held at Ali Ghan Shrine Country Club, Thursday, December 10. The annual Spring Dance will be held in May. A picnic and also a corn roast are scheduled for next year.

The club meets the second and fourth Thursdays of each month at the Ali Ghan Shrine City Club.

Plans will be announced tonight regarding formation of an El Fidel Ladies Auxiliary, to be known as EF-LA.

Wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of El Fidel Club members are eligible for the auxiliary.

The committee in charge of tonight's affair includes Burland E. DeBolt, chairman, Cornelius Dye, co-chairman, Glenn Morris, Arthur Tenney and Marshall Shank.

Evangelistic Team To Assist In Rally

Evangelist Hal Webb and Rev. Theron Babcock, members of the YFCI Eastern States evangelistic team, will assist in the Tri-State Youth for Christ rally Saturday at 7:45 p. m. at 115 North Mechanic Street.

A variety of vocal and instrumental music on the accordion, piano and electric guitar will be presented by the team and local teen-agers.

The high school attendance contest for the trophy will continue and Mr. Webb will present the "Challenge to Youth."

Mt. Savage School Pupils Plan Conservation Tour

Fifth and sixth graders of Mt. Savage School who have been studying conservation practices in the classroom this month will go on a tour of two farms Monday afternoon and see the actual practices.

Martin Gordon, work unit conservationist of the Soil Conservation Office here, said yesterday that he plans to take the youngsters to the farms of Wilbert Paugh and Raymond Lepley in the Mt. Savage area.

He will explain contour stripping and diversion terracing; talk about grassland farming and small tree planting areas; and point out farm ponds and explain their value to the farmer.

Mr. Gordon said the children have been studying conservation practices taught by Phyllis Carter, student teacher of Frostburg State Teachers College, and Mrs. Helen D. Caldara, homeroom teacher.

He said the children have been working on charts and he expects to be confronted with quite a few questions the children will ask.

Yesterday morning Mr. Gordon held a discussion of conservation practices for the fifth and sixth grades of Ellerslie School.

Slides on conservation problems and practices were shown in the classroom by Mr. Gordon, who said the children had worked on a number of charts and had asked him some good questions.

Eloise Wildensteiner, another student teacher, has been giving the children instructions.
